Dorothy Stanton CLERK & MASTER

AMENDMENT TO FINAL ORDER OF DIVORCE

This matter came to be heard on the 31st day of July, 2015, upon Defendant's Motion to Alter or Amend the Final Decree and Plaintiff's Motion for Contempt. Present before the Court were the parties and their respective counsel. Upon statements of the parties, argument of counsel, and a review of the record as a whole, the Court hereby finds and orders as follows:

1. This order shall constitute an amendment to the Final Decree previously filed in this matter.

2. The Court finds that the Tennessee property purchased by the Wife during the marriage was, and shall remain her separate property. The evidence is such that this property was purchased with Wife's separate funds which had not been commingled, and that Husband did not significantly contribute to any appreciation of the value of the property.

3. Ms. West is to immediately sign and execute a quitclaim deed relinquishing her interest in Mr. Crosby's Alabama home as previously ordered.

4. Ms. West may travel to Alabama on August 15th to obtain her separate property previously awarded in the final decree for divorce.

5. Mr. Crosby shall obtain an appraisal of the Alabama farm property within one week from today, and provide proof to opposing counsel that an appraisal has been completed. From thus information, Mr. West shall be able to ascertain whether he will be able to purchase Ms. West's interest in the land from her as previously stated in the final decree. If proof of an appraisal is not provided on this date, the land shall be sold at auction and each party shall collect their respective interest according to the final decree.

6. Ms. What's Motion for Contempt is tabled at this time.

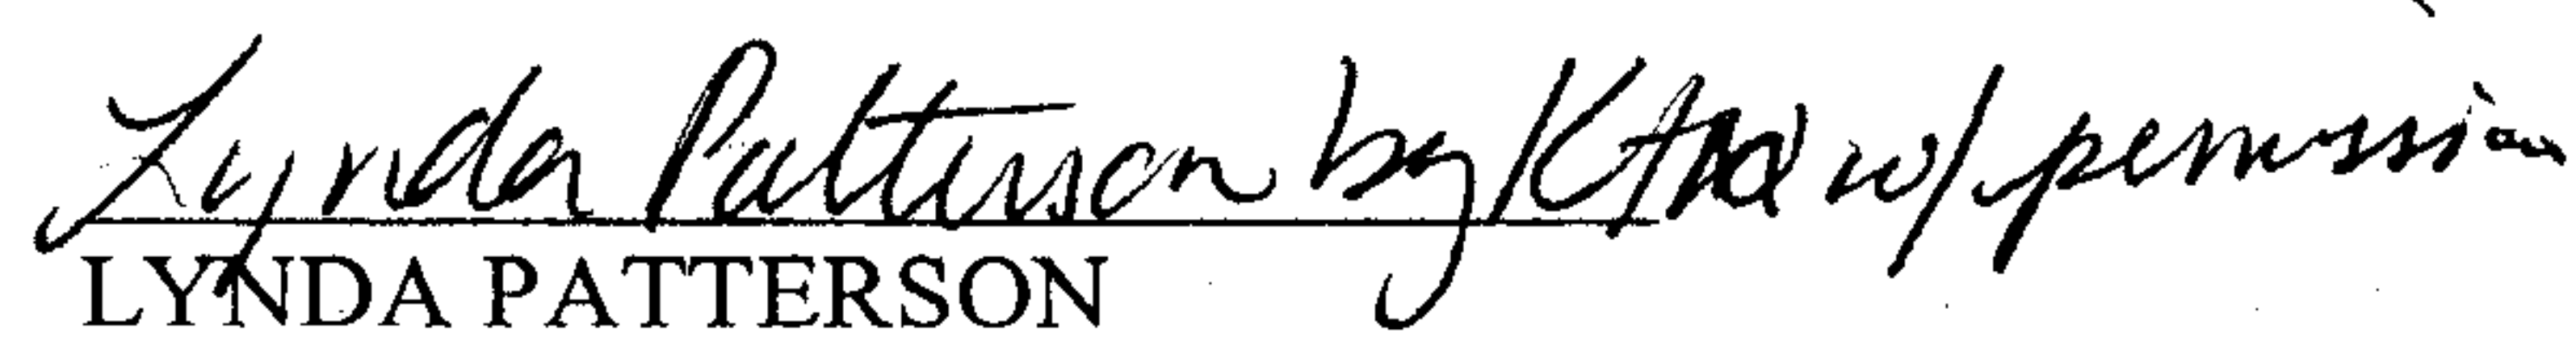

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Entered this the 7th day of August, 2015.
