A. Number and Gender. Unless the context indicates a contrary intent, the plural and singular forms of words shall each include the other, and every noun and pronoun shall have a meaning that includes the masculine, feminine and neuter genders.

B. Survival. To "survive" me, as that term is used in this Will, a person must continue to live for thirty (30) days after my death.

C. Descendants. The "descendants" of an individual include only the following:

1. All such individual's biological descendants, except any person not born in lawful wedlock and his descendants, unless the biological parent who would otherwise cause him or her to be a descendant has acknowledged paternity or maternity in legitimation proceedings, or in an unambiguous signed writing identifying such person by name, or by raising such person in the same household; and
2. Persons adopted by such individual or one of his or her descendants, and their descendants.

If the parent, who would cause a person to be a descendant as defined above, is replaced in an adoption proceeding, such person shall remain a descendant unless such parent voluntarily consents to the relinquishment of his or her status as parent in connection with such adoption proceedings.

D. Heirs. The term "heirs" shall mean those persons entitled to inherit under the then-applicable laws of the State of Alabama governing the descent of an intestate's separate estate. They shall inherit in their statutory proportions. If the provisions of this Will call for a distribution of property to my heirs or the heirs of any other person and the event giving rise to the requirement for such distribution takes place at a time later than my death or the death of such person, the determination of the identity of such heirs shall be made as if I (or such other person) had died on the date of the event giving rise to such requirement for distribution.

E. Exclusion of Pretermitted Heirs. Other than as set forth in this Will, I make no provision for any child of mine or descendant of a deceased child of mine. I specifically make no provision for any person (whether now living or hereafter born), other than a child named or referred to in Article I or a descendant of mine as defined in this Will, who may be entitled to claim an interest in my estate under the laws of the State of Alabama.

F. Legal Disability. A person is under a legal disability if my personal representative determines, in good faith, that the person is incapable of managing his property or of caring for himself, or both, or is in need of protection or assistance by reason of physical injury or illness, mental illness, developmental disability, senility, alcoholism, excessive use of drugs, or other physical or mental incapacity.

G. Title to Real Property. Upon my death, title to any real property passing under this Will shall vest in my personal representative in his fiduciary capacity and shall remain so vested until my personal representative distributes or sells that property, at which time title shall vest in the distributee or purchaser.

H. Disclaimer. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided in this Will, in the event that any beneficiary disclaims an interest arising out of this Will or any trust created herein it is my intention that the interest disclaimed shall be distributed in the same manner and at the same time as if the disclaiming beneficiary had died immediately preceding the event pursuant to the laws of the State of Alabama.

I. Governing Law. The provisions of this Will shall be interpreted in accordance with and in light of the laws of the State of Alabama.

J. Corporate Successors. Whenever a corporation or other business entity is referred to herein, the reference shall include any successor organization.
