ARTICLE SEVEN ADDITIONAL MEMBERS

Additional members may be admitted in accordance with the terms of the limited liability company's operating agreement, if any. If the limited liability company does not have an operating agreement that provides for the admission of additional members, additional members may be admitted with the written consent of all members at such times and upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon by the members and the person desiring to become a member.

ARTICLE EIGHT CONTINUATION OF THE BUSINESS

In the event there are no remaining members, and except as otherwise provided in the limited liability company's operating agreement, if any, the limited liability company shall be dissolved and its affairs shall be wound up unless:

- (a) the holders of all of the financial rights in the limited liability company agree in writing within ninety (90) days after the cessation of membership of the last member, to continue the legal existence and business of the limited liability company and to appoint one or more new members; or
- (b) The legal existence and business of the limited liability company is continued and one or more new members are appointed in the manner stated in an operating agreement of the limited liability company.

For the purpose of this Article, all of the financial rights owners means interests of one or more remaining financial rights owners which, when taken together, own one hundred percent (100%) of the capital interests and one hundred percent (100%) of the profits interests of the remaining financial rights owners.

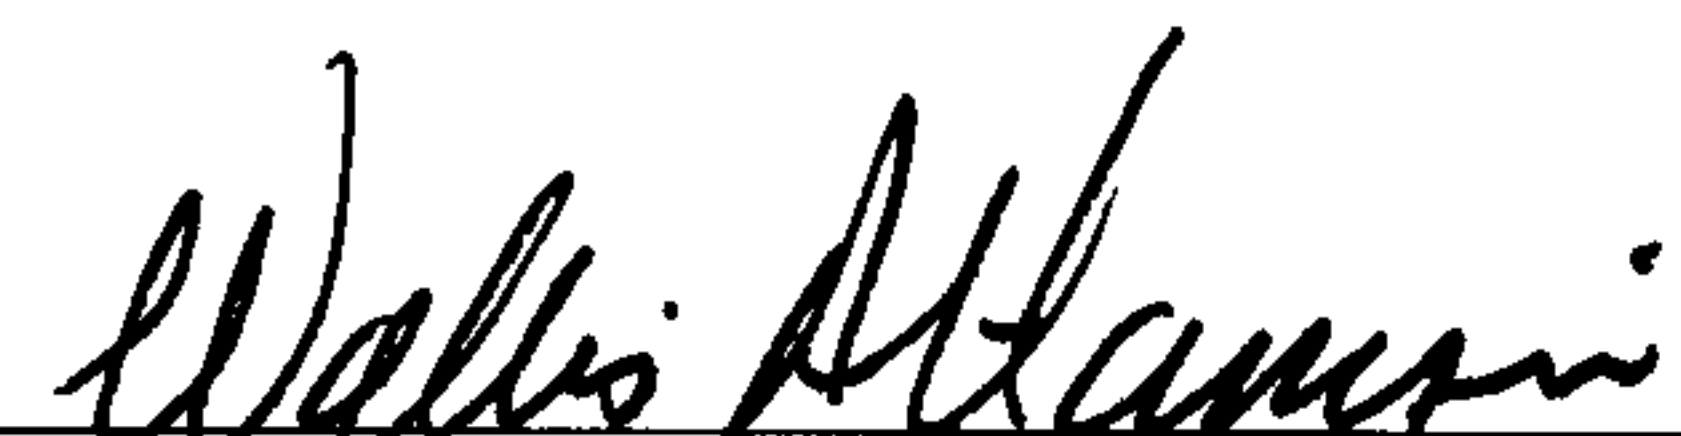

ARTICLE NINE MANAGEMENT

The management of the Company is vested in the members. Subject to any provisions in the operating agreement of the limited liability company, or the provisions of the Alabama Limited Liability Company Act restricting or enlarging the management rights and duties of any person or group or class of persons, the members shall have the right and authority to manage the business or affairs of the limited liability company and to make all decisions with respect thereto.

ARTICLE TEN AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION

These Articles of Organization may be amended only by the vote or written consent of all the members of the limited liability company. For purposes of this Article Ten, percentage interests of financial rights owners of the limited liability company shall not be taken into account in determining the percentage interests of the members.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these Articles of Organization as the organizer, as of the 11 day of February, 2009, and affirms that the facts herein are true under penalties for perjury prescribed by Code of Alabama, Section 13A-10-103 (1975) or its successor.
