COMMITTEE OF CONCERNED CITIZENS

MISSION

Educate the public concerning the impact local government takes on various issues and citizens responsibility to hold elected officials accountable for their actions. Engage elected officials at all levels of government in open dialogue to protect the interests of all citizens.

VISION

We envision a future where all citizens are, once again, responsible for control of government and accept responsible stewardship, granted by God, of their individual property in their possession and individual's rights and freedoms.

GOAL

Maximize individual rights and responsibilities, especially decisions concerning private property, while Minimizing the role of government infringing on these rights as affirmed by the Constitution of the United States of America!

All present at first official meeting (interim advisory board) will have voting rights to elect the board of directors. The board of directors will never exceed three (3) members. Subsequently, the interim advisory board loses all voting rights until the board of directors appoints, at their leisure, the advisory board.

The advisory board will consist of no more than five (5) members. The advisory board will bring forward issues for consideration and action by the board of directors. In the event a position on the board of directors becomes vacant the advisory board's sole voting power will be to fill this position. The advisory board is not afforded any other responsibility or voting power.
