marital state; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to enter into this agreement following both the filing of the Complaint by Wife and a Answer, Waiver, Notice filed by the Husband; and

WHEREAS, the parties consider it to their best interests to settle between them now child custody, child support and visitation and to settle now and forever their respective rights as to alimony, property rights, dower rights, inheritance rights, and all other rights of property otherwise growing out of the marriage relationship existing between them and which either of them now has or may hereafter have or claim to have to any property of every kind, nature and description, real, personal or mixed, now owned by either of them;

WHEREAS, both parties agree and stipulate that this Agreement makes fair and equitable provisions for the distribution of the property of the parties and makes adequate and sufficient provisions for the care, custody and support of the parties' minor children; and

WHEREAS, both parties have full knowledge of and have made full disclosure of all separate and marital assets; and

WHEREAS, neither party at the time of this Agreement is under the influence of any intoxicant or drug, legal or illegal, nor is any party experiencing any mental problems or conditions that would affect their judgment other than the stress normally to be expected in a divorce; and

WHEREAS, both parties are executing this agreement voluntarily, free of undue influence, duress, and free from any cause, reason, promise, or consideration other than set out in this agreement.

WHEREAS, the Wife is represented by Julie A. Palmer, and the Husband is Pro Se.

Ah.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals and the mutual covenants and Agreements herein set forth, the parties do hereby mutually agree as follows:

Entire Agreement

1. This Agreement contains the entire understanding and agreement between the parties. There are no representations, warranties, covenants, or undertakings other than those expressly set forth herein and each party enters into this contract voluntarily, advisedly, and with full knowledge of the financial condition, nature, character, and value of the other's estate. The law of the state of Alabama shall govern this Agreement in all respects.

Nondischargeability

2. With respect to each party's responsibility for payment of certain debts and liabilities, and their obligation to hold the other harmless for the payment thereof, the parties understand and agree that their obligation is a nondischargeable debt under the Bankruptcy Code, this obligation being part of the final financial support settlement for both parties.

Necessary Documents

3. Each party at the request of the other will execute and deliver all documents that may be reasonably necessary to give full effect to this Agreement.

Noncompliance

4. Should either party incur any expense or legal fees as a result of the breach of any portion of this Agreement by the other party, the Court shall award reasonable attorney fees and suit expenses to the non-defaulting party. No breach, waiver, or default of any of the terms of this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default of any of the terms of this

Severance

5. Should the Court hold that any portion of this Agreement is invalid, the remainder shall be in full force and effect and the invalid portion shall be struck from the Agreement or modified as the Court shall order.

Voluntary Execution

6. Each party acknowledges that this Agreement has been entered into of his or her own volition with full knowledge and information including tax consequences. In some instances, it represents a compromise of disputed issues. Each believes the terms and conditions to be fair and reasonable under the circumstances. No coercion or undue influence has been used by or against either party in making this Agreement. Each party acknowledges that no representations of any kind have been made to him or her as an inducement to enter into this Agreement, other than the representations set forth herein.

Survivorship and Beneficiaries

7. In the event either party inadvertently fails to execute and submit change of beneficiary forms or terminate and/or cancel any survivorship clauses relating to any real or personal property documents, life insurance policies, annuities, stocks, bonds, and any and all other types of policies, account or contracts of any kind whatsoever, this Agreement of the Parties shall be accepted as a change of beneficiary form, deleting the other party herein; or this Agreement of the Parties shall be accepted and/or substituted for the execution of any necessary forms or documents for the termination of survivorship clauses on any jointly-owned property, insurance policies, annuities, accounts, contracts, stocks, bonds, etc., except as to real and personal property, insurance policies, annuities and/or contracts which have been hereinabove addressed and/or divided under the terms and provisions of this Agreement of the Parties.

Modification

8. A modification or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective only if made in writing and executed with the same formality as this Agreement, and approved by the Court if such approval is required. Failure of either party to insist upon strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default of the same or similar nature.

Custody

9. It is agreed by the parties that it is in the best interests of the minor children that their care, custody and control shall be placed with the Wife. The minor children cannot be adopted if the Wife decides to re-marry without the Husband's written consent.

Living Arrangement

- 10. The Wife's residence shall be the primary residence of the children.
- 11. Schedule: The Husband's custodial periods shall be as follows:
 - (a) Due to the Husband's work schedule and the ages of the children, any time custodial time between the Husband and children shall be decided between the children and the Husband with 48 hour notice to the Wife from the Husband on the dates agreed upon by the children and Husband.
 - (b) NOTIFICATION OF ILLNESS OR ACCIDENT: In the event that the child(ren) become seriously ill or require hospitalization due to an illness or accident, the party having the actual physical custody of the child(ren) at the time of such occurrence shall promptly notify the other party of such occurrence. Such notification shall include the nature of the illness or accident, the location of the children, and the name of the children's treating physician.

- Neither party shall, in any way, attempt to harass, harm, hinder, decrease, destroy the natural love of the child(ren) for the other parent. Neither parent shall make disparaging remarks or otherwise speak badly of the other parent to another party, to, or in the presence of, the child(ren) and both parents shall make every effort to prevent others from doing so. Further, the parties shall strive to maintain harmonious relations for the benefit of the parties; child(ren).
- (d) TELEPHONE ACCESS: Each party shall have reasonable telephone access with the minor child(ren) while in the physical control of the other parent or guardian. The child(ren) shall also have reasonable telephone access to both parents or guardians at all reasonable times.
- (e) THE CHILD(RENS') ACTIVITIES: Neither Party shall schedule activities for the minor child(ren) which will preclude the other Party from having them with him or her at the times and places set forth herein above. The scheduling of activities shall not be utilized to deprive either Party of periods of visitation/physical custody. Wife shall have final decision making authority.
- (f) Neither party shall drink excessive alcoholic beverages or smoke ANY type of tobacco product in the presence of the children or while the children are in their respective care, custody and control or have the children around an environment where there is smoking in a closed area, i.e., automobile, house, RV, and the like.

Activities of the Minor Children

11. Both parties will have the right to attend the children's activities including academic, religious, civic (such as Scouts or other civic related organizations or community projects), cultural (such as music, theater and the like), athletic, and the parties agree to equally pay for any cost associated with said activities for the minor children. Whichever party had any out of pocket expenses for the benefit of the minor children, upon receipt of payment of said expense, the other party shall reimburse the other within thirty (30) days of receipt of expenses.

Child Support

- 12. The Husband shall pay to the Wife, Two Hundred Fifty Dollars and 00/100's ($250.00) per month for the support and maintenance of the children. Said payments shall begin on July 1, 2008, and continue to be paid on the first day of each month thereafter until the youngest child graduations from college, marries, becomes self-supporting, or attains the age of twenty-three (23), whichever happens first.
- 13. As evidenced by the Notice on Compliance filed with this Agreement, the child support agreed upon herein was not determined by application of the Child Support Guidelines established by Rule 32, A.R.J.A due to the Husband's current employment situation and the Wife's income. A copy of the Guideline Forms has been attached hereto including the Child Support Obligation Income Statement/Affidavit, both of which have been completed and agreed to by the parties.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION TO EMPLOYERS AND OTHER WITHHOLDERS

If checked, you are required to provide a copy of this form to your employee/obligor. If your employee works in a state that is different from the state that issued this order, a copy must be provided to your employee/obligor even if the box is not checked.

- Priority: Withholding under this Order or Notice has priority over any other legal process under state law (or tribal law, if applicable) against the same income. If there are federal tax levies in effect, please notify the contact person listed below. (See 10 below.)
- 2. Combining Payments: You may combine withheld amounts from more than one employee's/obligor's income in a single payment to each agency/party requesting withholding. You must, however, separately identify the portion of the single payment that is attributable to each employee/obligor.
- 3. Reporting the Paydate/Date of Withholding: You must report the paydate/date of withholding when sending the payment. The paydate/date of withholding is the date on which the amount was withheld from the employee's wages. You must comply with the law of the state of employee's/obligor's principal place of employment with respect to the time periods within which you must implement the withholding and forward the support payments.
- 4. Employee/Obligor with Multiple Support Withholdings: If there is more than one Order or Notice against this employee/obligor and you are unable to honor all support Orders or Notices due to federal, state, or tribal withholding limits, you must follow the state or tribal law/procedure of the employee's/obligor's principal place of employment. You must honor all Orders or Notices to the greatest extent possible. (See 9 below.)

6.	Lump Sum Payments: You may be required to report and withhold from lump sum payments such as bonuses, commissions, or severance pay. If you have any questions about lump sum payments, contact the Child Support Enforcement (IV-D) Agency.
7.	Liability: If you have any doubts about the validity of the Order or Notice, contact the agency or person listed below under 10. If you fail to withhold income as the Order or Notice directs, you are liable for both the accumulated amount you should have withheld from the employee's/obligor's income and any other penalties set by state or tribal law/procedure.
8.	Anti-discrimination: You are subject to a fine determined under state or tribal law for discharging an employee/obligor from employment, refusing to employ, or taking disciplinary action against any employee/obligor because of a child support withholding.
9.	Withholding Limits: For state orders, you may not withhold more than the lesser of: 1) the amounts allowed by the Federal Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. § 1673(b)); or 2) the amounts allowed by the state of the employee's/obligor's principal place of employment. The federal limit applies to the aggregate disposable weekly earnings (ADWE). ADWE is the net income left after making mandatory deductions such as: state, federal, local taxes, Social Security taxes, statutory pension who receive a state order, you may not withhold more than the amounts allowed under the law of the state that issued the order.
