individual acting in his individual capacity, notwithstanding that such individual may be a shareholder, member, director, officer, employee or agent of this Corporation.

Common or interested directors may not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction.

XII. INDEMNIFICATION.

A. Definitions. In this Article XII:

(1) the term “director” means an individual who is or was a director of the Corporation or an individual who, while a director of the Corporation, is or was serving at the Corporation’s request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise. A director is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Corporation’s request if his or her duties to the Corporation also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by, the director to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The term “director” includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representatives of a director.

(2) the term “expenses” includes counsel fees.

(3) the term “liability” means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine (including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), or reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.

(4) the term “official capacity” means (1) when used with respect to a director, the office of director in the Corporation; and (2) when used with respect to an individual other than a director, as contemplated in Section G of this Article XII, the office in the Corporation held by an officer or the employment or agency relationship undertaken by the employee or agent on behalf of the Corporation. The term “official capacity” does not include service for any other corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise.

(5) the term “party” includes an individual who was, is or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

(6) the term “proceeding” means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal.

B. Authority to Indemnify.

(1) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this Section B, the Corporation shall indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because he or she is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

(a) The individual conducted himself or herself in good faith;
and

(b) The individual reasonably believed:

- (i) In the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the Corporation, that the conduct was in the Corporation's best interests; and
- (ii) In all other cases, that the conduct was at least not opposed to the Corporation's best interests; and
- (c) In the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

(2) A director's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan, for a purpose he or she reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in, and beneficiaries of, the plan, is conduct that satisfies the requirement of subsection (1)(b)(ii) of this Section B.

(3) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this Section B.

(4) The Corporation may not indemnify a director under this Section B:

- (a) In connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the Corporation; or
- (b) In connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the director, whether or not involving action in his or her official capacity, in which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her.

(5) Indemnification permitted under this Section B in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

C. Mandatory Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify a director who was successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding, or of any claim, issue or matter in such proceeding, where he or she was a party because he or she is or was a director of the Corporation, against reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith, notwithstanding that he or she was not successful on any other claim, issue or matter in any such proceeding.

D. Advances for Expenses.

(1) The Corporation may pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if:

- (a) The director furnishes the Corporation a written affirmation of good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct described in Section B of this Article XII;
- (b) The director furnishes the Corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director did not meet the standard of conduct, or is not otherwise entitled to indemnification under Section B(4) of this Article XII, unless indemnification is approved by the court under Section E of this Article XII; and
- (c) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this Article XII.

(2) The undertaking required by subsection (1)(b) of this Section D must be an unlimited general obligation of the director but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

(3) Determinations and authorizations of payments under this section D shall be made in the manner specified in Section F of this Article XII.

E. Court-ordered Indemnification. A director of the Corporation who is a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification to the court conducting the proceeding, or may file an action therefor in another court of competent jurisdiction if such court has jurisdiction over the Corporation and the Corporation is a party to the proceeding. On receipt of such an application or the filing of such an action, the court after giving any notice it considers necessary may order indemnification if it determines:

a. The director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section C of this Article XII, in which case the court shall also order the Corporation to pay the director's reasonable expenses incurred to obtain court-ordered indemnification; or

b. The director is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not he or she met the standard of conduct set forth in Section B of this Article XII or was adjudged liable as described in Section B(4) of this Article XII, but if he or she was adjudged so liable the indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses incurred.

F. Determination and Authorization of Indemnification.

(1) The Corporation may not indemnify a director under Section B of this Article XII unless authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification of the director is permissible in the circumstances because the director has met the standard of conduct set forth in Section B of this Article XII.

(2) The determination shall be made:

- (a) By the Board of Directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;
- (b) If a quorum cannot be obtained under subdivision (a) of this Section F(2), by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the Board of Directors (in which designation directors who are parties may participate) consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;
- (c) By special legal counsel;
 - (i) Selected by the Board of Directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in subdivision (a) or (b) of this Section F(2); or
 - (ii) If a quorum of the Board of Directors cannot be obtained under subdivision (a) of this Section F(2) and a committee cannot be designated under subdivision (b) of this Section F(2), selected by majority vote of the full Board of Directors (in which selection directors who are parties may participate); or
- (d) By the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding may not be voted on the determination. A majority of the shares that are entitled to vote on the transaction by virtue of not being owned by or under the control of such directors constitutes a quorum for the purpose of taking action under this Section.

(3) Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made by those entitled under subsection (2)(c) of this Section F to select counsel.

G. Indemnification of Officers, Employees, and Agents.

(1) The Corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses under this Article XII to an officer of the Corporation who is not a director to the same extent as to a director.

(2) The Corporation may (but shall not be required to) indemnify and may advance expenses under this Article XII to an employee or agent of the Corporation who is not a director or officer to the same extent as to a director, but only if and to the extent the Board of Directors of the Corporation specifically authorizes and approves such indemnification with respect to a particular employee or agent, and such indemnification shall be subject to any limitations or conditions the Board of Directors may impose in connection with such authorization and approval.

H. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance, or furnish similar protection (including but not limited to trust funds, self-insurance reserves, or the like), on behalf of an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, or who, while a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, against liability asserted against or incurred by him or her in that capacity or arising from his or her status as a director, officer, employee, or agent, whether or not the Corporation would have power to indemnify him or her against the same liability under Section B or C of this Article XII.

I. Application of Indemnification Provisions.

(1) Any indemnification, or advances for expenses, authorized under this Article XII shall not be deemed exclusive of and shall be in addition to that which may be contained in the Corporation's articles of incorporation, bylaws, a resolution of its shareholders or Board of Directors, or in a contract or otherwise.

(2) This Article XII does not limit the Corporation's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director in connection with the director's appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when he or she has not been made a named defendant or respondent to the proceeding.

XIII. MAJORITY VOTE. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the Bylaws of the Corporation, and subject to the limitations of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901 as the same may be amended from time to time, the Corporation may sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, or its property (with or without goodwill), otherwise than in the usual and regular course of business on the terms and conditions and for the consideration determined by the Corporation's board of directors, if the board of directors proposes and the shareholders approve the proposed transaction; provided, however, that such proposed transaction be approved by a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on the transaction by each voting group of shareholders entitled to vote thereon.

XIV. EXCULPATION OF DIRECTORS. To the extent permitted by the laws of the State of Alabama, no director shall be liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for money damages for any action taken, or any failure to act, as a director, except liability for (A) the amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which he or she is not entitled; (B) an intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or the shareholders; (C) a violation of Code of Alabama (1994), §10-2B-8.33; (D) an intentional violation of criminal law; or (E) a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its shareholders.

XVI. DEATH OR DISQUALIFICATION OF A SHAREHOLDER. Upon the death of a shareholder of the Corporation, or if a shareholder of the Corporation ceases to be a Qualified Person, or if shares of the Corporation are transferred by operation of law or court decree to a person who is not a Qualified Person, the shares of such deceased shareholder or of such person who is not a Qualified Person may be transferred to a Qualified Person and, if not so transferred, shall be purchased or redeemed by the Corporation to the extent of funds which may be legally made available for such purchase, for the price and pursuant to the terms established in the bylaws of this Corporation or by private agreement. In the event the price at which such sale and purchase or redemption shall be made is not fixed as aforesaid, then the price for such shares shall be the book value thereof at the end of the month immediately preceding such death, transfer or disqualification. For the purpose of determining such price, book value shall be computed according to the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting, and shall not include the accounts receivable or goodwill of the Corporation. Such book value shall be determined from the books and records of the Corporation by an independent certified public accountant employed by the Corporation for such purpose. The determination of book value by such certified public accountant shall be conclusive and binding upon the Corporation, its shareholders and the transferor.

XVII. AMENDMENTS. The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter provided by law, and all rights conferred upon officers, directors and shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation, provided, however, that no such amendment, alteration, change or repeal shall be effective without the approval of a majority of the holders of the Common Stock and that no such amendment, alteration, change or repeal upon which the holders of any class of Common Stock shall be entitled to vote as a class shall be effective without the approval of a majority of the holders of that class of Common Stock.
