

Bill of Divorce

Be it known and remembered by All to whom these presence come and may concern.

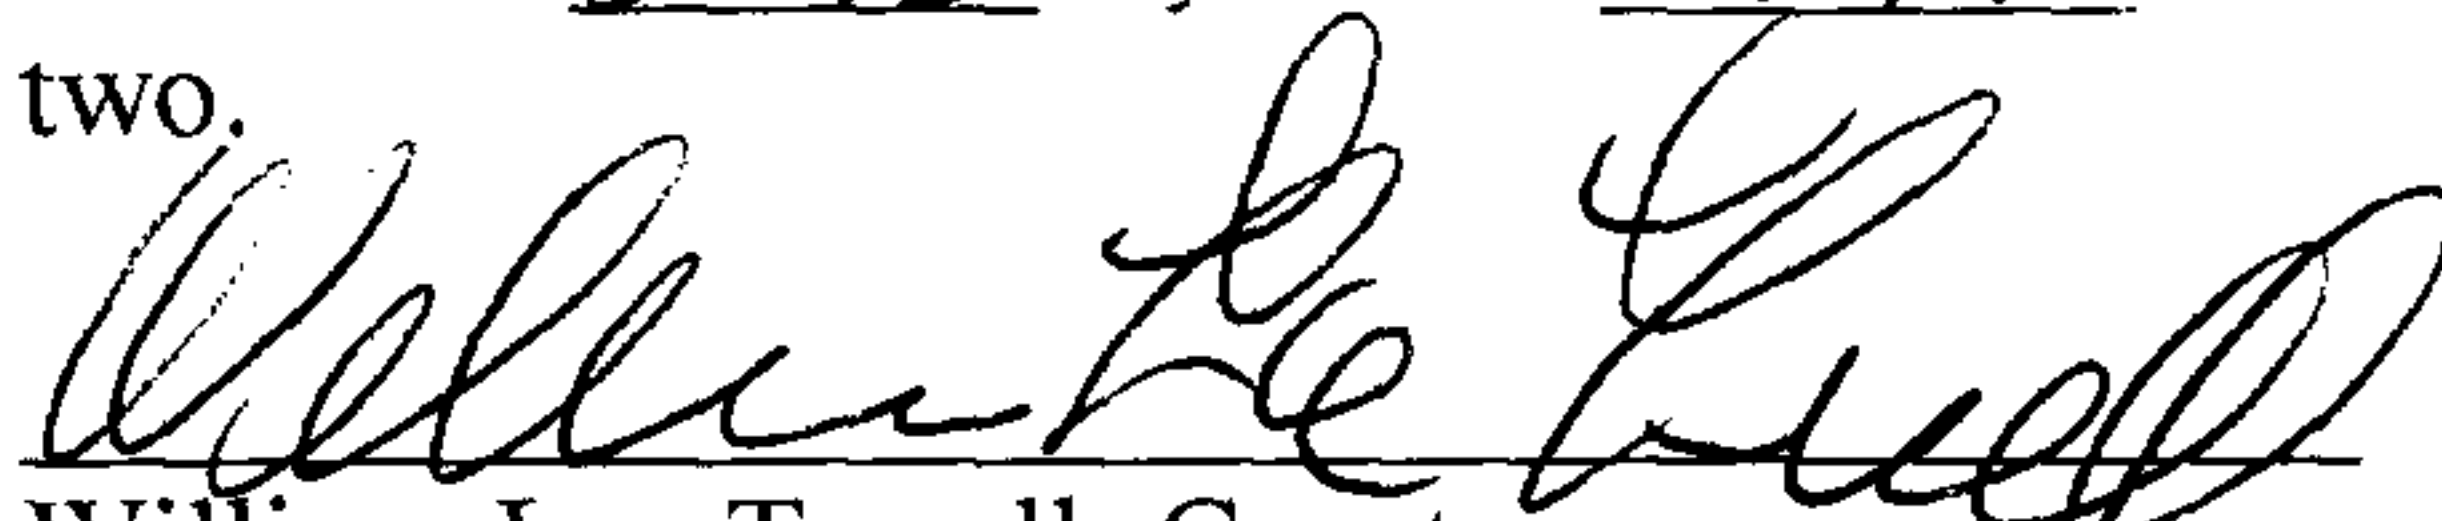

In the court of Almighty God, who created and sanctioned the Holy bonds of marriage between Man and Woman, and before Who's Presence has sole jurisdiction over these matters.

That: William Lee Terrell, wishes to, and does by this instrument, issue forth a petition before God and man which dissolves the bonds of marriage between the said William Lee Terrell and Norberta Leah Knox who were Lawfully married on the seventh day of the seventh month in the Year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty four.

The cause of this Bill of Divorce being issued forth is "abandonment" by the said Norberta Leah Knox, who did knowingly and willfully abandon the bed and domicile of the said William Lee Terrell in the fourth month of the Year of Our Lord, two thousand and one, and has from that time to the present been absent from the coverture of the Husband, William Lee Terrell.

These premises considered, and upon the application of the True Signature of the parties involved, attached hereunto. The bonds of said marriage are no longer binding upon either party, And; that they are now, and shall be henceforth Divorced.

Done this 2ND day of the 7TH month in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and two.
