Dear Mr. and Mrs. Price:

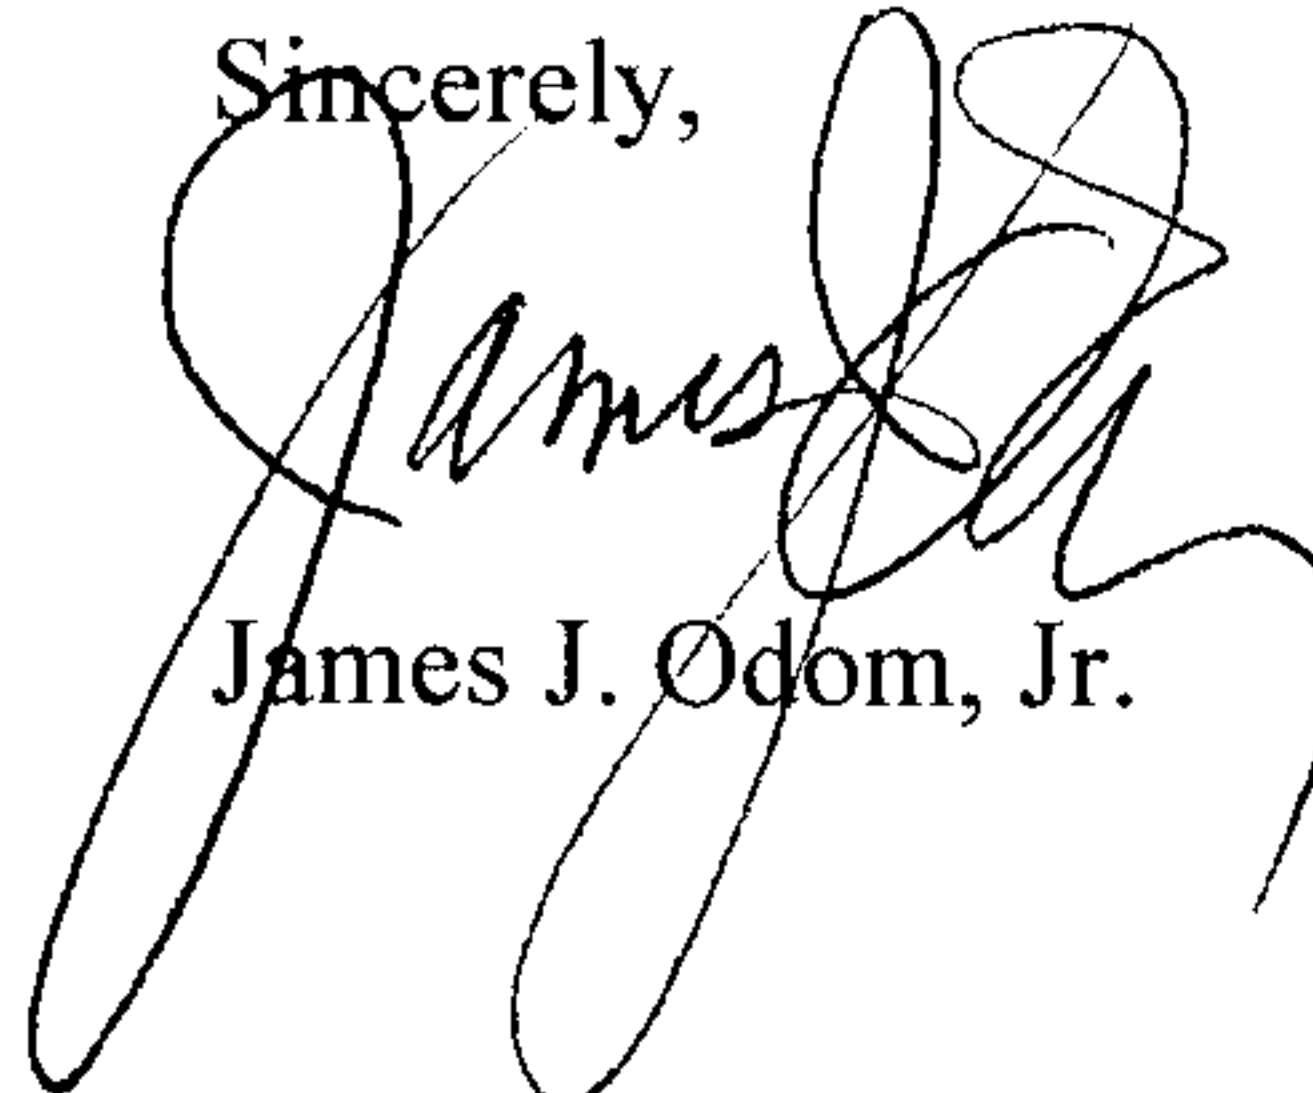

I represent Lucille McGaughy, who has asked that I send you this Warning Against Trespass and Communications, and Trespass After Warning. You are hereby warned that you have no right, either express or implied in any form to enter upon or to remain in any place upon which this notice of trespass is given, at any time whatsoever, and for whatever purpose. Specifically, you are advised that you are not licensed or privileged to enter or remain upon property located at 206 Hillwood Drive, Alabaster, Alabama 35007.

Should you not adhere to this notice in this matter, Ms. McGaughy will pursue remedies that are available to her, including criminal prosecution for harassment or harassing communications according to Alabama Code §13A-11-8, and for Alabama Code §13A-7-1, et seq., trespass after warning.

Ms. McGaughy and the following members of her household (Shannon Moore, Julie Moore, Tiffany Moore, Brooklyn Moore, her fiancé, Nick Hutchings, Jessica Moore, Aimee Moore and Trinity Moore), request to have no contact with or from you whatsoever by any type of communication, including but not limited to telephone, cell phone, text messages, electronic mail, postal mail, letters, notes, mail, etc., or charges may be filed against you.

You have been warned; being so advised, govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely,

James J. Odom, Jr.
