H. To engage in any or all lawful business for which corporations may be organized under the Alabama Business Corporations Act and the laws of Alabama, as the same now exist or hereafter be amended.

The foregoing clauses shall be construed as purposes for which the Corporation is organized, in addition to those powers specifically conferred upon the Corporation by law, and it is hereby expressly provided that the foregoing specific enumeration of powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of the Corporation otherwise granted by law.

7. The term of existence of the Corporation shall be perpetual.
8. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall maintain authority to amend these Articles to expand or alter the class of shares, to establish series, and fix and determine the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the series.
9. Shares of the Corporation may be freely transferred, except that a Shareholder desiring to transfer any such shares of the corporate stock shall first offer to the Corporation, or to any other Shareholder of the Corporation, or to any combination of the foregoing, prior opportunity, to be exercised within a reasonable time, to acquire the “restrictive transfer” shares, at the reasonable market value thereof. Each Shareholder of the Corporation shall further have the preemptive right to purchase treasury shares of the Corporation, or other shares being sold by the Corporation for the fair market value thereof, except as otherwise provided in the By-Laws of the Corporation or separate written agreement.
