JUDGMENT

This case is before the Court on Compass Bank's ("Compass") Motion for Summary Judgment. Having considered the Motion, the supporting documentary evidence, the testimony and oral arguments of counsel, and the Court noting there was no filed opposition to the Motion, the Motion for Summary Judgment is hereby GRANTED in its entirety.

Final Judgment is entered in favor of Compass and against James W. Tracy in the total amount of $115,265.19 which consists of principal, interest and reasonable attorneys' fees on Counts One and Two of the Complaint.

Final Judgment is entered in favor of Compass and against Meredith M. Tracy in the total amount of $115,265.19 which consists of principal, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees on Counts One and Two of the Complaint.

The Court further ORDERS AND DECREES that Compass has a valid and perfected security interest in the equipment, machinery, furniture, and fixtures of the business known as Tracy's Cafeteria ("Collateral"). Compass is entitled to the immediate right of possession of the Collateral. James W. Tracy and Meredith M. Tracy are hereby ORDERED to immediately assemble and deliver possession of the Collateral to the duly authorized representatives of Compass. Court costs are taxed against the Defendants.

Done this 24, day of June, 2004.
