ARTICLE VII.

INTERNAL AFFAIRS

7.0 The following provisions for the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation, the directors and the shareholders are hereby adopted:

7.1 The initial Bylaws of the Corporation shall be adopted by the shareholders. The power to alter, amend or repeal the Bylaws or adopt new Bylaws shall be vested in the Board of Directors and the shareholders, or either of them, which power may be exercised in the manner and to the extent provided in the Bylaws; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may not alter, amend or repeal any bylaw or resolution of the shareholders establishing the number of directors (except that the Board of Directors shall have the power to fix or change the number of directors as set out in Section 7.2 below), the time or place of shareholders' meetings, or what constitutes a quorum at shareholders' meetings, or any bylaw or resolution that was adopted by the shareholders and specifically provides that it cannot be altered, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors. The Bylaws may contain any provisions for regulating the business and affairs of the Corporation that is not inconsistent with law or these Articles of Amendment.

7.2 All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of, its Board of Directors, subject to any limitations set forth in these Articles of Amendment or in an agreement authorized under the Act. The number of directors comprising the initial Board of Directors shall be as set forth in Article V above. The number of directors of the Corporation shall be fixed from time to time in the manner provided in the Bylaws, or, in the absence of such a bylaw, the number of directors shall be two (2). The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the Bylaws or in the manner provided for therein, provided that the Board of Directors may not, and only the shareholders may, increase or decrease by more than 33 1/3% the number of directors last approved by the shareholders.

7.3 No director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except liability for (a) the amount of a financial benefit received by the director to which he or she is not entitled; (b) an intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or the shareholders; (c) voting for or assenting to any unlawful distribution, as defined in the Act; (d) an intentional violation of criminal law; or (e) a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its shareholders. If the Act is hereafter amended to further eliminate or limit the liability of a director, then a director of the Corporation, in addition to the circumstances in which a director is not personally liable as set forth in the preceding sentence, shall not be liable to the fullest extent permitted by the amended Act.

7.4 The Corporation reserves the right from time to time to amend, alter or repeal each and every provision contained in these Articles of Amendment, or to add one or more additional provisions, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed or permitted by the Act, and all rights conferred upon shareholders at any time are granted subject to this reservation. Any such amendment for which voting by voting group is required by the Act shall be effective only if each voting group approves in addition to approval of all shareholders entitled to vote.

ARTICLE VIII.

INDEMNIFICATION

8.0 In amplification and not in limitation of applicable provisions of the Act:

8.1 (a) Except as provided in subsection (d) of this Section 8.1, the Corporation (which term, for purposes of this Article VIII, includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of the Corporation in a merger or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction) shall indemnify an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or an individual who, while a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, is or was serving at the Corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise (an "Indemnities", which term includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of such individual) who was, is or has threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent (a "Party") in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal (a "Proceeding") because he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or, while a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, is or was serving at the Corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine (including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), all reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred with respect to a Proceeding ("Liability") incurred in the Proceeding if:

- (1) the Indemnitee conducted himself or herself in good faith; and
- (2) the Indemnitee reasonably believed:
 - (i) in the case of conduct in his or her Official Capacity (meaning thereby (a) when used with respect to a director, the office of director in the Corporation; and (b) when used with respect to an individual other than a director, the office in the Corporation held by an officer or the employment or agency relationship undertaken by the employee or agent on behalf of the Corporation; "Official Capacity" does not include service for any other foreign or domestic corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise) with the Corporation, that the conduct was in its best interest; and
 - (ii) in all other cases that the conduct was at least not opposed to its best interest; and
- (3) in case of any criminal Proceeding the Indemnitee had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

(b) An Indemnatee is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Corporation's request if his or her duties to the Corporation also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by, the Indemnatee to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. An Indemnatee's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose he or she reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in, and beneficiaries of, the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement of subsection (a)(2)(ii) of this Section 8.1.

(c) The termination of a Proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the Indemnatee did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.

(d) The Corporation shall not indemnify an Indemnatee under this section:

(1) in connection with a Proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation in which the Indemnatee was adjudged liable to the Corporation; or

(2) in connection with any other Proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the Indemnatee, whether or not involving action in his or her Official Capacity, in which the Indemnatee was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her.

(e) Indemnification permitted under this section in connection with a Proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation is limited to reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred in connection with the Proceeding.

8.2 The Corporation shall indemnify an Indemnatee who was successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any Proceeding, or of any claim, issue or matter in such Proceeding, where he or she was a Party because he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or, while a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, is or was serving at the Corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred in connection therewith, notwithstanding that he or she was not successful on any other claim, issue or matter in any such Proceeding.

8.3 (a) The Corporation may pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred by an Indemnatee who was a party to a Proceeding in advance of final disposition of the Proceeding if:

(1) the Indemnatee furnishes the Corporation a written affirmation of good faith and belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct described in Section 8.1 above;

(2) the Indemnatee furnishes the Corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on the Indemnatee's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the Indemnatee did not meet the standard of conduct, or is not otherwise entitled to indemnification under Section 8.1(d), unless an indemnification is approved by the court under the provisions of the Act;

(3) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this Article VIII.

(b) The undertaking required by subsection (a)(2) above must be an unlimited general obligation of the Indemnitee but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

(c) Determinations and authorizations of payment under this section shall be made in the manner specified in Section 8.4 below.

8.4 (a) The Corporation may not indemnify an Indemnitee under Section 8.1 above unless authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification of the Indemnitee is permissible in the circumstances because the Indemnitee has met the standard of conduct set forth in Section 8.1 above.

(b) The determination shall be made:

(1) by the board of directors of the Corporation by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time Parties to the Proceeding;

(2) if a quorum cannot be obtained under subdivision (1) above, by a majority vote of a committee duly designated by the board of directors (in which designation directors who are Parties may participate) consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time Parties to the Proceeding;

(3) by special legal counsel;

(i) selected by the board of directors as committee in the manner prescribed in subdivision (1) or (2) above; or

(ii) if a quorum of the board of directors cannot be obtained under subdivision (1) and a committee cannot be designated under subdivision (2), selected by a majority vote of the full board of directors (in which selection directors who are Parties may participate); or

(4) by the shareholders, but shares owned or voted under the control of Indemnitees who are at the time Parties to the Proceeding may not be voted on the determination. A majority of the shares that are entitled to vote on the transaction by virtue of not being owned by or under the control of such Indemnitees constitutes a quorum for the purpose of taking action under this section.

(c) Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made by those entitled under subsection (b)(3) to select counsel.

8.5 The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance, or furnish similar protection (including but not limited to trust funds, self-insurance reserves or the like), on behalf of an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, who, while a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against Liability asserted against or incurred by him or her in that capacity or arising from his or her status as a director, officer, employee or agent, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against the same Liability under Sections 8.1 or 8.2 above.

8.6 (a) Any indemnification, or advance for expenses, authorized under this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of and shall be in addition to that which may be contained in the Corporation's Bylaws, a resolution of its shareholders or board of directors, or in a contract or otherwise.

(b) This Article VIII does not limit the Corporation's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by an Indemnatee in connection with the Indemnatee's appearance as a witness in a Proceeding at a time when he or she has not been made or named defendant or respondent to the Proceeding.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporators have executed this instrument as of the 10th day of September 2007.
