To Whom It May Concern:

I, Daniel M. Acker, Sr., have not failed to have my Fair Campaign form in and on time in nineteen years during my tenure on the commission. The reason for the delay this time is due to the fact that my wife and I were on a mission trip to Uganda.

Shelby County office had emailed me and reminded me before the deadline, but I was unable to download the form and thus could not get it back. Electricity is erratic and often brown outs are frequent in the area in which we worked.

Please be understanding in this matter as we arrived home on February 3.

Thank you,

Daniel M. Acker Sr.
