

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

of

JUDITH ANN SMITH

I, JUDITH ANN SMITH domiciled in Shelby County, Alabama, being eighteen (18) years of age or older, being of sound and disposing mind and memory hereby make, publish and declare this instrument as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all prior wills and codicils, heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE ONE

Payment of Debts, Administration Fees and Taxes

As soon as practicable after my death, I direct my Executor to pay the following items out of my probate estate: (1) the expenses of my last illness; (2) my funeral and burial expenses, including the costs of any grave marker or tombstone; (3) the expenses of administering my estate, including the reasonable expenses of safekeeping and delivery of estate property; and (4) my debts, except such debts of mine secured by pledge, mortgage or other security interest not by their terms due at my death that my Executor may deem unnecessary or undesirable to pay.

I direct that all income tax imposed upon the income of my estate, or transfer, estate, inheritance, succession and other death taxes which shall become payable by reason of property passing under this Will at my death shall be paid as an administration expense, without apportionment, out of the balance of my probate estate as defined in the Code.

ARTICLE FOUR

Appointment of Personal Representative

I appoint my son, GREGORY EUGENE SMITH to be my Executor of this my Last Will and Testament. I vest in my Executors (whether one or more) herein named full power and authority to handle the matters set forth in this Will as freely as I could act if I were living. Such power and authority may be exercised independently and without the prior of subsequent approval or any court or judicial authority. No one dealing with my Executor shall be required to inquire into the propriety of any action taken by my Executor. No Executor of mine shall be required (i) to make any bond for the faithful performance of any duties conferred upon such Executor by this Will or otherwise; or (ii) to make or file, for or in any court, any report, inventory, appraisement, settlement or accounting.

ARTICLE FIVE

Definitions and Miscellaneous Items

In construing the provisions of this Will, including without limitation the terms of any trust created hereunder, the following principles and terms shall be applicable:

(a) The benefits provided under this Will for my named beneficiaries or issue are in lieu and in bar of all other rights, interests and claims against my estate, regardless of whether such rights are created as a result of statutory or constitutional exemptions, allowances or otherwise.

(b) It is my desire to reduce the expenses of administration of my estate as much as possible, and to permit a settlement of my estate by consent which shall be effective with respect to each beneficiary hereof, by taking advantage of the provisions allowing settlement by consent without notice pursuant to the Code of Alabama § 43-2-506 (1975), as amended.

(c) Whenever in this instrument the word "Executor," or "Executors" is used, such word is to be construed as singular or plural, masculine, feminine, or neuter, whichever is proper in accordance with the context in which said word is used.

(d) In this Will, the term "my probate estate" shall mean all property, real or personal wheresoever situated that I own at my death.

ARTICLE SIX

Intentional Uneven Distribution of Estate

All bequests made in this Will, and any and all omissions of persons from this Will, have been intentionally made by me. I have given much consideration to my personal relationships with my beneficiaries named herein and the persons or family members of mine who may not be named as beneficiaries herein, and the contents of this Will are my absolute wishes and direction in the disposition of my estate. I have not been unduly influenced by any person in connection with my decisions regarding any bequest made in this Will. It is my intention and direction that should any person or family member who is not satisfied with my express wishes hereunder challenge the validity or enforceability of this Will, such person shall not take any part of my estate, and shall, to every extent legally possible, be assessed the reasonable costs and expenses paid by my Executor or other beneficiaries hereunder, to defend the validity of this Will and my wishes and intentions hereunder.
