3.15 Notwithstanding any provision of these Restated and Amended Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not engage in any political activity or other activity proscribed to [1] a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding provision of any subsequent prohibitions of federal law or regulation, or [2] to a Corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding provision of any subsequent federal law or regulations; nor shall any substantial part of the activities of the corporation include the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation except as permitted by law; nor shall the corporation participate in, or intervene in, including the publishing or distribution of statements supporting or denigrating any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE IV. STATEMENT OF FAITH

4.1 Every officer, teacher, instructor, and member of the Board of Trustees shall, prior to becoming employed by the Corporation, or prior to becoming a member of the Board, as the case may be, and within thirty days after the first day of each June thereafter, subscribe to and agree in writing that he or she unqualifiedly accepts as true the following statement of belief and doctrine:

4.2 "We believe

(1) That the Bible, consisting of the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments, in the original manuscripts, is the inerrant and complete Word of God, the final authority in all matters of faith and practice. (II Tim. 3:16-17; II Peter 1:20-21)

(2) That there is one God, eternally existing in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. (Deut. 6:4; Matt. 28:19; Luke 3:21-22)

(3) That the Lord Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God, conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, and is true God and true man. (Luke 1:30-35; John 1:18; 3:16; Phil. 2:5-11)

(4) That man was created in the image of God; that he sinned and, thereby, incurred not only physical death, but also spiritual death which is separation from God and that, as a consequence, all men are declared by God to be totally depraved, having inherited a sinful nature and having become sinners in thought, word, and deed. (Gen. 1:26-27; 2:16-17; 3:6-19; Rom. 3:10-23; 6:3; 7:18; 11:32; Gal. 3:22)

(5) That the Lord Jesus Christ died as a substitutionary and complete sacrifice for the sins of the whole world and that only those who trust in His redemptive work are saved on the ground of His shed blood. (Rom. 3:24-28; 5:8-10; I Tim. 2:5-6; I John 2:1-2)

(6) That the Lord Jesus Christ arose from the dead in the same body, though glorified, in which he was crucified; that He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of the Father as Head of the Church. (John 20:1-29; Acts 1:9-11; Eph. 1:20-23; Heb. 1:3)

(7) That the Lord Jesus Christ will come again personally and bodily; that first He will come in the air prior to the seven year Tribulation, hence at any moment, to receive the Church, His Body, unto Himself in heaven; and that following the literal fulfillment of the Great Tribulation spoken of by the prophets, He will return visibly to the earth with His saints to inaugurate His millennial kingdom of universal peace and righteousness. (Acts 1:11; I Thess. 4:13-18; I Cor. 15:51-58; II Pet. 3:1-13; Rev. 19:11-16; 20:1-6)

(8) That both the believer and the unbeliever will be resurrected bodily in their own order: the saved unto everlasting bliss, the lost unto everlasting and conscious punishment. (I Cor. 15:1-20; I Thess. 4:13-18; Rev. 20:11-15; 21:22)

(9) That on the sole condition of personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, men are born again by the Holy Spirit; that at regeneration, all believers in this age are also indwelt by the Holy Spirit, baptized by the Holy Spirit into the Body of Christ, and sealed by the Holy Spirit unto the day of redemption. (Rom. 3:24-28; 8:9-11; I Cor. 12:13; Eph. 4:30)

(10) That sanctification, which is separation unto God, is threefold: positionally, the believer was sanctified at his conversion by virtue of his union with Christ; progressively, he is continually being sanctified through the Word as he walks in the Spirit, thereby overcoming lusts of the flesh and producing the fruit of the Spirit; ultimately, he will be completely conformed to the image of Christ when he sees his Savior face to face. (John 17:17; Eph. 5:26; Col. 3:1-4; Heb. 10:14; I John 3:13)

(11) That the Church is the Body of Christ composed of all who are born again during this church age, which began at Pentecost and will be terminated at the rapture of the Church; that this church universal is to gather together as local churches or assemblies after the pattern of New Testament doctrine and practice, including the observance of the ordinances of water baptism and the Lord's supper; and that God performs the ministry of His Church through its members to whom He has given gifts for the purpose of edifying the body of Christ. (Acts 2:1-47; Rom. 12:1-8; I Cor. 11:23-24; I Cor. 12:1-31; Eph. 1:22-23)

(12) That the Great Commission was given to the Church, and that the task of world evangelism is the mission of the Church today. (Matt. 28:18-20; Rom. 10:9-17; Eph. 4:7-16)”

ARTICLE V. GOVERNMENT

5.1 The government of Southeastern Bible College, Inc. (“the Corporation”) shall be in the hands of a Board of Trustees the exact number of which shall be fixed by the Bylaws of the Corporation, but in no case shall the number be less than three or less than the number required by law from time to time, and the said Board of Trustees shall have the responsibility of governing, maintenance, administration, and promotion of the said College.

5.2 The Board of Trustees as from time to time constituted shall be the sole voting members of the Corporation.

5.3 The specific procedures for the election, appointment, removal, and terms of office, and the designation, qualifications, rights and responsibilities of the Trustees shall be set forth in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

5.4 The Board of Trustees shall adopt appropriate Bylaws for the Corporation by Resolution of the voting members of the Board of Trustees at any duly called regular meeting or special meeting called for such purpose, which Bylaws may be amended from time to time in the manner provided in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI. AMENDMENTS TO RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

6.1 The Registered Agent and Registered Office of the Corporation recited in Article X of these Restated and Amended Articles of Incorporation may be amended by majority vote of a quorum present at any regular meeting of the Board of Trustees, or at any special meeting called for that purpose, and such changes shall be communicated to the Alabama Secretary of State and/or any other governmental office or agency as required by law.

6.2 The list of members of the Board of Trustees recited in Article IX of these Restated and Amended Articles of Incorporation may be amended as provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation. Such changes shall not require the filing of Amendments to the Restated and Amended Articles of Incorporation.

6.3 All other sections of the Restated and Amended Articles of Incorporation may be amended from time to time by an affirmative vote in favor of such amendment of at least three-fourths (3/4) of the voting members of the full Board of Trustees, not merely three-fourths of a quorum, present at a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees, or at a meeting specially called for the purpose.

ARTICLE VII.
CORPORATE FISCAL YEAR

7.1 The corporate fiscal year shall be set out in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VIII.
PRIVATE INUREMENT AND TRANSFER OF ASSETS IN THE EVENT OF DISSOLUTION

8.1 No part of the net earnings of this Corporation shall ever inure to the private benefit of any donor, member, officer, or Trustee of the Corporation, or to any other private individual.

8.2 No donor, member, officer, Trustee of the Corporation or any other private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets.

8.3 If the Corporation should ever be dissolved, all of its assets not required for payment of its liabilities and obligations and not held upon condition requiring return, specific transfer or conveyance upon dissolution, and remaining after payment and satisfaction of all its costs and indebtedness, including the expenses of such dissolution, shall be distributed, paid over and transferred to one or more Bible-believing corporations, societies, organizations, or ministries engaged in activities substantially similar to those of this Corporation, and maintaining a Statement of Faith substantially similar to this Corporation, pursuant to a plan of distribution adopted by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that no distribution of assets of this Corporation shall be made to any organization described in Section 170(b)(1)(A)(i)-(iv) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, unless such corporation has also been determined by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to be exempt from income taxes under Section 501(a) and 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

8.4 No asset of any tangible financial value of the Corporation shall be distributed during the legal existence of the Corporation, or in anticipation of the dissolution of the Corporation, or upon dissolution of the Corporation, to any donor, member, officer, Trustee or any other private individual, without fair market value or replacement value received, whichever is higher, cash-in-hand at the time of receipt, for the purchase of such asset by such donor, member, officer, Trustee, or other private individual. This prohibition shall not restrict the gratuitous distribution of advertising and promotional items and de minimis items permitted by the Internal Revenue Service and by Alabama law. Neither this provision nor any other provision of these Restated and Amended Articles of Incorporation shall preclude the payment of reasonable compensation for services rendered, nor shall it preclude the right of the Corporation to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Restated and Amended Articles and the Bylaws of the Corporation.

8.5 The preceding sections of this Article shall not prohibit the return to any owner, lender, trustor, bailor, or other person holding title to, or having authority over the title of, any item which has been used for the benefit of the Corporation, and is in the possession of the Corporation, its Trustees, officers, agents or other persons associated with the Corporation, or which for any reason is found upon Corporation grounds, to which the Corporation does not hold title. Any monies owed by the Corporation at the time of dissolution shall be deemed to be held by the Corporation in trust for the creditor regardless of his or her affiliation with the Corporation, and shall immediately, or as soon as practicable, be paid to the creditor. Any items described in this paragraph to which the Corporation does not hold title shall be immediately returned to their legal owner.
