ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF JD COMPANY, INC.

The undersigned, Jill J. Dunning, being over the age of nineteen (19) and acting as incorporator of a corporation under the Alabama Business Corporation Act, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation is JD COMPANY, INC.

ARTICLE II

The address of the Corporation's initial registered office in the State of Alabama is 4718 Sandpiper Lane, Hoover, Alabama 35244, and the name of its registered agent at such address is Jill J. Dunning. The County of the registered agent is Shelby.

ARTICLE III

The principal office of the Corporation is 4718 Sandpiper Lane, Hoover, AL 35244. The principal office is located in Shelby County, Alabama.

ARTICLE IV

The period of its duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE V

The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

- A. To operate, conduct, and maintain a business engaged in any legal business activity allowed pursuant to the Code of Alabama and Alabama Constitution, and to otherwise transact any or all other lawful business activities for which corporations may be organized under the Alabama Business Corporation Act;

- B. Subject to the provisions of the Alabama Business Corporation Act, to buy or otherwise acquire, own, hold, manage, subdivide, and control real and personal property of every description, and to sell and convey, mortgage, pledge, lease or otherwise dispose of such property or any part thereof;
- C. To do everything necessary, proper and advisable or convenient of the accomplishment of the purposes herein above set forth and to do all other things incidental thereto or connected therewith which are not forbidden by the Alabama Business Corporation Act;
- D. Subject to any specified limitations or restrictions imposed by the Alabama Business Corporation Act, or by other applicable law or by these Articles of Incorporation, and in furtherance thereof, the Corporation shall have and exercise all of the statutory powers specified in Section 10-2A-20 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act.

ARTICLE VI

The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue is one thousand (1,000) with a par value of one and no/100 ($1.00) Dollar each. The distribution of stock shall be one thousand (1,000) shares to Jill J. Dunning. Each shareholder may have his, her or its shares issued (a) in his, her or its individual name, or (b) in the names of two or more persons as joint tenants with right of survivorship and not as tenants in common, or (c) as tenants in common.

ARTICLE VII

The current number of directors constituting the Board of Directors of the corporation is one (1), and the name and address of the person who is to serve as Director until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until his successors are elected and shall qualify are:

NAME	OFFICE	ADDRESS
Jill J. Dunning	President	4918 Sandpiper Lane Hoover, AL 35244

Notwithstanding any contrary provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation, the Shareholders holding the majority of outstanding common stock of the Corporation may remove all or any of the Directors of the Corporation, before the expiration of their terms, at any regular or special Shareholders' meeting.

ARTICLE VIII

The corporate powers shall be exercised by the Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided by statute, by these Articles of Incorporation, or the Bylaws hereinafter adopted, and any amendments to the foregoing.

In furtherance, and not in limitation, of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized:

- a) To make and alter the Bylaws of this Corporation, but Bylaws so made by the Directors may be altered or repealed by the Directors or Shareholders;
- b) To fix and determine and to vary the amount of working capital of the Corporation, to determine whether any, if any, or what part of any accumulated profits shall be declared and paid as dividends, to determine the date or dates for the declaration and payment of dividends, to direct and determine the use and disposition of any surplus or net profit over and above the capital stock paid in;
- c) To make, from time to time (so as may be permitted by law) temporarily secured or unsecured loans, when, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, at the time the money is so loaned it is not required to conduct the business of the Corporation.

The Corporation may, in its Bylaws, confer powers upon its Board of Directors in addition to the foregoing and in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon it by statute.

ARTICLE IX

The Corporation shall have and may exercise any and all powers which a corporation incorporated under the Alabama Business Corporation Act may have and exercise. Without in any way limiting the foregoing, this corporation shall have the power to endorse, or otherwise guarantee, or become a surety with respect to, or obligate itself for, or without becoming liable therefore, nevertheless, to pledge or mortgage all or any part of its properties to secure the payment of the principal of, and interest on, or either thereof, any bonds, including construction or performance bonds, debentures, notes, script, coupons, contracts or other obligations or evidences of indebtedness, or the performance of any contract, lease, construction, performance or other bond, mortgage, or obligation of any other corporation or association, domestic or foreign, or any firm, partnership, joint venture, or other person whatsoever, in which this corporation may have a lawful interest, or on account of, or with respect to, any transaction in which this corporation shall receive any lawful consideration, advantage or benefit, on any account whatsoever. Irrespective of any profit, consideration, if any, irrespective of the relative net worth of the corporation, associations, or persons involved, and of the relative amounts of obligations involved, this corporation shall be deemed to have a lawful interest in any corporation, association, or person (A) which owns stock in this corporation, or (B) which owns stock in another corporation, which owns stock in this corporation, or (C) in which this corporation owns stock, or (D) in which another corporation owns stock, and this corporation owns stock in it, or (E) in which any one or more persons who own stock in this corporation also own stock, or (F) which or who has entered into any contractual arrangement pursuant to which any such corporation or person undertakes corresponding or like obligations of endorsement, guarantee, or suretyship, with respect to all or any such obligations, evidences of indebtedness, or contracts of this corporation, or which may engage with this corporation, in the conduct of any joint venture or enterprise, or in the use of common facilities or services.

ARTICLE X

The Corporation may from time to time issue its shares of stock for such consideration (but not less than par so long as the Corporation is solvent), as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors, and may receive in payment thereof, in whole or in part, cash, labor done, personal property, or real property, or leases thereof. In the absence of actual fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the Board of Directors as to the value of such labor, property, real estate or leases thereof, shall be conclusive. Any and all shares so issued for the consideration so fixed shall be deemed fully paid stock and shall not be liable to any further call or assessment thereon, and the holders of such shares shall not be liable for any further payment in respect thereof.

This Corporation may, from time to time, lawfully enter into any agreement to which all, or less than all, the holders of record of the issued and outstanding shares of its capital stock shall be parties, restricting the transfer of any and all shares of its capital stock represented by certificates therefore.

ARTICLE XI

The Corporation shall have a lien on its shares of stock for any debt of liability incurred to it by a Shareholder, before notice of a transfer of levy on such shares.

ARTICLE XII

The Corporation shall have the right to purchase, take, receive, or otherwise acquire, hold, own, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of its shares, but purchases of its own shares, whether direct or indirect, shall be made only to the extent of earned surplus or capital surplus available therefore.

ARTICLE XIII

All persons who shall acquire stock in this Corporation shall acquire it subject to the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation as the same from time to time may hereafter be amended. So far as not otherwise expressly provided by the laws of the State of Alabama, the Corporation shall be entitled to treat the person or entity in whose name any share of stock is registered as the owner thereof for all purposes and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in said share on the part of any other person, whether or not the Corporation shall have notice thereof.

ARTICLE XIV

Every person (and the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person) who is or was an officer, director, or employee of this Corporation, or of any other corporation which he or she served as such, at the request of this Corporation, and of which this Corporation directly or indirectly is a Shareholder or creditor of, or in the stocks, bonds, securities, or other obligations of which it is in any way interested, may in accordance with the second paragraph of this Article be indemnified by the Corporation against any and all liability and reasonable expense that may be incurred by him or her in connection with or resulting from any claim, action, suit or proceeding (whether brought by or against the Corporation and/or said individual or in the right of the Corporation or such other company or otherwise), civil or criminal, or in connection with an appeal relating thereto, in which he or she may become involved, as a party or otherwise, by reason of his or her being or having been or having been an officer, director, or employee of the Corporation or such other corporation, or by reason of any action taken or not taken, or not taken by him or her in such liability or expense shall have been incurred, provided he or she acted in good faith in what he or she reasonably believed to be the best interests of the Corporation or such other corporation, as the case may be, and in addition, in any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. As used herein, the term "liability" and "expense" shall include, but shall not be limited to, counsel fees and disbursements and amounts of judgments, fines or penalties against, and amounts paid and settlements by or for such person. The termination of any claim, action, suit or proceeding, civil or criminal by judgment, settlement (whether with or without court approval) or conviction shall not create a presumption that such a person does not meet the standards of conduct set forth herein.

Any indemnification hereunder shall be made at the discretion of the Corporation, but only if the Board of Directors (with no Director who is a party to or interested in such claim, action, suit or proceeding, participating) shall find that such person has met the standards of conduct set forth in the preceding paragraph. If two thirds or more of the Board of Directors are parties to or are interested in such claim, action, suit, or proceeding, the regular counsel for the Corporation shall determine whether such person has met such standards.

Expenses incurred with respect to any such claim, action, suit, or proceeding may be advanced by the Corporation prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by or behalf of such person to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is entitled to indemnification hereunder.

The rights of indemnification provided in this Article shall be in addition to any rights to which any such person may otherwise be entitled under the laws of the State of Alabama, and Bylaws, agreement vote of Shareholders, or otherwise.

ARTICLE XV

The private property of the Shareholders shall not be subject to payment of corporate debts to any extent whatsoever.

ARTICLE XVI

The Shareholders of said Corporation shall have the right to increase or decrease the capital stock to such sum or sums as they may desire.

ARTICLE XVII

The Directors and/or Shareholders may waive, in writing, any requirement under the laws of the State of Alabama (where law permits such waiver) for the holding of a formal meeting with respect to any business of the Corporation by resolution executed or consented to in writing by all of the Directors and/or Shareholders without the formality of a meeting, which resolution when so executed or consented to shall be valid and binding on the Corporation in the same manner as if a meeting had been called with respect to such action and notice issued, as provided by the laws of the State of Alabama.

ARTICLE XVIII

The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner, now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred on Shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

ARTICLE XIX

The name and address of the incorporator is:
