CATHERINE KELLY OWENS MANAGEMENT TRUST

As of September 19, 2008, I, CATHERINE KELLY OWENS, the undersigned Settlor and Trustee, being a resident of the State of Alabama, hereby enter into this Trust Agreement as follows:

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, I desire to grant out of my present holdings and property and create therewith a trust, or several trusts, which shall be for my benefit and for the benefit of certain family members as hereinafter set forth; and

WHEREAS, the Trustee hereinabove named has agreed to accept the trusteeship, and all interest and property which may come into such Trust by reason of this Agreement, for the benefit and use of said beneficiaries, all in accordance with the provisions hereinafter set forth;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, it is hereby understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows:

GRANT OF TRUST

I hereby grant, assign, set over, transfer and deliver to the Trustee the property listed on Exhibit "A" attached hereto, the receipt of which the Trustee acknowledges, for the following uses and purposes, and subject to the terms, conditions, powers and agreements hereinafter specified.

The foregoing recitals are incorporated herein by reference and made a part of this Trust Agreement.

NAME OF TRUST

This Trust Agreement, as it may be amended and/or restated from time to time, shall be known as and referred to as the "Catherine Kelly Owens Management Trust dated September 19, 2008."

TRUST ESTATE

The Trustee shall hold, manage and control the property coming into its possession, pursuant to the power and authority herein given to the Trustee, for the uses and purposes and upon the terms and conditions hereinafter stated.

A. The Trustee shall hold the trust estate in trust for my lifetime. During such period, the Trustee shall distribute to or apply for the benefit of my descendants and me, such amounts of the income or principal of the trust estate, even to the extent of exhausting principal, as the Trustee determines to be required from time to time for the health, education, support, and maintenance of my descendants and me, taking into account resources otherwise available. Any undistributed income shall be accumulated and added to the principal of the trust estate.

B. In addition, the Trustee shall distribute to me or others such amount of the income or principal of the trust estate as I may from time to time direct.

C. The terms "issue", "descendants" and "lineal descendants" of any individual are intended to include any persons heretofore or hereafter born to or adopted by such individual and any descendant of such individual, but any person who is adopted by such individual or a descendant of such individual on or after the age of twenty-one (21) years, and the descendants of such adopted person, are intended to be excluded from these terms.

D. The term "Trustee" and words of reference to the Trustee shall mean any person or entity serving in that capacity without regard to gender or number.

E. The term "Code" shall mean the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have set their hands and seals effective as of the day and year first above written, and the signature on the part of the Trustee, indicates the acceptance by the Trustee of the terms of the trusts created hereunder.

shall instruct and such payments shall be allocated as set forth in paragraph C of this section.

B. Further, if the Personal Representative of my estate certifies, in writing, to the Trustee that my probate estate is inadequate to satisfy valid claims of creditors, costs of administration of my estate, my funeral expenses (including the cost of a suitable monument at my grave), and homestead allowance, exempt property and family allowance, if any, then the Trustee shall make such payments to or on behalf of my estate as my Personal Representative shall instruct and such payments shall be charged generally to the assets of this trust before any allocation at my death.

C. All payments of any items set forth in paragraph A of this section shall be allocated among the beneficiaries of this Trust Agreement who have received or will receive any property, interest or benefit under the terms of this Trust Agreement, by operation of law, through life insurance policies or otherwise, either at my death or at any time during my life, but only to the extent that such property, interest or benefit is included in my gross estate for federal estate tax purposes as provided in the Alabama Uniform Estate Tax Apportionment Act; provided, however, that such allocation shall not be made among those beneficiaries of property, interest or benefits which are described in paragraphs D.1. and D.2. of the section of this Trust Agreement entitled TRUST ESTATE.

D. The Trustee shall be absolutely protected in paying the amounts described in paragraphs A and/or B hereinabove as my Personal Representative shall so certify to be the amounts payable by such paragraphs, and the Trustee shall have no duty or obligation to inquire as to the correctness, or as to the propriety of the payment, of any amounts so certified or to see to the application thereof by my Personal Representative.

E. Generation-skipping transfer taxes (together with any interest or penalty thereon) which are payable with respect to the property comprising my gross estate for estate tax purposes, whether or not such property passes under this Trust Agreement, shall be allocated as set forth under Sections 2603 of the Code.

DUTIES AND POWERS

In the management and control of any trust created herein, the Trustee, in the sole judgment and discretion of the Trustee, may do and have done with respect to each trust estate, all things which the Trustee may deem necessary, desirable and proper to promote, protect and conserve the interests of the trust estate, and of the beneficiaries thereof. All references in these DUTIES AND POWERS provisions hereof to "trust estate" shall refer to any trust created hereunder and any separate shares thereof. The powers herein granted to the Trustee may be exercised in whole or in part, from time to time, and may be exercised after termination of all trusts or shares until the actual distribution of all trust principal, but not beyond the period permitted by an applicable rule of law relating to perpetuities. The powers herein granted shall be deemed to be supplementary to and not exclusive of the general powers of trustees pursuant to law, and shall include all powers necessary to carry the same into effect, including but not limited to the following:

1. To hold and retain without liability for loss or depreciation any property or securities transferred to the Trustee or to which the Trustee becomes entitled, including any partnership interests (whether general, limited or special), interests in limited liability companies, shares of regulated investment companies or trusts (whether open-end or closed-end), stock or interests in or any family corporation, partnership, limited liability company or enterprise, or any stock or obligation of any publicly-traded company which is a successor to any such family corporation, partnership, limited liability company or enterprise, or any stock or obligations of any corporate trustee serving hereunder from time to time, or corporation which owns stock of such corporate trustee, without regard to any statutory or constitutional limitations applicable to the investment of funds and though the retention might violate principles of investment diversification, so long as the Trustee reasonably determines that the retention thereof is in the best interests of the trust estate and that, because of special circumstances, the purposes of the trust are better served without diversifying investments; and in disposing of any property constituting a part of the trust estate, to acquire other property in accordance with the standards and parameters set forth in the next paragraph.

2. To invest and reinvest the trust estate and the proceeds of sale or disposal of any portion thereof, using the judgement and care under the circumstances then prevailing that persons of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income as well as the probable safety of their capital, in any property or securities, including such loans, bonds, stocks, mortgages, common trust funds, mutual funds (including those managed or advised by the Trustee), securities, partnerships (whether general, limited or special), interests as members in limited liability companies, or other enterprise, stock or interest in any family corporation, or other property, real or personal; to purchase options for such purposes; to exercise options (including, without limitation, stock options), rights, or warrants; to purchase securities or other property, as the Trustee may deem suitable; to make temporary investments in securities of the United States or any agency thereof; to purchase and sell fractional shares and subscription rights to which the trust estate may become entitled; and to exercise such powers without regard to any statutory or constitutional limitations applicable to the investment of funds and though the acquisition might violate principles of investment diversification, so long as the Trustee reasonably determines that the acquisition thereof is in the best interests of the trust estate and that, because of special circumstances, the purposes of the trust are better served without diversifying investments.

3. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in paragraphs 1 and 2 above, to hold and retain without liability for loss or depreciation any interest in the real estate located in Cleburne County, Alabama transferred to the Trustee or to which the Trustee becomes entitled, and to invest and reinvest the trust estate and the proceeds of sale or disposal of any portion thereof in any interest in said real estate, without regard to any statutory or constitutional limitations applicable to the investment of funds and though the acquisition might violate principles of investment diversification. It is my wish and desire, but not a requirement, that said real estate be retained by my children after distribution from this trust to ultimately benefit my grandchildren in the future.

4. To sell, auction, convey, exchange, lease or rent for a period beyond the possible termination of the trust (or for a less period) for improvement or otherwise, or to grant options for or in connection with such purposes, or otherwise dispose of, all of any portion of the trust, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee may approve.

5. To make loans, secured or unsecured, at any interest rate, to any person, without responsibility or liability for any loss resulting to the trust estate from any such loan.

6. To borrow money for such time and upon such terms as the Trustee sees fit, without security or on mortgage of any real estate or upon pledge of any personal property held hereunder, and to execute mortgages or collateral agreements therefor as necessary.

7. To buy, sell and trade in securities of any nature, including short sales, on margin, and for such purposes may maintain and operate margin accounts with brokers, and may pledge any securities held or purchased by them with such brokers as security for loans and advances made to the Trustee.

8. To collect the income from the trust or trusts and all shares thereof.

9. To establish, continue or dispose of any business enterprise at such time and upon such terms and conditions as, in the judgment of the Trustee, are for the best interests of the trust estate without liability therefor, whether such enterprise be in the form of a sole proprietorship, partnership, limited liability company, corporation or otherwise, and to develop, add capital to, expand or alter the business of such enterprise, to liquidate, incorporate, reorganize, manage or consolidate the same, or change its charter or name, to appoint directors or managers and employ officers, employees or agents (including any trustee or directors, officers or employees thereof) and to compensate and offer stock options and other employee or fringe benefits to them, and in exercising Trustee's powers in relation to such business enterprise, to receive extra or extraordinary compensation therefor. I grant to my Trustee the power to do all the acts in connection with the businesses which I could have done had I then owned such business interests, or to delegate such powers to any partner, manager, shareholder, director, officer or employee, without liability for any loss occurring therein. I authorize the Trustee to make public or private sale of the business or businesses, and the real and personal property thereof, at such time or place, and for such price, and upon such terms as to cash or credit, with or without security for the purchase price, as the Trustee may deem best, and to execute all necessary assignments and conveyances to the purchasers, without liability on the part of the purchasers to see to the application of the purchase monies. If the Trustee owns an interest in the shares of stock of any closely-held family corporation, and the persons named herein as Trustee shall be or shall become affiliated with any such closely-held corporation, serving as employees, officers or directors thereof, such persons serving as Trustee hereunder shall not be disqualified from employment by any such family corporation or its successor, or the continued employment by the persons for either the same or greater compensation as determined from time to time by the board of directors in office. In the circumstances described in this paragraph, the persons serving as Trustee hereunder shall be exonerated from any claim or demand arising from the fact that they may be receiving or have received compensation for serving as a director, officer, and/or employee when serving as Trustee or successor Trustee.

10. To exercise or not exercise any ownership rights and powers in any entity as are or may be exercised by persons owning similar property in their own right, including, but not limited to, to vote any interests in a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other business enterprise, whether such exercise is made in person, or by special, limited or general proxy; provided, however, that if, at any time a corporate trustee is serving hereunder it shall purchase or retain stock or obligations of itself or of any holding company, or similar corporation which owns stock of such corporate trustee, then in the election of directors and other matters in which the corporate trustee is prohibited from voting its stock or stock of any holding company or similar corporation which owns stock of a corporate trustee, such stock shall be voted by the eldest adult beneficiary hereunder.

11. To subdivide or otherwise develop, and to change the use or purpose of, any real estate constituting a part of the trust into residential, recreational, commercial, cemetery, or other usage; to construct, alter, remodel, repair or raze any building or other improvement located thereon; and to release, partition, vacate, abandon, dedicate or adjust the boundaries as to any such property.

12. To operate farms and woodlands with hired labor, tenants or sharecroppers; to acquire real estate, crop allotments, livestock, poultry, machinery, equipment, materials, and any other items of production in connection therewith; to clear, drain, ditch, make roads, fence and plant part or all of such real estate; to employ or enter into any practices or programs to conserve, improve or regulate the efficiency, fertility and production thereof; to improve, sell, auction or exchange crops, timber or other product thereof; to lease or enter into other management, cutting, production or sales contracts for a term beyond the possible termination of the trust or for a less period; to employ the methods of carrying on agriculture, animal husbandry and silviculture which are in use in the vicinity of any of such real estate or which the Trustee deems otherwise appropriate; to make loans or advances at interest for production, harvesting, marketing or any other purpose hereunder, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee may approve; and in general to take any action which the Trustee deems necessary or desirable in such operations of farms and woodlands.

13. To drill, explore, test, mine or otherwise exploit oil, gas, or other mineral or natural resources; to engage in absorption, repressuring, and other production, processing or secondary recovery operations; to install, operate and maintain storage plants and pipelines or other transportation facilities; to engage in any of the above activities directly under such business form as the Trustee may select or to contract with others for the performance of them; and to enter into and execute oil, gas and mineral leases, division and transfer orders, grants, farm-out, pooling of unitization agreements, and such other instruments or agreements in connection therewith as the Trustee deems necessary or desirable.

14. To keep any property constituting a part of the trust properly insured against hazards; to pay all taxes or assessments, mortgages or other liens now or hereafter resting upon said property; and to create reserves for depreciation, depletion or such other purposes as the Trustee deems necessary or desirable.

15. To execute and deliver any and all contracts, conveyances, transfers, or other instruments and to do any acts necessary or desirable in the execution of the powers herein vested in the Trustee.

16. To institute and defend any and all suits or legal proceedings relating to the trust estate, in any court, and to employ counsel and to compromise or submit to arbitration or any other alternative dispute resolution process all matters of dispute in which the trust estate may be involved, as in the judgment of the Trustee may be necessary or proper.

17. To pay any and all expenses reasonably necessary for the administration of the trust, including interest, taxes, insurance, including public liability insurance, and compensation to the Trustee, as well as any other expense incurred for the benefit of the trust estate.

18. To pay the funeral and burial expenses of any beneficiary from the principal of the trust from which income has been payable to such beneficiary.

19. To determine whether any money or property coming into the Trustee's hands shall be treated as a part of the principal of the trust or a part of the income therefrom, and to apportion between principal and income any loss or expenditure in connection with the trust, in each case in accordance with the provisions of the Alabama Principal and Income Act, if applicable, or if not applicable, as the Trustee may deem just and equitable; provided, however, that any proceeds received by the Trustee from any "retirement plan", meaning any qualified pension, profit sharing, stock bonus, Keogh or other qualified plan, trust, contract, account, annuity, or bond, or individual retirement account, as those terms are defined in the Code, or any non-qualified deferred compensation agreement, salary continuation agreement, or similar arrangement, shall be treated by the Trustee as principal, except that any income earned within the retirement plan from such proceeds as a result of an installment or similar election or any other deferral of payment of the retirement plan's proceeds to the Trustee shall be treated by the Trustee as income when received; provided further, that the Trustee shall have the power and discretion to adjust between principal and income which is contained in section 104 of the Alabama Principal and Income Act, as from time to time amended.

20. To appoint, employ, remove and compensate such attorneys, accountants, custodians, agents and representatives, individual or corporate, as the Trustee deems necessary or desirable for the administration of the trust; to treat as an expense of the trust any compensation so paid; and to delegate all or any part of the investment powers contained herein to such investment counselors, consultants or managers as the Trustee deems appropriate.

21. To hold property or securities in bearer form, in the name of the Trustee, or in the name of the Trustee's nominee, without disclosing any fiduciary relation.

22. To advance money to any trust for any purpose of the trust, and the Trustee shall reimburse itself for the money so advanced with reasonable interest thereon from the trust or from any funds belonging thereto.

23. To hold money in its custody while awaiting distribution or investment under the terms hereof, even though such money be commingled with the Trustee's funds (in which case the Trustee shall keep a separate account of the same on the Trustee's books), and the Trustee shall not be required to pay interest thereon.

24. To deal with the fiduciary or fiduciaries of any other trust or estate, even though the Trustee is also the fiduciary or one of the fiduciaries of the other trust or estate.

25. In making any division of the trust property into shares for the purpose of any distribution thereof directed or permitted by the provisions under this Trust Agreement, to make such division or distribution either in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind, as the Trustee shall deem most expedient, and in making any division or distribution in kind, the Trustee may allot any specific security of property, or any undivided interest therein, to any one or more of such beneficiaries, and in such proportions and amounts, considering both equality of distribution and federal income tax basis of trust assets, as the Trustee may deem proper; and to that end, may appraise any or all of the property to be allotted, and the judgement of the Trustee as to the propriety of such allotment and as to the relative value and basis for the purposes of distribution of the securities or property so allotted, shall be final and conclusive upon all persons interested in this trust or in the division or distribution thereof. The Trustee may choose which assets shall be used to fund separate shares of the trust property, without being required to fund a share with a prorata portion of each asset.

26. To address environmental matters regarding trust property and, in this regard, the following shall apply:

a. The Trustee shall not be personally liable to any beneficiary hereunder for any claim against the trust for the diminution in value of the trust property arising from the compliance by the Trustee with any federal, state or local law, rule or regulation including:

(1) the reporting of or other response to the contamination of trust property by substances or materials prohibited or regulated by federal, state, or local law or that are known to pose a hazard to the environment or to human health;

(2) the reporting of or other response to violations of any other federal, state or local law, rule or regulation involving materials or substances regulated by federal, state or local law or that are known to pose a hazard to the environment or human health; or

(3) other matters relating to environmental laws.

b. The Trustee may, in its discretion, periodically inspect, review and monitor, or require the inspection, review and monitoring of, any and all property held in this trust for the purpose of determining compliance with any law, rule or regulation affecting such property, with all expenses of such inspection, review and monitoring to be paid from the income or principal of the trust.

c. The Trustee shall have the power, in order to protect the assets held in any trust created hereunder, to take any and all action it shall reasonably deem necessary, in its sole discretion, to prevent, abate, "clean up", or otherwise respond to any violation of any federal, state or local law, rule, or ordinance affecting any property held in trust related to the generation, use, treatment, transportation, storage, disposal, release, discharge, or contamination by any materials or substances that are prohibited or regulated by federal, state, or local law or that are known to pose a hazard to the environment or human health. Such actions may be taken prior to the initiation of enforcement action by a federal, state or local agency. The Trustee shall obtain an estimate of the cost of such response to such violation or contamination and shall notify the beneficiaries, or the parent, guardian or conservator of any minor beneficiary, of the trust of the estimated cost of such response. Such beneficiaries shall have the right to pay for such response costs or to authorize payment of such costs by the fiduciary from trust assets. If the beneficiaries, or the parent, guardian or conservator of any minor beneficiary, of the trust for any reason fail to pay for or authorize payment of such costs from trust assets, the fiduciary shall be entitled nonetheless to use trust assets to pay such costs or, in its sole discretion, to resign in accordance with the provisions herein regarding the resignation of the fiduciary.

d. The Trustee shall have the power, in its sole discretion, to settle or compromise at any time any and all claims against the trust which may be asserted by any federal, state, or local agency or private party involving the alleged violation of any federal, state, or local law, rule or regulation affecting property held in trust.

e. The Trustee shall have the power to disclaim any power which, in the sole discretion of such fiduciary, will or may cause the Trustee to be considered an "owner" or "operator" of property held in this trust as those terms are defined in the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act (CERCLA), as amended from time to time, or which shall otherwise cause the Trustee to incur liability under CERCLA or any other federal, state or local law, rule or regulation. The power to disclaim as contained in this section shall apply to any power, whether actually set forth herein, incorporated by reference herein, or granted or implied by any statute or rule of law.

f. The Trustee shall have the right to resign if at any time it believes there is or may be a conflict between it in its fiduciary capacity and in its individual capacity because of potential claims or liabilities which might be asserted against this trust created because of the type or condition of the assets held in this trust.

The Trustee's exercise or nonexercise of powers and discretions in good faith shall be conclusive on all persons. No person paying money or delivering property to any Trustee hereunder shall be required or privileged to see to its application. The certification of the Trustee that the Trustee is acting in compliance with this instrument shall fully protect all persons dealing with the Trustee.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. The invalidity of any gift, or any limitation over or interest intended, as to any property or as to any beneficiary shall not be considered materially to disturb the plan of distribution herein created or to affect the validity of any other gift or devise or limitation over, or interest in, or trust herein given or created.

B. Where I have directed that distributions be made to or for the benefit of any beneficiary under the age of twenty-one (21) years, or any beneficiary who may be under any legal disability, or any beneficiary who, in the sole discretion of the Trustee, may be
