Article VII The right, if given, of the member or members of the Limited Liability Company to admit additional members, and the terms and conditions of the admission, are:

Transferees of a former member of this LLC shall not be admitted into membership in this LLC unless all of the nontransferring LLC members consent in writing to the admission of the new member. For other admissions, a person or entity shall not be admitted into membership in this LLC unless each member consents in writing to the admission of the new member.

Article VIII The circumstances under which the cessation of membership of one or more members will result in dissolution of the Limited Liability Company are:

The remaining members of this LLC have the right to vote to continue the business of the LLC on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member, or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the LLC ("dissociation event"). If a vote of remaining members is required under state law to approve the continuance of the LLC after a dissociation event, and the required period for taking such vote or the number or percentage of votes required to approve the continuance of the LLC are not specified under state law or the LLC Operating Agreement, the continuance of this LLC shall be approved by all remaining members within 90 days of the dissociation event.

Any provision, not inconsistent with the law, for the regulation of the internal affairs of the Limited Liability Company are permitted to be set out in the operating agreement of the LLC.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the undersigned members executed these Articles of Organization on this, the 20th day of February, 2003.
