

We, Patrick Brian Pourciau and Daniel Boone Green, holding joint interest in property located in Shelby County in Alabama, that said property being located at 131 Primerose Lane, Harpersville, Alabama 35078 do hereby declare that in the event of our death or disability we are rendered unable to occupy the property, property and dwelling located on it will pass in its entirety to Rachel Rebecca Greene and she shall hold sole ownership to said property free and clear.

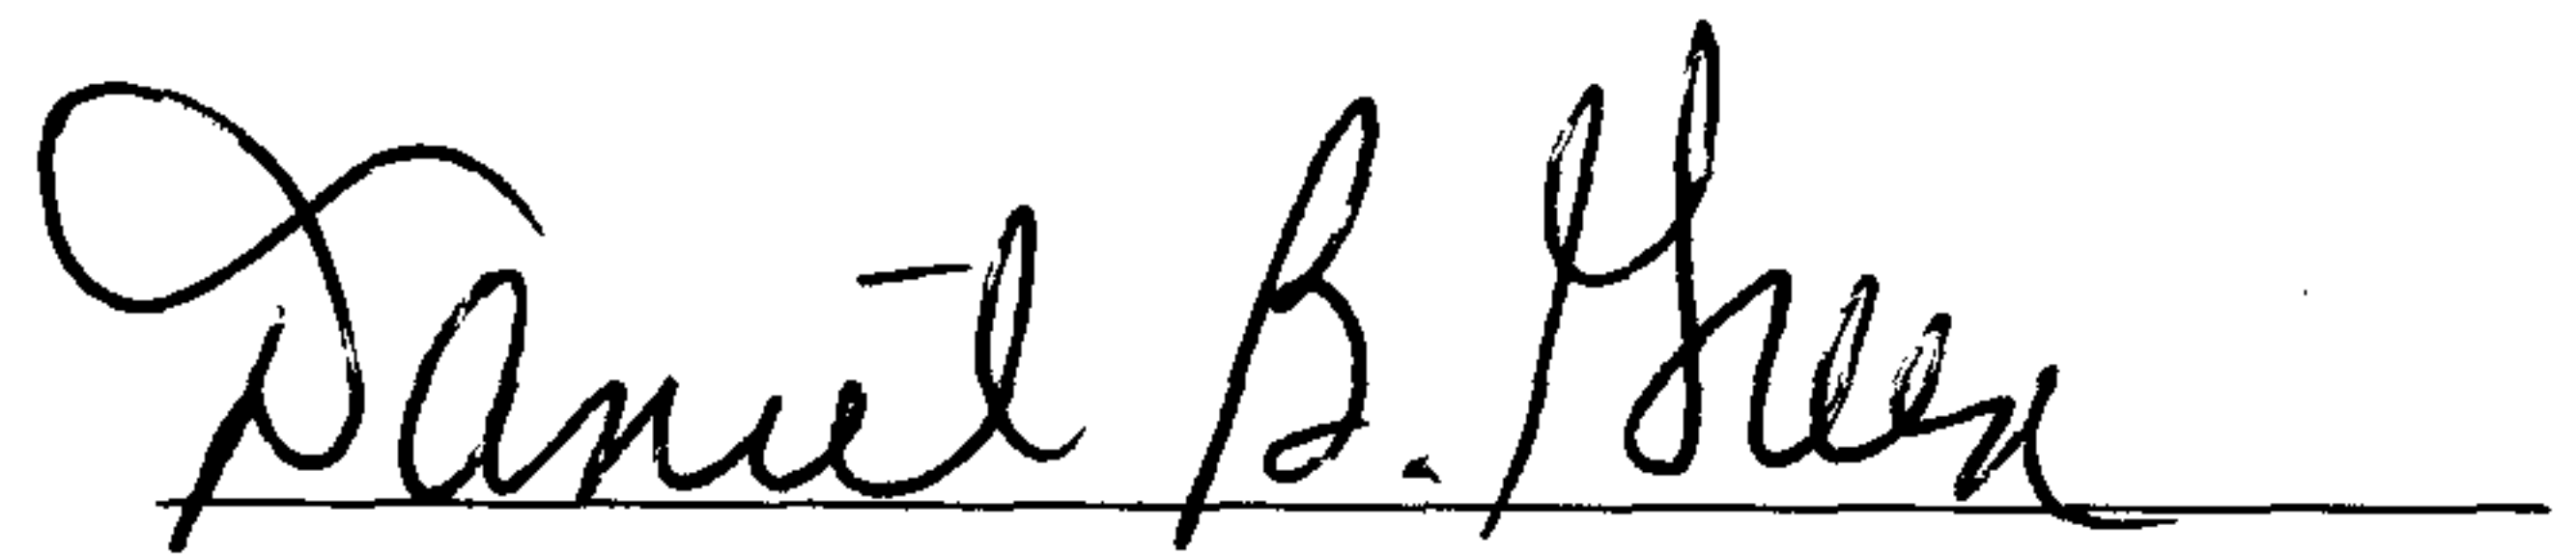

The cabin property located in Jackson County, North Carolina, said property located in Holly Cove Campground, Whittier, North Carolina, in the event of our death or disability we are rendered unable to occupy the property it will pass in its entirety to our five children jointly. Robert Earl Green, Jr., known as Robby, will be the executor of said property, as he is the elder of the five. A fund is to be established and supported by each of the five children as outlined here: each child is to contribute a fee of $1500 (for a total of $ 7500) on December 1st of each year to pay expenses which include but may not be limited to, water, electric, gas, road maintenance, insurance and any other monthly/annual fees. Any child not paying the fee forfeits his or her interest in the property in its entirety and cannot regain lost interest. Property is to be used by those holding ownership and cannot be used by renting out, or by other family members or friends without an owner is present during said visit. In addition to the maintenance fee, a daily use fee will be assessed to cover the use of gas and electricity with each visit. In addition to the general maintenance of the property any additional expense incurred, as those who hold ownership in said property will equally pay the result of repairs or remodeling. Failure to pay individual share in such will result in forfeiture of individuals' interest in the property. As stated above, once interest in property is lost it cannot be regained.

By my signature I assert I have read, understand and agree to the terms and conditions as set forth in this document. By our joint desire this document is not to be challenged or altered in any manner in part or whole.

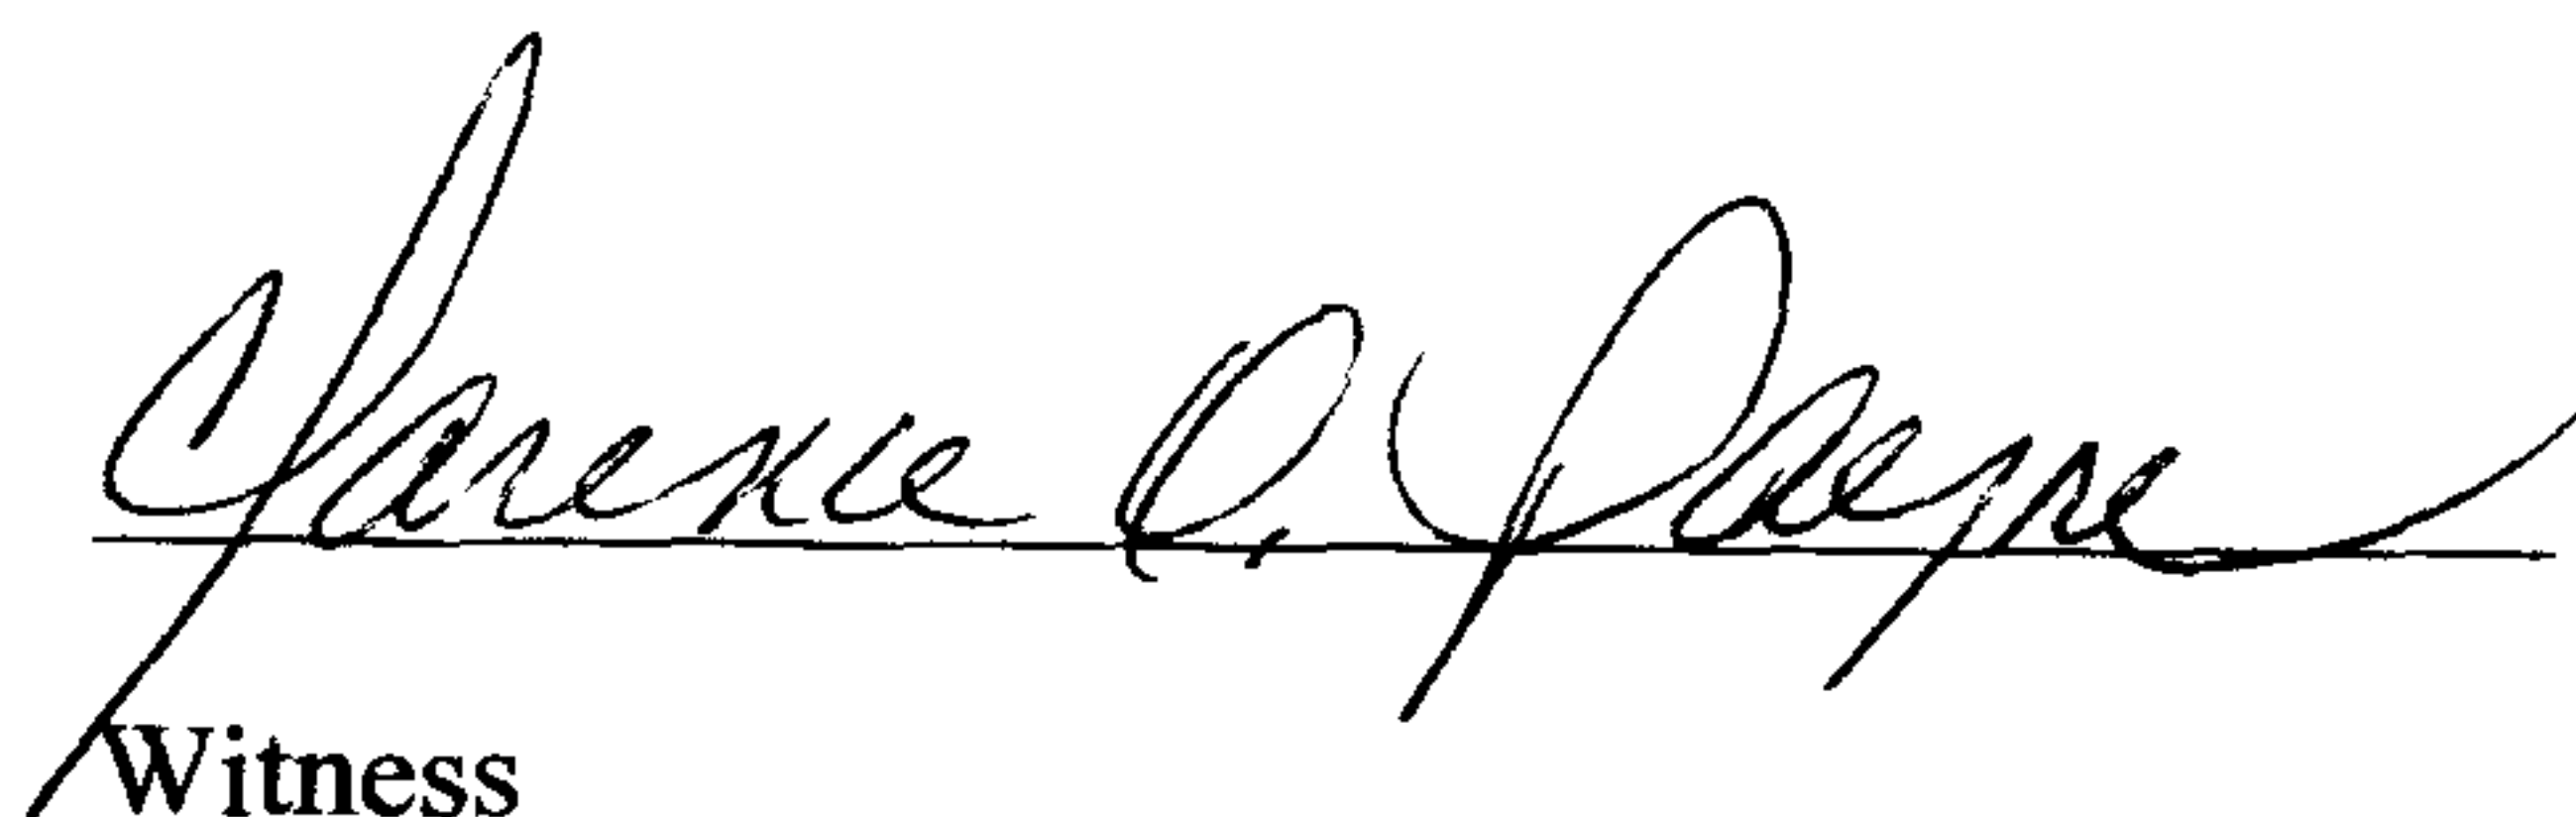

Given this 26th day of January in the year of our Lord, 2004.

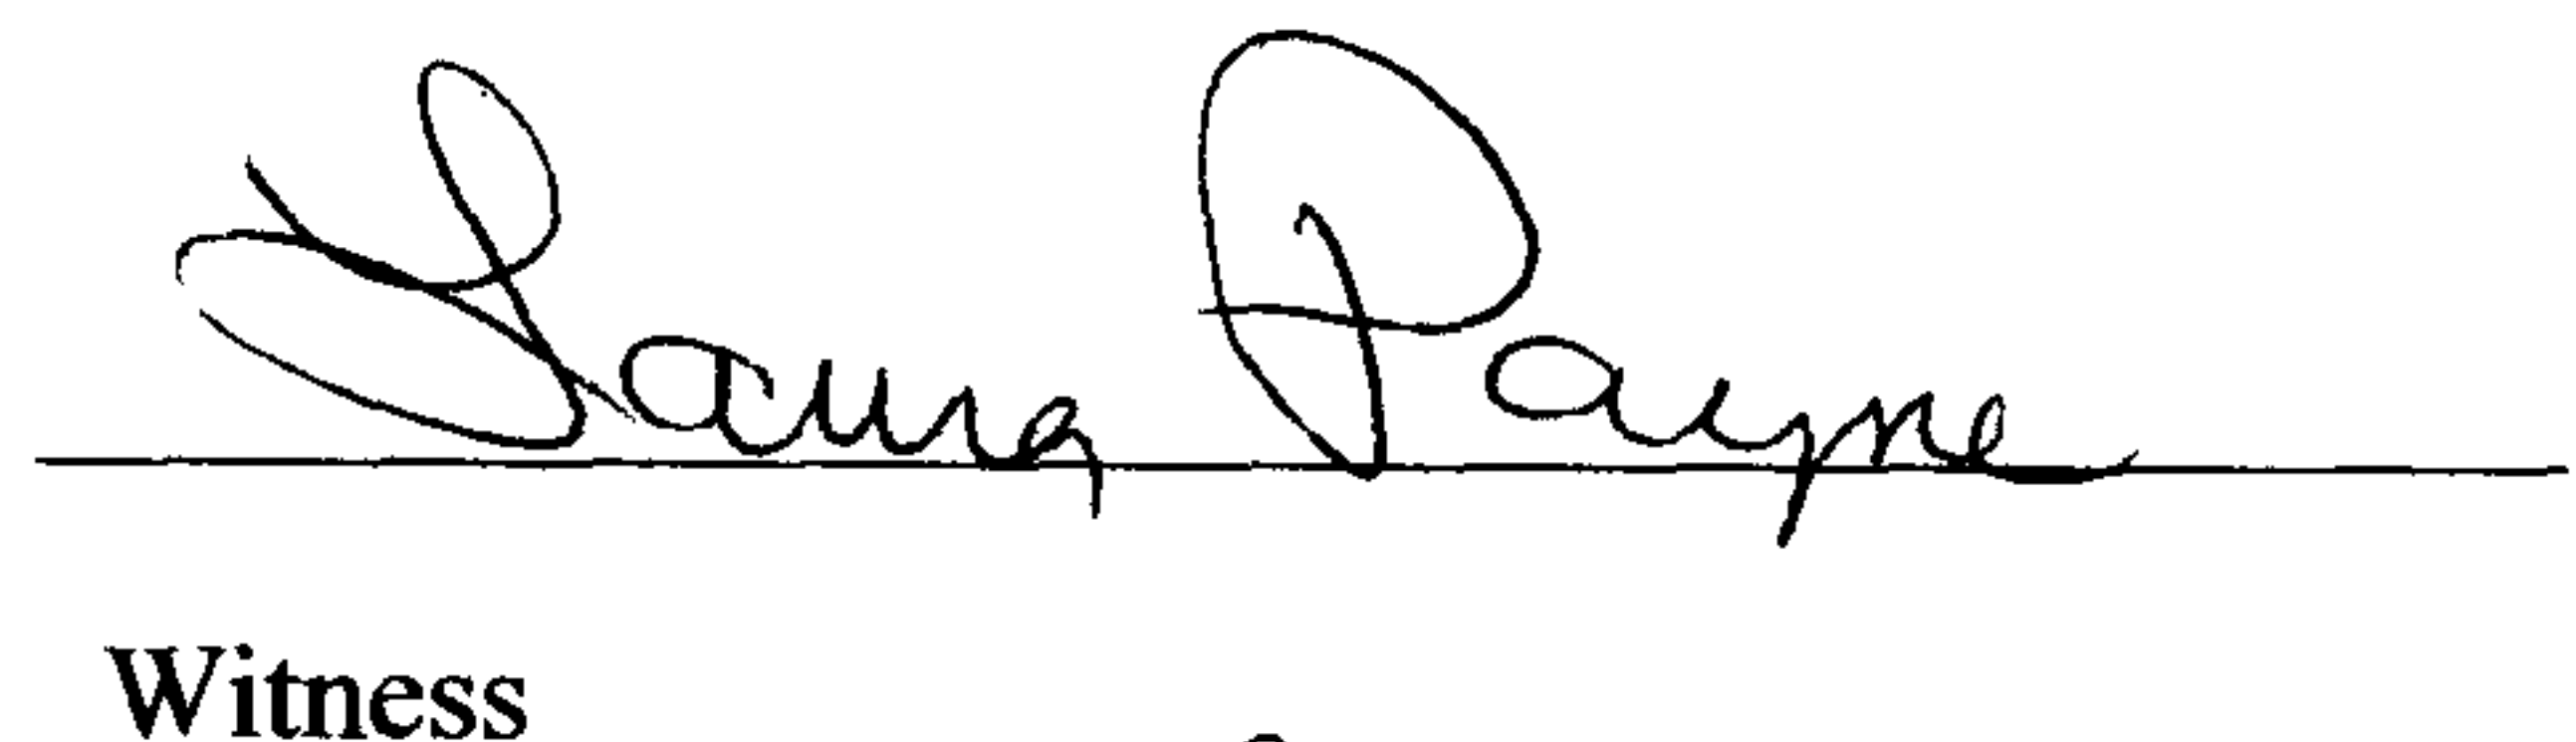

Patrick Brian Pourciau

Daniel Boone Green

Witness

Witness

Notary
Comm expires
10/9/05