I have been familiar with the above-described property, its owners and its use since 1951. The captioned property was acquired in 1951 by Herman Hamm. I personally knew Herman Hamm who was well known in the community.

The property has always been used to my knowledge as a homestead and occasionally for gardening purposes. Herman Hamm lived on the property. A service station was located on the property during the ownership of Herman Hamm. Herman Hamm passed away on January 6th, 1970 at which time the estate was passed on to Herman Hamm's sons; James R. Hamm, Robert C. Hamm, and Marvin J. Hamm. James R. Hamm passed away in 2006 and had paid the property taxes on the property for 2003 and 2004 after the property was vacated by Herman Hamm's widow, Edna Hamm, who was allowed to live on the property after her husband's death. Edna Hamm passed away in a nursing home on August 13th, 2005. James Hamm named his daughter, Deborah Dean, as executrix of his estate and she also acted as a representative of the family for the descendants of Robert, Marvin, and James Hamm in the sale of Herman Hamm's property.

I have never known of anyone other than the Herman Hamm to claim title to the captioned property since 1951. I know for a fact that the Herman Hamm has assessed and paid the taxes through the years and held the captioned property in actual, open, hostile, exclusive, notorious and continuous possession since 1951, and I have never known of any boundary line disputes to any of the property during their years of ownership.
