I, JESSE AUBORN ADAMS, of Shelby County, Alabama, which I declare to be my domicile, hereby declare this instrument to be my Last Will and Testament, and hereby revoke all previous Wills and Codicils heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE ONE

I direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses and expenses in connection with the administration of my estate, including all estate and inheritance taxes which may be assessed against my estate, or any part thereof, wherever situated, whether or not passing under my Will, and including the taxable value of any policies of insurance on my life, be paid as soon as practicable after my death. ARTICLE THREE

If any principal of my estate shall become distributable to a minor, my Executor may, in his discretion, pay over such principal at any time to the guardian of the property of such minor, or retain the same for such minor during minority. In case of such retention, my Executor may apply such principal and the income therefrom to the support, maintenance, and education of such minor, either directly or by payments to the guardian of the property or person of such minor, or to the person with whom such minor may reside, in any case without requiring any bond; and the receipt for any such person shall be a complete discharge to my Executor who shall not be bound to see to the application of any such payment. Any unapplied principal and income shall be paid over to such legatee upon his/her attaining majority, or if he/she shall die before attaining majority, to his/her estate. In holding any funds for any minor my Executor shall have all the powers and discretions hereinafter conferred upon him.

ARTICLE FIVE

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my daughter, Deborah Craven Revelle and granddaughter, Myer Brookins Craven, as co-Executors of this my Last Will and Testament, and hereby expressly exempt them from giving any bond or other security as such Executors and from the filing of any inventory of the property coming into their hands and the making of any report to or settlement in any court or other judicial authority, with respect to any proceedings hereunder. I authorize my Executors to continue the operation of any business that I may own at the time of my death for the period of time and in the manner that they consider advisable and in the best interest of my estate, such ownership being in the form of sole proprietorship, partnership interest, or interest in any corporation. They may sell or liquidate any businesses at the time and on the terms and conditions that they consider advisable and in the best interest of my estate, considering in their decision, the best interests of my beneficiaries. Subject to the foregoing, I hereby confer upon said Executors the continuing, absolute, discretionary power to deal with any property, real or personal, held in my estate, as freely as I might in the handling of my own affairs. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, I confer upon my said Executors full and complete power to sell, convey, exchange or otherwise dispose of, and to mortgage, pledge or otherwise encumber any property, real or personal, owned by me at the time of my death, or coming into their hands as such Executors, on any terms as he might deem fit. Such general and specific powers may be exercised independently and without the prior or subsequent approval of any court or judicial authority, and no person dealing with my said Executors shall be required to inquire into the propriety of any of their actions. In the event that one of my co-executors, should predecease me or should fail to qualify as Executor for whatever reason, then I nominate, constitute and appoint the other, solely, as Alternate Executor, with the same exemptions and powers as granted to them as co-Executors. Further, either Executor may execute any documents necessary on behalf of my estate with the necessity of the signature of the other.
