ATTORNEY'S LIEN

COMES NOW, Frank R. Farish, Attorney at Law, and files this his lien for services rendered and expenses incurred in the representation of Kristie Haynes in the above styled case, and in support of same would say and show to this Honorable Court as follows:

That on April 3, 2006, the Plaintiff entered into a contract with his said attorney to represent him in several capacities, including but not limited to, his claim for damages sustained, medical bills, and charges incurred arising out of an automobile accident that occurred on January 31, 2006. That your said claimant-lienholder expended significant amounts of time and considerable expenses in securing records and charges and other substantiation to prosecute Plaintiff's case. That your said attorney appealed the Circuit Court of Shelby County decision by Writ of Mandamus. That your said attorney conducted Post Judgment Discovery and collection efforts for more than five years. That your said attorney places this said lien based on the expenses incurred and time expended, and asserts this his lien of $116,000.67, plus 33 1/3% of any and all post judgment interest accrued on the judgment entered on January 15, 2008, and any subsequent interest accrued until the judgment is satisfied. That your said attorney places
