Before me, the undersigned authority, in and for said County and State, personally appeared Bernice Crim, who, being known to me and being by me first duly sworn, deposed and said as follows:

My name is Bernice Crim. I am 81 years old and reside in Shelby County, Alabama. I knew both T. F. Endress, deceased, and his wife, Ludie May Endress, also deceased, and am acquainted with their family. T. F. Endress died on September 25, 1981. Ludie May Endress died on February 20, 1996, without a will, and no administration of her estate is pending or contemplated, and no one is appointed as executor, administrator, or personal representative of her estate. There are no claims against her or her estate as far as I know and no lawsuits pending or threatened against her or her estate.

When Ludie May Endress died, she had not remarried and left surviving her as next of kin and sole heirs at law the following children, who along with her were also all of the next of kin and heirs at law of T. F. Endress: Betty Roper, Gladys McMillan (who died intestate December 23, 2008, with no surviving spouse and no children or other descendants), Frank A. Endress, and Thomas E. Endress.
