CLARENCE G. MARSHALL

I, CLARENCE G. MARSHALL, a resident of Jefferson County, State of Alabama, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publish and declare this instrument as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ITEM ONE: I direct that all of my debts, including the expenses of my last illness and funeral, shall first be paid out of my estate by my Executor, hereinafter named, as soon as practicable after my death.

ITEM TWO: I give and bequeath all of my wearing apparel, jewelry, books, pictures, and all other objects of my personal use, including any household furniture and furnishings which I may own, together with any insurance thereon, to my wife, Bertie M. Marshall, absolutely, if she survives me, and if not, in equal shares to each child of mine who survives me and each deceased child of mine with descendants who survive me, such descendants to take, per stirpes, the share which the child would have taken, if living. If my wife survives me, I make no disposition of any household furniture and furnishings inasmuch as these items are the property of my wife. I hereby vest in my Executor full power and authority to determine what objects of property are included in the foregoing descriptions. If any property bequeathed under this Item is distributable to a descendant of mine who has not attained the age of nineteen (19) years, my Executor may, in the Executor's sole discretion, deliver the same directly to such descendant or to the parent, guardian, or other person having custody of such descendant.

JUDGE OF PROBATE

ITEM THREE: All of the rest, residue and remainder of my property, of whatever kind and character and wherever situated, shall be disposed of by my Executor as hereinafter provided:

(a) If my wife survives me, my Executor shall, as soon as practicable after my death, divide the property constituting said residue of my estate into two fractional shares, one of which is referred to as the Family Share and the other as the Marital Share. The Marital Share shall be held or disposed of in accordance with the provisions of ITEM FOUR hereof and the Family Share in accordance with the provisions of ITEM FIVE hereof.

(1) The Family Share shall consist of that fractional share of said residue of my estate as determined by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the maximum amount which can be included in the Family Share without causing any federal estate tax to be payable by my estate, and the denominator of which shall be the value of said residue of my estate. The Marital Share shall consist of the remaining fractional share of said residue of my estate. For the purpose of this paragraph, any federal estate tax payable by my estate shall be determined without application of the credit for state death taxes.

(2) All administration expenses and all estate or other tax payable out of my estate by reason of my death shall be paid by my Executor solely out of property designated as the Family Share.

(3) The values referred to herein shall be the values as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes.

(4) If my wife makes a qualified disclaimer of any part or all of the Marital Share, such disclaimed property shall be added to the Family Share and shall be held or disposed of in accordance with the provisions of ITEM FIVE hereof.

(b) If my wife does not survive me, then the entire residue of my estate shall constitute the Family Share and shall be held or disposed of in accordance with the provisions of ITEM FIVE hereof.

ITEM FOUR: The Marital Share I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Bertie M. Marshall, to be hers absolutely.

ITEM FIVE: The Family Share, hereinafter referred to as the Family Trust, I give, devise and bequeath to my Trustees, who shall hold the same in trust for the uses and purposes as hereinafter provided:

(a) During the lifetime of my wife, Bertie M.
Marshall, the Trustees shall pay to her the entire net income from said trust in installments convenient to her, but at least annually. If at any time during such period the net income from said trust is insufficient, in the opinion of the Trustee other than my said wife, for the health, maintenance and support of my wife, taking into account other resources available to her and known to the Trustee other than my said wife, the Trustees shall pay to her such additional sum or sums out of the principal of said trust as the Trustees may deem necessary or desirable for said purposes.

(b) Upon the death of my said wife, or upon my death if she shall not survive me, the Trustees shall apportion the trust into so many equal parts that there will be one share for each child of mine then living, and one share for the then living descendants of each deceased child of mine. The Trustees shall transfer and pay over, subject to the provisions of ITEM SIX hereof, any share set aside for the living descendants of a deceased child of mine, to such descendants, per stirpes.

(c) The Trustees shall transfer and pay over the share allocated to any child of mine to such child free of trust.

ITEM SIX: If any share of my estate or of any trust hereunder becomes distributable by the terms hereof to a descendant of mine who is under the age of twenty-one (21) years, then though his or her share shall be vested in him or her, the Trustees shall hold or continue to hold the same in trust with all of the powers and authority given to the Trustees with respect to other trust property held hereunder, until he or she shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years, using and applying for his or her health, maintenance, support and education such part of the income and principal of such share as the Trustees shall deem necessary or desirable for said purposes, accumulating and adding to principal any income not so used or distributing the same in such manner as the Trustees shall deem to be in the best interests of such descendant. When such descendant shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years, the Trustees shall transfer and pay over said share to him or her free of trust. If such descendant shall die prior to attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, the Trustees shall transfer and pay over the share to his or her executor or administrator.

ITEM SEVEN: If, at the time of my death or at the time for distribution of the remainder of any trust created hereunder, any of my property is not otherwise disposed of either by the terms of this Will or by the exercise of any power of appointment granted hereunder, I give, devise and bequeath said property to such persons as would be entitled to inherit said property and in such proportions as they would be entitled to inherit the same from me under the laws of Alabama then in force had I died at said time a resident of Alabama, intestate, and owned said property.

ITEM EIGHT: The Trustees shall hold and manage the said trust or trusts and all shares thereof, with all of the powers and authority the Trustees would have if the Trustees were the absolute owners thereof, including but not limited to the following powers:

1. To collect the income therefrom.

2. To compromise, adjust and settle in the Trustees' discretion any claim in favor of or against the trust.

3. To hold any property or securities originally received by the Trustees as a part of the trust or to which the Trustees may become entitled by virtue of incorporation, liquidation, reorganization, merger, consolidation or change of charter or name, including any stock or interest in any family corporation, partnership or enterprise, so long as the Trustees shall consider the retention for the best interests of the trust.

4. To sell, auction, convey, exchange, lease or rent for a period beyond the possible termination of the trust (or for a less period) for improvement or otherwise, or to grant options for or in connection with such purposes, or otherwise dispose of, all or any portion of the trust, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the Trustees may approve.

5. To invest and reinvest the trust and the proceeds of sale or disposal of any portion thereof, in such loans, bonds, stocks, mortgages, common trust funds, securities, shares of regulated investment companies or trusts, or other property, real or personal, or to purchase options for such purposes, or to exercise options, rights, or warrants, to purchase securities or other property, as to the Trustees may seem suitable.

6. To hold, retain or acquire property or securities which in the Trustees' opinion is for the best interests of the trust, without regard to any statutory or constitutional limitation applicable to the investment of trust funds.

7. To vote any corporate stock held hereunder in person, or by special, limited or general proxy, with or without power of substitution, or to refrain from voting the same, and to waive notice of any meeting and to give any consent for or with respect thereto.

8. To borrow money for such time and upon such terms as the Trustees see fit, without security or on mortgage of any real estate or upon pledge of any personal property held hereunder, and to execute mortgages or collateral agreements therefor as necessary.

9. To improve, repair, let, exchange, release, partition, vacate, dedicate, or adjust the boundaries of, any real estate constituting a part of said trust estate, and to keep any property constituting a part of said trust properly insured against hazards, to pay all taxes or assessments, mortgages or other liens now or hereafter resting upon said property, and to create reserves for depreciation, depletion or such other purposes as the Trustees deem necessary or desirable.

10. To determine whether any money or property coming into the Trustees' hands shall be treated as a part of the principal of the trust or a part of the income therefrom, and to apportion between principal and income any loss or expenditure in connection with the trust as the Trustees may deem just and equitable; provided, however, that such powers shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Alabama Principal and Income Act.

11. To appoint, employ, remove and compensate such attorneys, agents and representatives, individual or corporate, as the Trustees deem necessary or desirable for the administration of the trust, and to treat as an expense of the trust any compensation so paid.

12. To pay from income any expenses reasonably necessary for the administration of the trust, and in the event the income is insufficient for such payments, to pay the same from the principal thereof.

ITEM NINE: It is my intention that if my wife, Bertie M. Marshall, survives me, my estate shall become entitled to the marital deduction provided for by the Internal Revenue Code, as amended to the date of my death, with respect to the value of the Marital Share. My Executor, regardless of any adverse interest, shall construe all provisions of my Will which may require construction in order that my estate may become and remain entitled to said marital deduction and is hereby authorized to adopt, agree to or acquiesce in, such construction thereof as my Executor may from time to time deem necessary or advisable in order that such deduction may be obtained for my estate. The Marital Share shall not include, and my Executor shall not allocate to it, any property with respect to which no marital deduction would be allowed, nor allocate to it, if avoidable, any property with respect to which a credit against the federal estate tax would be forfeited by such allocation. Said share shall vest in my wife immediately upon my death. My Executor in the Executor's sole discretion may make such election as may be authorized by law with respect to treating qualified terminable interest property as qualifying for the marital deduction, whether such property passes under this Will or otherwise, and such election shall be final and binding upon all persons.

ITEM TEN: Any elections permitted by any tax law, including the election to file joint income tax returns, to consent to have gifts made by my spouse treated as if made partially by me, and to take certain deductions as income tax deductions or as estate tax deductions, shall be made in the sole discretion of the Executor, and no adjustment between principal and income or any other adjustments shall be required as a result of any such election by the Executor.

ITEM ELEVEN: Additional property of any kind and character may be added to any trust hereunder, with the consent of the Trustees, by me or any person or fiduciary, by Will or otherwise, and such property so received by my Trustees shall be added to, merged with and become a part of the property held in such trust hereunder, and thereafter shall be administered and disposed of in accordance with the terms of such trust.

ITEM TWELVE: The following provisions shall govern for all purposes of this Will, wherever they may be applicable:

(a) Any payment of income or discretionary payment of principal from any trust to or for any beneficiary may, in the discretion of the Trustees, be made to any person or organization (including the beneficiary, the guardian of the beneficiary, or anyone having custody and care of the beneficiary, or who provides goods or services for him or her), who shall apply such payment for the use and benefit of the beneficiary as provided for hereunder.

(b) Upon making any payment or transfer hereunder, the Executor and Trustees shall be discharged as to such payment or transfer without liability for the subsequent application thereof, and when the final payment or transfer is made from the principal of any trust, such trust shall terminate and the Trustees shall be fully discharged as to such trust.

(c) Whenever the word "Trustee", "Trustees", "Executor" or "Executors" is used, it shall be construed either as singular or plural, and masculine, feminine or neuter, whichever is proper in accordance with the context.

(d) The distribution of my estate, and the division into separate trusts and shares shall be made in the sole discretion of the Executor or Trustees in cash or in kind or in both, including undivided interests in property, without regard to the basis for income tax purposes of any property so distributed or divided in kind, and such distributions and divisions and the values therefor established by the Executor or Trustees shall be binding and conclusive on all persons.

ITEM THIRTEEN: I hereby designate and appoint my wife, Bertie M. Marshall, as Executor hereunder. If my said wife shall resign or for any reason fail or cease to serve as Executor, then I hereby designate and appoint my daughter, Judy Ann Hard, as successor Executor. I hereby designate and appoint my said wife and my said daughter as Trustees of any trust created hereunder. If my said daughter shall resign or for any reason fail or cease to serve as Trustee, then I hereby designate and appoint my son, Joseph Donald Marshall, as successor Trustee to my said daughter. I direct that my said Executor and Trustees and any successors thereto shall not be required to give bond or to file an inventory or appraisal of my estate or of any trust or share thereof in any court, though they shall make out and keep an inventory and shall exhibit the same to any party in interest at any reasonable time, and I direct that they shall be free from the control and supervision of any court. I hereby vest in my Executor and any successor thereto the same full powers of management, control and disposition of my estate as are given to the Trustees under ITEM EIGHT with respect to the trust or trusts hereunder.

ITEM FOURTEEN: In the event that my wife and I shall die in a common accident or disaster, or under any circumstances creating any doubt as to which of us survived the other, my wife shall be presumed to have survived me for all purposes under this Will.

ITEM FIFTEEN: The provisions herein made for my wife are in lieu of any and all other rights she may have in my estate, statutory or otherwise, including but not
