THE ROY E. MOORE
REVOCABLE TRUST

THIS TRUST AGREEMENT, dated this 30th day of June, 2000, is among ROY E. MOORE of the City of Parsons, Kansas, referred to as "Grantor"; and ROY E.
MOORE of the City of Parsons, Kansas, and BEVERLY L. MOORE of the City of Parsons, Kansas, collectively referred to herein as the "Trustee"; and BEVERLY L. MOORE of the City of Parsons, Kansas, referred to as the "Independent Trustee".

By execution of this agreement, Grantor transfers to the Trustee the property described in Schedule A and the Trustee accepts such property as the initial trust estate. The Trustee shall hold and dispose of the trust estate upon the terms set forth in this agreement. During Grantor's life the trust hereby created shall be known as "The Roy E. Moore Revocable Trust".

ADMINISTRATION AND DISPOSITION OF TRUST ESTATE
DURING GRANTOR'S LIFE

I. POWERS OF GRANTOR

Grantor reserves the following powers: (1) to withdraw property from the trust in any amount at any time; (2) to add additional property to the trust by will or otherwise; (3) to change the number and the identity of the Trustees acting as such hereunder; (4) to change the beneficiaries, their respective shares and the plan of distribution of the trust assets; (5) to alter or amend this agreement in any respect provided that the duties or responsibilities of the Trustee shall not be enlarged without its consent; (6) to revoke this trust in whole or in part; and (7) from time to time to require the Trustee to pledge, mortgage or otherwise encumber all or any part of the trust estate as security for any indebtedness incurred by Grantor. To be effective, the exercise of such powers shall be by written instrument signed by Grantor and delivered to the Trustee prior to Grantor's death.

The powers reserved by Grantor under this provision are exercisable in the absolute discretion of Grantor and neither the Trustee nor any beneficiary hereunder shall have any right or power to enforce or object to the exercise of such powers.

II. DIRECTION FROM GRANTOR REGARDING THE DISPOSITION OF INCOME AND PRINCIPAL

A. During Grantor's life, the Trustee shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the trust estate, collect the income therefrom and pay to Grantor or as he shall direct all, none or such part of the net income and principal as Grantor may specify from time to time by a written instrument signed by Grantor and delivered to the Trustee prior to Grantor's death.

B. In the absence of effective written direction from Grantor, the Trustee shall, during Grantor's life, pay to Grantor, and/or Grantor's spouse, or apply to their benefit all, none or such part of the net income and principal as the Trustee shall from time to time determine to be advisable for their medical care, maintenance, support and reasonable comfort in their accustomed manner of living.

III. POWERS AND DUTIES OF TRUSTEE WITH RESPECT TO CERTAIN ASSETS

Notwithstanding any other provisions hereof or of any instrument of transfer now or hereafter delivered to the Trustee, the Trustee shall have no responsibility for any tangible personal property transferred to it upon this trust for so long as Grantor shall retain the use and possession thereof. The Trustee shall be responsible only for such property as may be physically delivered to it. Grantor may by written instrument direct the Trustee, on terms specified in such instrument, to transfer or otherwise dispose of, with or without consideration, any part or all of such tangible personal property, the consideration, if any, therefor, to be delivered to the Trustee and to be added to the trust estate.

During Grantor's life he shall have the right to use and occupy any real estate held in the trust estate without rent or other accounting to the Trustee, and while such property is occupied by Grantor, the Trustee shall have no obligation or responsibility with respect thereto and shall not be liable for any loss, damage or other deterioration thereof nor for the payment of any taxes, insurance, repairs, maintenance or other charges in respect to such property. Nevertheless, the Trustee may in its discretion pay any or all such expenses out of the income or principal of the trust estate.

IV. INCAPACITY

If at any time the Trustee shall receive a written statement signed by Grantor's personal physician stating that he considers Grantor to be so mentally or physically incapacitated as to be unable to effectively manage or apply his estate to necessary ends, and if the Independent Trustee shall concur in any such statement and shall file a similar statement in the records of the trust, then, whether or not Grantor may have been adjudicated or certified an incapacitated person and notwithstanding any contrary direction from Grantor, Grantor shall be considered to be incapacitated and the provisions of this trust apply.

If Grantor is determined to be incapacitated as provided in the above paragraph, then, during the period of such incapacity, (a) if Grantor is then acting as a Trustee hereunder, he shall be deemed to have resigned; (b) any attempt by Grantor to exercise any of the powers reserved by him under this agreement shall be without force and effect; (c) notwithstanding any directions given by Grantor in or under Article II A, the Trustee shall distribute the income and principal of the trust estate as provided in Article II B; (d) the Trustee shall have power and authority on Grantor's behalf to exercise or perform any act, power, duty, right or obligation whatsoever that Grantor may have, relating to any person, matter, transaction or property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, whether in the trust estate or owned by Grantor, including, without limitation, power to transfer to itself upon the terms set forth in this agreement any property owned by Grantor. This power granted to the Trustee shall be construed and interpreted as a general durable power of attorney to act as Grantor's attorney in fact and agent in his name and for his benefit and shall be in addition to all other powers bestowed upon the Trustee by this agreement.

If at any time after the determination of incapacity as set out above the Trustee shall receive a written statement signed by Grantor's personal physician that Grantor is no longer so mentally or physically incapacitated as to be unable to effectively manage or apply his estate to necessary ends, then Grantor shall no longer be deemed to be incapacitated under the terms of this trust. Restoration of capacity pursuant to this article shall automatically restore Grantor as a Trustee under this agreement. Any restrictions upon the powers reserved by Grantor under this trust agreement shall cease to apply.

In the event Beverly L. Moore is unable to serve in the capacity of Independent Trustee, then Kevin A. Moore of Parsons, Kansas, is hereby appointed to serve as the Independent Trustee with powers as hereinabove stated. In the event Kevin A. Moore is unable to serve in the capacity of Independent Trustee, then Jennifer A. Morin of Montgomery, Texas, is hereby appointed to serve as the Independent Trustee with powers as hereinabove stated.

V. DISPOSITION OF TRUST ESTATE AFTER GRANTOR'S DEATH

(A) PAYMENT OF EXPENSES AND TAXES

Upon Grantor's death, the Trustee shall pay (1) the expenses of Grantor's last illness, funeral and burial, and all of Grantor's lawful debts, (2) taxes payable by reason of Grantor's death, subject to the conditions and limitations of paragraph (A) 1. below, and all unpaid income and gift taxes of Grantor, including interest and penalties on all such taxes, and (3) the expenses of administering Grantor's estate. As soon as convenient after the payment of such taxes and expenses, the Trustee shall distribute the trust estate as hereinafter set out.

1. Allocation of Expenses and Taxes. All estate, inheritance, legacy, succession or transfer taxes (including any interest and penalties thereon) due at Grantor's death or imposed by reason of Grantor's death, whether or not attributable to property disposed of by this instrument (hereafter "Death Taxes") shall be borne by the beneficiaries in proportion to the value of the interest which they receive on Grantor's death, whether under this instrument or otherwise. Provided, however, no gift or trust which qualifies for the marital or charitable deduction or which is excluded from Grantor's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes shall bear the burden of any Death Taxes.

(B) RESIDUE OF TRUST ESTATE

1. If there is at the time of Grantor's death a written memorandum signed by Grantor directing the disposition of any of Grantor's personal effects located in Grantor's home and other personal property, pursuant to K.S.A. 59-2296, Grantor requests and directs that the Trustee carry out and comply with the requests contained in said memorandum.

2. Upon the death of Grantor, if the spouse of Grantor, Beverly L. Moore, survives him, the Trustee shall separate a portion of the Trust Estate, including proceeds from insurance policies payable to Trustee, real property, personal property, and any other property which may be added to this trust after Grantor's death into a trust, hereinafter called Trust A.

3. Trust A shall include a sum equal to the largest amount that can pass free of federal estate tax under this Article by reason of the unified credit and the state death tax credit (provided the use of the credit for state death tax does not increase the amount of such state death taxes payable by Grantor's estate) allowable to Grantor's estate but no other credit and after taking account of property disposed of by other Articles of this Trust and property passing outside of this Trust which is includable in Grantor's gross estate and does not qualify for the marital or charitable deduction and after taking account of charges to principal that are not allowed as deductions in computing Grantor's federal estate tax. For the purpose of establishing the sum disposed of by this Article the values finally fixed in the federal estate tax proceeding relating to Grantor's estate shall be used. Grantor recognizes that no sum may be disposed of by this Article and that the sum so disposed of may be affected by the action of Grantor's Executor or Grantor's Trustee in exercising certain tax elections.

4. The balance of the Trust Estate not included in Trust A shall be distributed to Beverly L. Moore outright.

5. During the lifetime of Grantor's spouse, Beverly L. Moore, the Trustee shall, at least annually, pay to said spouse all of the net income from Trust A. In addition, Grantor's Trustee shall pay to Grantor's spouse from the principal of Trust A, such amount or amounts as the Trustee deems appropriate to provide for her health, education, maintenance and support, upon consideration of other funds from all sources actually known by the Trustee to be available to Grantor's spouse for such purposes.

6. If the order of Grantor's spouse's death and Grantor's death cannot be established by proof, Grantor's spouse shall conclusively be presumed to have survived Grantor for all purposes of this agreement.

7. Upon the death of Grantor's spouse, the full balance of Trust A, if any there be, shall be distributed in accordance with this Trust as if Grantor's spouse, Beverly L. Moore, had not survived him.

8. In the event Grantor is not survived by his spouse, Beverly L. Moore, then upon the death of Grantor the entire trust estate is to be distributed as follows:

One-fourth (1/4) share to Grantor's son, Kevin A. Moore.

One-fourth (1/4) share to Grantor's daughter, Jennifer A. Morin.

One-fourth (1/4) share to Grantor's son, Kurtis W. Moore.

One-fourth (1/4) share to Grantor's son, Nicholas T. Moore.

In the event any of the above named children are not living at the time of Grantor's death, his or her share of said trust estate shall be distributed to such deceased child's issue, per stirpes. If a child is deceased, leaving no issue, then that child's share shall be equally distributed to the surviving children of Grantor, or in the event of no surviving child, then per stirpes to any issue of Grantor's children.

In the event any issue of a deceased child named in this paragraph #8 is twenty-one (21) years of age or above, these persons shall receive his or her share outright. In the event any issue of a deceased child named in this paragraph #8 are under twenty-one (21) years of age, the Trustee shall divide all accumulated income and corpus not distributed to any issue who has attained 21 years of age into a number of shares equal to the number of issue of the deceased child who are under age 21, and shall retain IN TRUST and upon trust each person's share. After the Trust Estate has been divided, each share shall be administered as follows:

The Trustee shall distribute to each person from that person's share so much of the income and corpus as the Trustee determines to be necessary for the education, support and comfort of each person for which a share was established.

Upon an person for which a trust share was established attaining the age of 21 years, the Trustee shall distribute the residue and remainder in his or her trust share to said person, or if not living, then said share to be divided among the issue of said deceased person, per stirpes, or if no issue, to his or her heirs pursuant to the law of intestate succession.

9. If the above named beneficiaries, or any issue of them, shall not be living upon the subsequent death of Grantor's spouse, or if none of the beneficiaries, nor any issue of any of them, shall be living upon the death of the Grantor in the event that Grantor's spouse shall not survive Grantor, the principal of the Trust Estate as then constituted or all of the proceeds of life insurance policies upon the death of Grantor as the case may be, shall be equally distributed, as follows:

One-third (1/3) share to Kansas University, Lawrence, Kansas.
One-third (1/3) share to Labette Community College, Parsons, Kansas.
One-third (1/3) share to St. Patrick's Church, Parsons, Kansas.

10. Regardless of any of the other provisions of this trust, no trust or share of a trust under this Trust Agreement shall last for a period longer than lives in being mentioned in this instrument plus twenty-one (21) years. If termination occurs under this clause, all principal and undistributed income held by the Trustee at that time shall be distributed to those persons entitled to receive the same at that time.

11. If any legatee, devisee or beneficiary, other than Grantor's spouse, shall die simultaneously with Grantor or under such circumstances as to render it difficult or impossible to determine who predeceased the other, the Grantor shall be deemed to have survived such legatee, devisee or beneficiary and the provisions of this Agreement shall be construed upon that assumption.

After all the Trust estate is distributed, this Trust shall terminate.

VI. SUCCESSOR TRUSTEES

(A) DESIGNATION OF SUCCESSOR TRUSTEES

If for any reason Roy E. Moore or Beverly L. Moore cease to act as Trustee, then the remaining one of them shall continue to serve at the sole Trustee under this Trust Agreement.

If for any reason both Roy E. Moore and Beverly L. Moore cease to act as Trustee, then Grantor appoints Kevin A. Moore as Successor Trustee to serve as Trustee under this Trust Agreement. In the event Kevin A. Moore is unable to serve in this capacity, Grantor appoints Jennifer A. Morin as Successor Trustee to serve as Trustee under this Trust Agreement.

(B) RESIGNATION OR REMOVAL OF TRUSTEES

1. Resignation. Any Trustee of any trust created by this agreement may resign from office at any time by giving notice in writing to Grantor during his lifetime, and after Grantor's death by giving notice in writing delivered in person to or mailed to the last known address of any co-trustee and each beneficiary then receiving or who would then be eligible in the discretion of the Trustee to receive the income of such trust. Such resignation shall be effective upon the acceptance of the trusteeship by a properly designated successor trustee. Notice shall be effectively given in the case of a beneficiary who is a minor or under a legal disability if given to the parent, guardian or other person or institution having custody of such beneficiary.

2. Incapacity of Individual Trustees. If a personal physician of any individual Trustee shall state in writing that, in his opinion, such Trustee is physically or mentally incapacitated to such an extent that he is unable to give prompt and intelligent attention to Trust affairs, and if all of the other Trustees, if any, shall concur in writing in the physician's opinion, then, whether or not such Trustee may have been adjudicated or certified an incompetent person, such Trustee shall be deemed to have resigned effective upon the filing in the trust records of the physician's statement and any required concurring opinions.

(C) REMOVAL OF TRUSTEES

1. Power to Remove. After Grantor's death or during any period of Grantor's incapacity, as hereinbefore provided, the Trustee of any trust may at any time be removed by Grantor's spouse, during her lifetime, and, after her death, by all of the adult beneficiaries currently eligible to receive the income of such Trust, except an adult beneficiary serving as Trustee. To be effective, such removal may be by written notice signed by Grantor's spouse, or by all such beneficiaries, as the case may be, and delivered to the removed Trustee.

2. Removal. Upon the removal of any Trustee, if no successor trustee is designated, as hereinbefore provided, or if the designated successor is for any reason unable or unwilling to act, the person or persons by whom such Trustee was removed shall have power to designate a successor trustee, individual or corporate. To be effective, such designation shall be by written notice signed by the person or persons exercising such power of designation and delivered to the designated successor.

(D) POWERS OF SUCCESSOR TRUSTEES

Every successor or substitute trustee shall have all the title, rights, powers, privileges and duties herein conferred or imposed upon the original trustee without any act of conveyance or transfer. No successor trustee shall be obligated to examine the accounts, records and acts of any previous trustee or any allocation of the trust estate, nor shall such successor trustee be required to proceed against a previous trustee for any act or omission to act on the part of such previous trustee.

(E) NON CONTRACTUAL PROVISION

Although this Trust has reciprocal provisions with the Trust of Grantor's spouse, these Trusts are not contractual and shall not be interpreted as such.

VII. TRUSTEE'S POWERS

Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, my Trustee, in connection with the administration of the trust estate, shall not be liable for good faith mistakes of law or of fact or for good faith errors of judgment, but shall be liable only for gross, wanton, or willful misconduct in the performance of the duties as Trustee, or for failure to exercise that degree of honesty, good faith, and fair dealing which fiduciary-Trustees are by law required to exercise toward trust beneficiaries.

E. Suits. In the event any suit shall be threatened or instituted by any person against my Trustee, based upon, pertaining to, or concerning any act of misfeasance or nonfeasance allegedly committed or neglected by my Trustee, in the performance of the duties and powers under this trust, and in the further event that my Trustee is adjudicated or is otherwise demonstrated, to the satisfaction of the District or other court possessing jurisdiction of the trust estate, to be not liable in such respect, then my Trustee shall be entitled to be reimbursed out of the trust estate for any and all reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by my Trustee in resisting any such suit or claim.

H. Investments by Trustee. The Trustee shall be authorized to invest the Trust Estate in such stocks, bonds, notes and other securities or property, real or personal, including shares or interests in investment trusts and common trust funds, as the Trustee may deem advisable.

I. Application of Money. No person who purchases property from the trust estate, loans money or pays or discharges any obligation, liability, or debt thereto, or who has any dealing of whatsoever kind or nature with my Trustee which results in paying, assigning, or otherwise transferring or delivering any money or property, of whatever kind or character, to my Trustee, shall be required to look to the application or disposition of the funds or property so received by my Trustee or be in any manner responsible for the application or disposition thereby by my Trustee.
