The location and mailing address of the initial registered office of the Professional Corporation shall be 2121 HIGHLAND AVENUE SOUTH, BIRMINGHAM, AL 35205, and its initial registered agent at such address shall be PATRICK F. ARTICLE VI

CAPITAL

(a) AGGREGATE NUMBER OF SHARES AND PAR VALUE.

The Professional Corporation shall have authority to issue TEN THOUSAND (10,000) shares of common stock, all of the same class and having a par value of ONE CENT ($0.01) per share.

(b) ISSUANCE OF SHARES AND CONSIDERATION THEREFOR. The Professional Corporation may from time to time issue its shares of stock for such consideration as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors and may receive in payment thereof, in whole or in part, money, other property (tangible or intangible), or labor or services actually performed for the Professional Corporation. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the Board of Directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, as to the value of the consideration received for the shares shall be conclusive. Neither promissory notes nor future services, however, shall constitute payment or part payment for the issuance of the shares of the Professional Corporation. When payment of the consideration for which the shares are to be issued shall have been received by the Professional Corporation, such shares shall be deemed to be fully paid and non-assessable, and the holder of such shares shall not be liable for any further payment in respect thereof.

(c) RESTRICTION ON ISSUANCE OF SHARES. The Professional Corporation may issue shares of its capital stock only to qualified persons as that term is defined by Section 10-4-382(5) of the Alabama Code of 1975, as that Section may from time to time be amended (hereinafter referred to as "qualified person" or "qualified persons"). A shareholder may voluntarily transfer his, her, or its shares in the Professional Corporation only to another qualified person. Any shares issued in violation of this provision are null and void.

(d) VOTING TRUSTS. A voting trust with respect to shares of the Professional Corporation shall not be valid unless all the trustees and beneficiaries thereof are qualified persons; except that a voting trust may be validly continued for a period of twelve (12) months after the death of a deceased beneficiary or after a beneficiary has ceased to be a qualified person.

ARTICLE VII

INCORPORATORS AND SHAREHOLDERS

(a) INCORPORATOR AND INITIAL SHAREHOLDER. The name and address of the incorporator and initial shareholder of the Professional Corporation are as follows:

NAME

EDUARDO GENTRY GONZALEZ

442 SUMMIT PL
BIRMINGHAM, AL 35243

The shareholder listed above is a qualified person.

(b) VOTING RIGHTS. Except as otherwise set forth in these Articles of Incorporation or by law, each outstanding share shall entitle the holder thereof to one (1) vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of the shareholders.

(c) RESTRICTION ON TRANSFER OF SHARES. Shares of stock of the Professional Corporation may be sold, pledged, assigned, given or transferred only to qualified persons. Any transfer of shares in violation of this Section shall be void. In addition, the transfer of shares of stock of the Professional Corporation shall be subject to the following:

- (1) RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL. No share of stock shall be sold, given, assigned, or otherwise transferred, to any qualified person unless it first shall have been offered for sale to the Professional Corporation and any other shareholders of the Professional Corporation upon the terms and conditions described in subparagraph (d) hereof.
- (2) DEATH OR DISQUALIFICATION OF SHAREHOLDER. If any shareholder who had been a qualified person dies or ceases to be a qualified person, the shareholder or the shareholder's personal representative shall offer for sale all his, her, or its stock in the Professional Corporation upon the terms and conditions set forth in subparagraphs (d) and (e) hereof.

(d) OFFER FOR SALE. Whenever a shareholder is required to offer his, hers, or its stock in the Professional Corporation for sale under the terms of subparagraph (c) hereof, the Professional Corporation shall have the first option to purchase all or any part of the stock offered for sale upon the terms of sale set forth in subparagraph (e) hereof. The determination whether the Professional Corporation shall accept such offer shall be made at a special meeting of the shareholders by a majority vote of the shares of stock entitled to vote at such meeting; provided, however, that no share of stock held by the selling shareholder, irrespective of whether such share is included in the stock which he has offered to the Professional Corporation, shall be entitled to vote upon the determination, nor shall such share be treated as outstanding stock for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present at such meeting. To the extent that the Professional Corporation does not purchase the stock offered for sale hereunder, each of the other shareholders shall have the right to purchase an amount of such stock which bears the same ratio to all of such stock as the purchasing shareholder's holding of stock of the Professional Corporation bears to the holdings of all such other shareholders desiring to purchase such stock.

(e) TERMS OF SALE. The price for any share or shares of stock in the Professional Corporation purchased and sold pursuant to the terms of this Article shall be the greater of the par value of such share or shares or the book value of such share or shares as of the end of the month preceding the month in which the death or disqualification of a shareholder or the offer for sale by a selling shareholder occurs. Book value shall be determined from the books and records of the Professional Corporation in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis. Payment for such stock shall be made within a reasonable period of time after the date that the offer for sale or the death or disqualification of such shareholder occurs.

(f) EFFECT OF PRIVATE AGREEMENTS. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, the Professional Corporation and any shareholder or shareholders thereof may, from time to time, enter into an agreement or agreements that provide for the Professional Corporation or shareholders thereof to purchase a shareholder's stock at a price or upon terms other than the price and terms set forth herein. The terms of this Article and of such agreement shall be construed so as to give effect to the provisions of both, insofar as possible; but in the event of a conflict between the provisions of this Article and of such agreement, the provisions set forth in such agreement shall prevail.

(g) PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS. No shareholder shall have any preemptive rights to purchase any shares of the stock of the Professional Corporation, including treasury shares, which may be issued or sold by the Professional Corporation.

(h) RIGHT OF PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION TO PURCHASE STOCK. The Professional Corporation may purchase, exchange, take, receive, redeem, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, use or otherwise have an interest in or deal with, sell, exchange, convey, assign, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, distribute or otherwise deal in and dispose of, shares of its own stock; provided, however, that the Professional Corporation shall not so act, directly or indirectly, with respect to shares of its stock in a manner which would be prohibited under the laws of the State of Alabama pertaining to professional corporations, or these Articles of Incorporation, and provided that the Professional Corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock.

ARTICLE VIII

DIRECTORS

(a) PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION TO BE GOVERNED BY BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The Professional Corporation shall be governed by a Board of Directors elected by the shareholders and represented by officers elected by the Board of Directors, and no shareholder shall have the power to bind the Professional Corporation within the scope of the Professional Corporation's business or profession merely by virtue of his being a shareholder of the Professional Corporation. Directors need not be shareholders of the Professional Corporation; provided, however, at least one member of the Board of Directors shall be licensed to render the Professional Service, except that this limitation shall not apply for a period of twelve (12) months following the death of the sole shareholder of the Professional Corporation. No director who is not duly licensed to carry on the Professional Service for which the Professional Corporation is organized shall participate in any decisions constituting the practice of the Professional Service.

(c) AUTHORITY OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS. All powers of the Professional Corporation shall be exercised by or under authority of, and the business and affairs of the Professional Corporation shall be managed under the direction of the Board of Directors except as may be otherwise provided by law. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized:

- (1) To alter, amend, or repeal the By-Laws or adopt new By-Laws; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may not alter, amend, or repeal any By-Law establishing what constitutes a quorum at shareholders' meetings.
- (2) To declare dividends on the Professional Corporation's outstanding shares, except when the Professional Corporation is insolvent, or when the payment thereof would render the Professional Corporation insolvent, or when the declaration or payment thereof would be contrary to any restriction contained in these Articles of Incorporation, and to determine the date or dates for the declaration and payment of such dividends.
- (3) To distribute to the shareholders out of the capital surplus of the Professional Corporation, a portion of the Professional Corporation's assets, in cash or property, subject to the restrictions and provisions of the Alabama Business Corporation Act.
- (4) To fix and determine and to vary the amount of working capital of the Professional Corporation; and to direct and determine the use and disposition of any surplus or net profits over and above the capital stock paid in.
- (5) To take any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof without a meeting, if a written consent thereto is signed by all the members of the Board or of such committee, as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board or committee.
- (6) To remove any officer or agent of the Professional Corporation whenever, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the best interest of the Professional Corporation will be served thereby.

The Professional Corporation may, in its By-Laws, confer powers upon its Board of Directors in addition to the foregoing, and in addition to the powers and authority expressly conferred upon the directors by statute.

(d) REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in these Articles of Incorporation, or in the By-Laws which may be adopted pursuant thereto, at a meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose, any director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors, who may then forthwith at such meeting proceed to elect a successor or successors for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE IX

OFFICERS

(a) NUMBER OF OFFICERS. The officers of the Professional Corporation shall include a President, a Secretary, and such other officers as the Board of Directors may determine from time to time. Any one person may serve in more than one office. Officers need not be licensed to render the Professional Service, except for the President who shall be licensed to render the Professional Service; provided, however, this limitation shall not apply for a period of twelve (12) months following the death of the sole shareholder of the Professional Corporation. Officers need not be members of the Board of Directors, except for the President, who shall be a member of the Board of Directors.

(b) RESTRICTION ON OFFICERS. No officer who is not duly licensed to engage in the Professional Service for which the Professional Corporation is organized shall participate in any decision constituting the practice of the Professional Service.

(c) POWERS OF OFFICERS. Officers of the Professional Corporation shall have such powers, duties, and responsibilities as shall be set forth in the By-Laws of the Professional Corporation.

ARTICLE X

LIABILITY

The personal liability of a shareholder, employee director or officer of the Professional Corporation shall be no greater in any respect than that of a shareholder, employee, director or officer of a corporation organized under the Alabama Business Corporation Act.

ARTICLE XI

INDEMNIFICATION

Each person who shall serve as a director or officer of the Professional Corporation shall be indemnified by the Professional Corporation against all judgments, fines, costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him, in connection with or resulting from any action, suit, or proceeding to which he is, or may be made a party, by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of the Professional Corporation (and including settlements made with a view to curtailment of litigation costs in amounts approved by the Board of Directors, but not including any case where, in the opinion of counsel for the Professional Corporation, the director or officer is liable, whether or not such person is a director or officer at the time such settlement is effected), at the time such costs or expenses are incurred by or imposed upon him, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding to be liable or to have been negligent or guilty of misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Professional Corporation as such director or officer. The right of indemnification herein provided shall not be exclusive of and shall be in addition to any other rights to which such person may be entitled as a matter of law.

ARTICLE XII
CONFLICT OF INTEREST

No contract or other transaction between the Professional Corporation and one or more of its directors or any other professional corporation, business corporation, professional association, firm or entity in which one or more of its directors are directors or officers or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable because of such relationship or interest or because such director or directors are present at the meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves, or ratifies such contract or transaction, if the contract or transaction is fair and reasonable to the Professional Corporation and if either:

(a) the fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed to the Board of Directors or committee which authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction by a vote or consent sufficient for the purpose without counting the votes or consents of such interested directors; or

(b) the fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorize, approve, or ratify such contract or transaction by vote or written consent.

Common or interested directors may not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves, or ratifies such contract or transaction.

Any and every statute of the State of Alabama hereafter enacted whereby the rights, powers and privileges of the shareholders of professional corporations or corporations organized under the general laws of the State of Alabama are increased, diminished or in any way affected, or whereby effect is given to the action by any part less than all of the shareholders of any such professional corporation or corporation, shall apply to this Professional Corporation and shall be binding upon not only this Professional Corporation but upon every shareholder thereof, to the same extent as if such statute had been in force at the date of the making and filing of these Articles of Incorporation.
