ROBERT I. MCNEAL,

Plaintiff,

-- against

LERA T. MCNEAL,

JUDGMENT

996-2193

-----X

The Plaintiff having brought this action for a judgment of absolute divorce by reason of the cruel and inhuman treatment of the Plaintiff by the Defendant, and the Summons with Notice and Complaint bearing the notation "ACTION FOR A DIVORCE" having been duly served upon the Defendant personally within the State of Virginia; and the Defendant having demanded the Complaint on May 15, 1995; and on June 15, 1995, the action was joined by Defendant's pro se appearance; and on December 18, 1995, the Defendant entered an appearance through her attorney, Ruthanne G. Sanchez, Esquire, and on February 6, 1996, the Defendant having answered the Complaint; and the parties having appeared in Supreme Court on May 23, 1996; and the Court having heard the testimony of the parties and having had due deliberation thereon; and the Court having issued its Findings of Fact, granting the Defendant the divorce based on her Counterclaim; and the Defendant having applied to this Court for judgment for the relief demanded in the verified Answer and Counterclaim; and the Defendant having presented proof in support of the essential allegations of the Verified Counterclaim; and the Court having accepted written proof of military service;

NOW, on motion of RUTHANNE G. SANCHEZ, ESQUIRE, the attorney for the Plaintiff, it is

ADJUDGED that the marriage between the Plaintiff, ROBERT I. MCNEAL, and the Defendant, LERA T. MCNEAL, is dissolved by reason of the Plaintiff's adulterous behavior of the Defendant in accordance with Subdivision (4) of Section 170 of the Domestic Relations Law, and it is further

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, the Plaintiff has filed a verified statement pursuant to Section 253 of the Domestic Relations Law, confirming that the Plaintiff has taken all steps solely within the Plaintiff's power to remove all barriers to the Defendant's remarriage following the divorce, and it is further

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED the parties have executed a Separation Agreement dated November 19, 1992, equitably settling the financial and property issues of this action and spousal maintenance. The terms of the Separation Agreement are fair and reasonable and are not unconscionable, a copy of which will be attached to the final Judgment of Divorce, and it is further

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, on May 23, 1996, the parties appeared in Jefferson County Supreme Court, at which time the Court considered its Findings of Fact and granted the divorce to Defendant, based on her Counterclaim, and it is further

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, the distribution of the marital property provided in the Separation Agreement appears to be a reasonable and equitable distribution of the marital property pursuant to Section 236B(5) of the Domestic Relations Law, and it is further

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED the Separation Agreement, entered into between the parties on November 19, 1992, shall be included but not merged into the Judgment of Divorce, and the parties hereby are directed to comply with every legally enforceable term and provision of such stipulation as if such term of provisions were set forth in int entirety herein, and it is further

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, that the Defendant may resume use of her maiden name or any former surname, if she wishes, and it is further ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, that the Defendant is granted a money judgment against Plaintiff in the amount of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) with interest at the legal rate.
