B. Limitation on Agent’s Power. Any power or authority granted to my agent herein shall be limited so as to prevent this power of attorney from causing my agent to be taxed on my income and from causing my assets and estate to be subject to a “general power of appointment” by my agent, as that term is defined in Section 2041 and Section 2514 of the IRC, as amended. No agent shall have any power or authority whatsoever with respect to any policy of insurance owned by me on the life of the agent, or any trust created by the agent as to which I am a trustee.

Section V
Nomination of Conservator or Guardian

B. Relation of Agent to Court Appointed Fiduciary. If a court appoints a conservator of my estate or other fiduciary charged with the management of all of my property or all of my property except specified exclusions, the agent, during the period of such appointment, shall account to such fiduciary and me. In such event, the fiduciary shall have the same power to revoke or amend this power of attorney that I would have had if I were not disabled, incompetent or incapacitated.

Section VI
Miscellaneous

A. Reliance. Any person (including my agent) may rely upon the validity of this power of attorney unless the person has actual knowledge that (i) the power of attorney is void, invalid, or terminated; (ii) the agent's authority is void, invalid or terminated, or (iii) the agent is exceeding or improperly exercising the agent's authority.

B. Termination of Power of Attorney. This power of attorney shall terminate (i) upon my death; (ii) if revoked by me or by a fiduciary appointed by a court for me, or (iii) if I revoke the agent's authority hereunder (or the agent dies, becomes incapacitated, or resigns) and this power of attorney does not provide for a successor agent to act hereunder.

C. Termination of Agent's Authority. An agent's authority shall terminate (i) I revoke the authority, (ii) the agent dies, becomes incapacitated, or resigns, (iii) if my spouse is my agent, if an action is filed for the divorce or annulment of our marriage or our legal separation, and (iv) the power of attorney terminates under paragraph B of this Section.

D. Resignation of Agent. An agent may resign by giving notice to me. If I am incapacitated such notice may be given (i) to the conservator, or guardian if there is no conservator, if either has been appointed for me, and to any co-agent or successor agent; or (ii) if there is no person described in (i), then to my caregiver, another person reasonably believed by the agent to have sufficient interest in my welfare, or a governmental agency having authority to protect my welfare.

E. Authority of Successor Agent. A successor agent shall have the same authority as that granted to the original agent. A successor agent shall not act until all predecessor agents to such successor have resigned, died, become incapacitated, are no longer qualified to serve, or have declined to serve.

F. Reimbursement and No Compensation. The agent shall be entitled to reimbursement of expenses reasonably incurred on my behalf. Neither my agent nor any successor agent shall be entitled to compensation for services rendered.

G. Photocopy. A photocopy or electronically transmitted copy of this original power of attorney shall have the same effect as the original. The agent may use such copy for the purpose of presenting notice of this power of attorney and the power of the agent to act hereunder.

H. Interpretation and Governing Law. This power of attorney shall be construed and interpreted as a general durable power of attorney. Except as otherwise provided herein, the enumeration of specific powers herein is not intended to, nor does it, limit or restrict the general powers herein granted to my agent. The meaning and effect of this power of attorney shall be determined by the law of the State of Alabama. The Alabama Uniform Power of Attorney Act shall govern all questions as to the validity of this power of attorney and the construction of its provisions.
