Each such assessment together with interest, late charges, costs and reasonable attorney fees shall also be the personal obligation of the person who was the Owner of such Lot at the time the assessment fell due or was due.

6.02 The annual and special assessments levied by the Association shall be used exclusively to promote the recreation, health, safety and welfare of the owners and residents of the Development for the improvement and maintenance of the Common Area within the Development and the payment of any and all costs and expenses incurred from time to time by the Association including, without limitation, any "Common Expenses" as defined in the Bylaws of the Association.

6.03 Any expenses incurred by the Committee or the Association in enforcing any of the provisions of these Protective Covenants against a specific Owner shall be deemed an individual assessment against the Owner and the respective Lot owned by such Owner. 6.08 The Association shall upon demand and for a reasonable charge furnish a certificate signed by an officer of the Association setting forth whether the assessment on a Lot has been paid. A properly executed certification of the Association as to the status of the assessment on a Lot is binding upon the Association as of the date of its issuance.

6.09 Any assessment (whether annual, special or individual) which is not paid on or before the due date of the same shall bear interest from and after such due date at a rate equal to the amount prescribed in the By Laws. In addition to interest any assessments not paid by the due date for the same shall be subject to a late charge, which the Board of Directors of the Association may from time to time establish. The sale or transfer of any Lot shall not affect any lien retained by the Association on a Lot provided however that the sale or transfer of any Lot pursuant to mortgage foreclosure or any similar proceedings shall extinguish the lien of such assessment as to payments which become due prior to such sale or transfer.

6.11 In addition to the rights and remedies set forth above, if any Owner (or his contractor, family Members, guests or invitees) shall violate or attempt to violate any of the covenants and restrictions set forth herein then Developer, the Association or the Committee, jointly and severally shall each have the right to prosecute proceedings at law for the recovery of damages against such Owner as a result of such violations or maintain a proceeding in equity against such Owner to enjoin such violation, provided that the rights and remedies set forth herein shall be deemed to be cumulative of all other rights and remedies available at law or in equity. In any such proceedings, Developer, the Association or the Committee, jointly and severally shall be entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees incurred by any of them in such proceedings as well as interest on all unpaid amounts as specified in Section 6.09 above. The failure of Developer, the Association or the Committee to institute proceedings for any one (1) or more violations of these Protective Covenants shall not constitute approval of the same or be construed as a waiver of any right of action contained herein for past or future violations of said covenants and restrictions.

6.12 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in the event the provisions of these Protective Covenants conflict with By-Laws of the Association, the By-Laws, as the same now exists, or as they may be amended from time to time shall control.
