This document is a permanent record of the bearer's acquisition of United States citizenship. Under the provisions of Section 2705 of Title 22 of the United States Code, the Consular Report of Birth Abroad of a Citizen of the United States is proof of citizenship.

It is important to safeguard the Report of Birth. It bears an individual control number and duplicate copies are not issued.

This Consular Report of Birth is subject to recall and cancellation if it is determined by the Department of State that it was: (1) Issued in error or (2) Issued under false or fraudulent pretenses. It also may be recalled and cancelled if the bearer loses U.S. citizenship subsequent to issuance.
