The name of this corporation is Truesec, Inc. The corporation shall be authorized to trade in said name or to use any other trade name not now being used by any other person, firm or corporation.

ARTICLE II PERIOD OF EXISTENCE

The period for the duration of the corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III PURPOSES

The purposes for which the corporation is formed are:

- (a) To engage in the business of advising, educating, training, instructing and consulting individuals and entities, and providing advanced services to individuals and entities, on matters relating to internet security.
- (b) The transaction of any or all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Alabama Business Corporation Act.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS

The powers of the corporation are and shall be those provided by the Alabama Business Corporation Act, Section 10-2B-3.02, as the same may be amended from time to time, including but not limited to, the power:

- (a) To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name;
- (b) To have a corporate seal which may be altered at will, and to use it, or a facsimile of it, by impressing or affixing it or in any manner reproducing it;
- (c) To make and amend bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation;
- (d) To purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, and own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal with, real or personal property, or any legal or equitable interest in property, wherever located;
- (e) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property;
- (f) To purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of; and deal in and with shares or other interests in, or obligations of, any other entity;
- (g) To make contracts, including guarantee and suretyship contracts and indemnity agreements, incur liabilities, borrow money, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations (which may be convertible into or include the option to purchase other securities of the corporation), secure any of its obligations (or the obligations of others for whom it can make guarantees, whether or not a guarantee is made) by mortgage or pledge of or creation of security interests in any of its property, franchises, or income, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

- 1. Make contracts of guarantee and suretyship and indemnity agreements that are necessary or convenient to the conduct, promotion or attainment of the business of the corporation, and

2. Make contracts of guarantee and suretyship and indemnity agreements that are necessary or convenient to the conduct, promotion or attainment of the business of

- (i) An entity that is wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by the corporation, or
- (ii) A person that owns, directly or indirectly, all of the outstanding stock of the corporation, or
- (iii) An entity that is wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by a person that owns, directly or indirectly, all of the outstanding stock of the corporation;

(h) To lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and receive and hold real and personal property as security for repayment;

(i) To be a promoter, incorporator, partner, member, trustee, associate, or manager of any domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity;

(j) To conduct its business, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by this chapter within or without this State;

(k) To elect directors and appoint officers, employees, and agents of the corporations, define their duties, fix their compensation, and lend them money and credit;

(l) To pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing plans, share stock bonus plans, share option plans, or other welfare, benefit or incentive plans for any or all of its current, future, or former directors, officers, employees, and agents;

(m) To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes;

(n) To transact any lawful business that will aid governmental policy; and

- (o) To make payments or donations, or do any other act, not inconsistent with law, that furthers the business and affairs of the corporation.

ARTICLE V
REGISTERED OFFICE AND REGISTERED AGENT

The location and street address of the initial registered office of the corporation shall be 3040 Hampton Circle, Birmingham, Alabama 35242, and its initial registered agent at such address shall be Charles H. Moses, III. In accordance with the requirements of the Alabama Business Corporation Act, the registered office and registered agent of the corporation may be changed by filing a statement of change with the Secretary of State of Alabama.

ARTICLE VI
CAPITAL

The corporation shall have authority to issue Ten Thousand (10,000) shares of common stock, all of the same class and having a par value of One Dollar ($1.00) per share. The corporation may from time to time issue its shares of stock for such consideration as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors and may receive in payment thereof, in whole or in part, money, other property (tangible or intangible) actually received, or labor or services actually performed for the corporation. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the Board of Directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, as to the value of the consideration received for the shares shall be conclusive. Neither promissory notes nor future services, however, shall constitute payment or part payment for the issuance of the shares of the corporation. When payment of the consideration for which the shares are to be issued shall have been received by the corporation, such shares shall be deemed to be fully paid and non-assessable, and the holder of such shares shall not be liable for any further payment in respect thereof.

ARTICLE VII
INCORPORATOR

- (a) The name and address of the incorporator is as follows:

NAME	ADDRESS
Charles H. Moses, III	3040 Hampton Circle Birmingham, AL 35242

(b) The corporation may, from time to time, lawfully enter into any agreement to which all, or less than all, the holders of record of the issued and outstanding shares of its capital stock shall be parties, restricting the transfer of any or all shares of its capital stock represented by certificates therefor upon such reasonable terms and conditions as may be provided by the Board of Directors, provided that reference to such restrictions shall be conspicuously noted upon each certificate representing such shares.

(c) All persons who shall acquire stock in this corporation shall acquire it subject to the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, as the same from time to time may hereafter be amended. So far as not otherwise expressly provided by the laws of the State of Alabama, the corporation shall be entitled to treat the person or entity in whose name any share of its stock is registered as the owner thereof for all purposes and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in said share on the part of any persons, whether or not the corporation shall have notice thereof.

ARTICLE VIII DIRECTORS

(a) The number of directors constituting the initial Board of Directors shall be four
(4). The names and addresses of the members of the initial Board of Directors who shall hold office until the first annual meeting of shareholders and until their respective successors shall have been elected and qualified is as follows:

(b) All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed under the direction of the Board of Directors except as may be otherwise provided in these Articles of Incorporation or by statute. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized:

(1) To alter, amend, or repeal the By-Laws or adopt new By-Laws, provided, however, that the Board of Directors may not alter, amend, or repeal any by-law establishing what constitutes a quorum at shareholders' meetings, or any by-law which was adopted by the shareholders and specifically provides that it cannot be altered, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors.

(2) To authorize distributions (including the payment of dividends on the corporation's outstanding shares), unless, after making such distribution:

(i) The corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or

(ii) The corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

(3) To take any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof without a meeting, if a written consent thereto is signed by all the members of the Board or of such committee, as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board or committee. Action taken under this section is effective when the last director or committee member signs the written consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date.

(4) To remove any officer or agent of the corporation whenever, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the best interest of the corporation will be served thereby.

(5) The corporation may, in its By-Laws, confer powers upon its Board of Directors in addition to the foregoing, and in addition to the powers and authority expressly conferred upon the directors by statute.

(c) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in these Articles of Incorporation, or in the By-Laws which may be adopted pursuant thereto, at a meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose, any director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors, who may then forthwith at such meeting proceed to elect a successor or successors for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE IX
STATUTORY CHANGES

Any and every statute of the State of Alabama hereafter enacted whereby the rights, powers and privileges of the shareholders of corporations organized under general laws of the State of Alabama are increased, diminished or in any way affected, or whereby effect is given to the action by any part less than all of the shareholders of any such corporation, shall apply to this corporation and shall be binding upon not only this corporation but upon every shareholder thereof, to the same extent as if such statute had been in force at the date of the making and filing of these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE X
AMENDMENT

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change, restate or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter provided by law, and all rights conferred upon officers, directors, and shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporator has hereunto subscribed his signature to these Articles of Incorporation this 10th day of November 2008.
