The following was resolved at this meeting

Old Business

The Board has re-examined the Corporate name and believe it has determined a name for the corporation that will better reflect its mission. The name of Association of Independent Ministries was approved by the board.

The amended Articles of Incorporation were reviewed and approved by the board. These amended articles better reflect the mission of the Corporation to include support of individuals and their ministries by the AIM in a spiritual and fiduciary capacity as members are added to the Association.
