

DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR FINANCIAL MANAGEMENTWARNING TO PERSON EXECUTING THIS DOCUMENT - THE POWERS YOU GRANT BELOW
CONTINUE TO BE EFFECTIVE SHOULD YOU BECOME DISABLED OR INCOMPETENT

CAUTION: This is an important legal document and upon proper execution will create a Durable Power of Attorney. This gives the person whom you designate as your attorney-in-fact broad powers to handle your property during your lifetime, which may include powers to mortgage, sell, or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property without advance notice to you or approval by you.

These powers will continue to exist even if you become disabled or incompetent. You do have the right to terminate or revoke the power of attorney and any or all powers granted within at any time up to the point of your incapacity.

This document does not authorize anyone to make medical or other health care decisions. You may execute a health care proxy (also known as a health care or medical power of attorney) to do this.

If there is anything about this document that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer to explain it to you.

Instructions for Executing your Power of Attorney

Before signing your Power of Attorney, ensure you have read it and understand your document.

To be valid, you must sign the document with your usual check signing signature. You should also initial each page of the document. The signing and the initialing of the pages must occur in the presence of your notary or witness(es). For every power that you have given to your Attorney-in-fact you must write your initials in the space provided. If this is not done it may affect the validity of your document.

After you have signed and initialed your document in front of your notary or witness(es), your notary or witness(es) must sign on the applicable page of the Power of Attorney and should initial each page. This must occur in the presence of you.

Most jurisdictions require that a Power of Attorney be signed before a Notary Public if it is durable or grants power over land or property. Some jurisdictions also require that witnesses be present. Even if they are not required for your state it is often recommended to have witnesses to make the document more acceptable to those that will have to deal with it. Those jurisdictions that do not require that the Power of Attorney be signed in front of a notary usually require that two witnesses are used. Even if a notary is not required it is still often recommended.

Remember that your witness(es) cannot be your spouse, partner, child, your attorney or alternate attorney, or the spouse of your attorney or alternate attorney. Some jurisdictions disallow witnesses that are mentioned in your will, either as beneficiary or executor/executrix. You should generally avoid having witnesses that have any financial relationship with you. The witness(es) must be of legal age in your jurisdiction, they must have capacity and be mentally capable of managing their property and making their own decisions.

If your Power of Attorney will be used to transfer real property (land) your Attorney-in-fact will likely need to have the document recorded in order for the Power of Attorney to be recognized. This takes place at the land registry office in the jurisdiction where the real property (land) is located.
