KNOW ALL PERSONS BY THESE PRESENTS:

The undersigned incorporator, for the purposes of forming a corporation under the Alabama Nonprofit Corporation Act as amended, states:

ONE: That the name of said corporation is Adaptive Aquatics, Inc.

TWO: The duration of the corporation shall be perpetual

THREE: The purposes for which this corporation is formed are:

- a)
  1. To provide people with physical disabilities an opportunity to experience sports as a recreational activity in which they may participate;
  2. To afford a frequent natural sports and recreation environment for people with physical disabilities for the purpose of producing positive psychological and therapeutic results;
  3. To develop a nucleus of sports and recreation programs and competent instructors to carry the program throughout the state and nation;
  4. To conduct other activities consistent with a charitable, non profit organization as defined in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law.
- b) To purchase, acquire, own, hold, manage, lease, use and enjoy, sell, exchange, subdivide, mortgage, convey in trust, improve, cultivate, develop, construct, maintain, equip, operate and generally deal in real property, good, wares and merchandise, personal property of every kind and description.
- c) To enter into, make, perform, and carry out contracts of any kind for any lawful purpose without limit as to the amount with any person firm, or corporation, municipality, county, state or federal government, or other municipal or governmental subdivision.
- d) To borrow money, to issue notes, bonds, debentures and other obligations from time to time for the purposes of this corporation, and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or otherwise, or to issue the same unsecured.
- e) To lend money, to purchase, acquire, hold on guaranty, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of and deal in shares, bonds, debentures, notes, or any other indebtedness of any person, firm, or corporation and whether now or hereafter organized and existing; and while a holder thereof to exercise all the rights, powers, and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon to the same extent as a natural person.

f) To accept gifts, donations, and receive property by devise or bequest, subject to the laws regulating the transfer of property by will, and to apply the principal or interest as may be directed by the donor thereof, or as the board of directors of the corporation may determine in the absence of such directions, in aid and furtherance of the purposes set forth hereinabove.

g) To do all other acts necessary or expedient for the administration of the affairs and to attain the purposes of the corporation.

h) To exercise all other such powers not otherwise enumerated herein as are authorized by the Alabama Nonprofit Corporation Act as the same may exist from time to time.

Notwithstanding any of the above statements of purposes or powers, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the primary purposes of this corporation.

FOUR: The Principal office of the corporation for the transaction of business shall be designated by the Board of Directors.
