

STATE OF ALABAMA

SHELBY COUNTY

AFFIDAVIT OF JOAN N. ALEXANDER

Before me, the undersigned authority, a Notary Public in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared Joan N. Alexander, who, after being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says as follows: My name is Joan N. Alexander, and I am over the age of twenty-one (21) years. I am a resident of Shelby County, Alabama.

My father was Henry L. Nichols, Sr., who died intestate on or about July 5, 1982. His estate was administered by the Probate Court of Shelby County, Alabama, and a Final Settlement Order was entered on November 21, 1984 by the Shelby County Judge of Probate. My father, Henry L. Nichols, Sr., was survived by my mother and his wife, Virginia C. Nichols. They had three (3) children, Fred A. Nichols, Henry L. Nichols, Jr., and myself, Joan N. Alexander. Neither Henry L. Nichols, Sr., nor Virginia C. Nichols, had any other children.

My mother, Virginia C. Nichols, died testate on or about August 20, 1993. Her Will and estate was probated by the Probate Court of Shelby County, and a Final Settlement Order was entered on April 12, 1995 by the Shelby County Judge of Probate. My mother devised all of her property to my two brothers and me.

My brother, Fred A. Nichols, died testate on February 7, 2001. His Will and estate was probated by the Probate Court of Jefferson County, Alabama. With the exception of part of a designated trust, he devised all remaining real, personal and mixed property, to his widow, June S. Nichols, who was also the Personal Representative of the estate.

This 28th day of December, 2007.
