ARTICLE IX

The initial President of the company is Henry C. Dailey, Jr.

The initial Secretary/Treasurer of the company is Frank S. Donalson.

ARTICLE X

The By-laws of the corporation shall contain provisions for the regulation and management of the corporation and its affairs not inconsistent with any provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, and not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Alabama. The initial By-laws of the corporation shall be adopted by the shareholders. The By-laws of the corporation shall be adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the annual or special meeting of the shareholders and entitled to vote thereat, a quorum being present. No amendment decreasing the number of directors shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. The By-laws may also be amended in the Board of Directors, provided however, that the Board of Directors may not alter, amend, or repeal any By-laws establishing a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors, the time and place of shareholders' meetings, or what constitutes a quorum at such shareholders' meeting.

The corporation powers shall be exercised by the Board of Directors, excepts as otherwise provided by statute or by these Articles of Incorporation. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if prior to such action a written consent thereto is signed by all members of the Board or of such committee, as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board or committee. In furtherance and not in limitation of powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized to fix and determine and to vary the amount of working and stated capital of the corporation; to determine the date or dates for the declaration and payment of dividend; and to direct and determine use and disposition of any surplus or net profits over and above the capital stock paid in. The corporation may, in its By-laws, confer powers upon its Board of Directors in addition to the foregoing, and in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon directors by statute.

ARTICLE XI

This corporation may from time to time issue its shares of stock for such consideration (but not less than par values) as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors and may receive payment from time to time by the Board of Directors labor done, personal property (tangible and in tangible) or real property. In the absence of actual fraud in the transactions, the judgment of the Board of Directors as to the value of such labor, personal property, or real property shall be conclusive. Any and all shares so issued for which the consideration so fixed shall have been paid or delivered shall be deemed fully paid stock and the holders of such shares not be liable for any further payment in respect thereof.

ARTICLE XII

Each holder of stock of this corporation shall be entitled as of right to purchase or subscribe for his or her proportional part of any authorized but unissued stock of this corporation, or of any additional stock of any class which may be issued by reason of any increase in the authorized capital stock this corporation, or of bonds, certificates of indebtedness, debentures, or other securities convertible into stock of this corporation, or carrying any rights to purchase stock of any class.

ARTICLE XIII

This corporation may, from time to time, lawfully enter into any agreement to which all. Or less than all, the holders of record of the issued and outstanding shares of its capital stock shall be parties, restricting the transfer of any or all shares of its capital stock represented by certificates thereof upon such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Board of Directors of this corporation, provided, that such restrictions be stated upon each certificate representing such shares.

ARTICLE XIV

So far as not otherwise expressly provided by the laws of the State of Alabama, the corporation shall be entitled to treat the person or entity in whose name any shares of its stock is registered as the owner thereof for all purposes and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to interest in said share on the part of any other person, unless the corporation shall have noticed thereof as required in the By-laws of this corporation.

ARTICLE XV

The corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against liability.

ARTICLE XVI

No contract or other transaction between this corporation and any person, firm, association or corporation and no other act of this corporation shall, in the absence of fraud, be invalidated or in any way affected by the fact that any of the directors or officers of the corporation, directly or indirectly, peculiarly or otherwise interested in such contract, transaction or other act, or related to or interest in (either as director, shareholder, officer, employee, member or otherwise) such person, firm, association, partnership or corporation. Any director of the corporation individually, or any firm, partnership, or association of which any director may be a member, may be a party to, or may be peculiarly or otherwise interested in, any contract or transaction of the corporation, provided that the fact that he, individually, or such firm, association, partnership or corporation is so interested, shall be disclosed or known to the Board of Directors, this corporation so related or otherwise interested may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which action any such contract, transaction or act shall be taken and may vote threat with respect to such action with like force and effect as if he were not so related or interest. Any director of the corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the corporation without regard to the fact that he is also a director of such other corporation.

ARTICLE XVII

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter provided by law, and all rights conferred upon officers, directors, and shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporator has hereunto subscribed his signature to these Articles of Incorporation this the 18 day of November, 2010.
