If I have a power of appointment with respect to such property, then I hereby exercise such power of appointment in favor of my estate to the extent necessary for my estate to recover such taxes.

(2) Payment of Remaining Taxes. All other estate taxes shall be charged against and paid out of the residue of my estate.

(3) Property Exonerated from Taxes. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, no estate taxes shall be charged against or paid out of (i) any adjusted taxable gifts (within the meaning of Section 2001 of the Internal Revenue Code) and (ii) the specific devises set forth in ARTICLE IV of my Will.

ARTICLE X
GENERAL PROVISIONS

(a) Form of Distributions. Distributions from my estate and the division of my estate shall be made in the sole discretion of my Personal Representative in cash, in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind, on a pro rata basis or on a non-pro rata basis, including undivided interests in property, without regard to the basis for income tax purposes of any property so distributed or divided in kind. It is my intention that my Personal Representative may choose which assets shall be used to fund such distribution or such separate shares without being required to fund a distribution or share with a pro rata portion of each asset. No adjustment between principal and income, nor any other adjustment, shall be required as the result of any such decision. Such distributions and divisions and the values therefor established by my Personal Representative shall be final and binding on all persons.

(b) Payment of Pecuniary Gifts. Irrespective of any provision of law to the contrary, my Personal Representative, in the absolute and uncontrolled judgment and discretion of my Personal Representative, shall satisfy the pecuniary gifts made in this Will at such time or times as my Personal Representative shall determine, and neither my Personal Representative nor my estate shall be liable for any interest that might otherwise be due on any such pecuniary gifts not satisfied within some period of time established by law.

(c) Delegation to Co-Personal Representative. My Personal Representative from time to time may delegate any of its powers and duties (whether such powers and duties are discretionary or ministerial) and any of its discretion to any Co-Personal Representative not precluded hereunder or by law from exercising or discharging that power, duty, or discretion, and may revoke the delegation at any time.

(d) Facility of Payment. Any payment hereunder to or for any beneficiary may, in the discretion of the Personal Representative may be made to any person or organization (including the beneficiary, the conservator of the beneficiary, the guardian of the beneficiary, or anyone having custody and care of the beneficiary, or who provides goods or services for him or her), who shall apply such payment for the use and benefit of the beneficiary as provided for hereunder. Such distributions may also be made to a custodian selected by the Personal Representative for the beneficiary under a Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar applicable law.

(e) Bond and Inventory Not Required. I direct that my Personal Representative shall not be required to give bond or to file an inventory or appraisal of my estate or share thereof in any court, though the Personal Representative shall make out and keep an inventory and shall exhibit the same to any party in interest at any reasonable time, and I direct that the Personal Representative shall be free from the control and supervision of any court.

(f) Ancillary Administration. If it becomes necessary to have administration of my estate in any state in which my Personal Representative shall not be qualified to serve, my Personal Representative may nominate and appoint any person or organization as ancillary administrator thereof, and may compensate such administrator for said services. Such administrator shall complete the administration and make such disposition of the property so administered as my Personal Representative may require, and in doing so shall have the same rights, powers, duties and discretion herein conferred upon my Personal Representative.

(g) Compensation. No individual serving as Personal Representative hereunder shall receive compensation for such individual's services.

(h) Environmental Losses and Powers. No Personal Representative shall be liable for any loss or depreciation in value sustained by my estate as a result of the Personal Representative retaining any property upon which there is later discovered to be hazardous materials or substances requiring remedial action pursuant to any federal, state or local environmental law, unless the Personal Representative contributed to the loss or depreciation in value through willful default, willful misconduct, or negligence. My Personal Representative and any successor thereto shall have full power to (i) conduct environmental assessments, audits, and site monitoring to determine compliance with any environmental law or regulation thereunder; (ii) take all appropriate remedial action to contain, clean up or remove any environmental hazard including a spill, release, discharge or contamination, either on its own accord or in response to an actual or threatened violation of any environmental law or regulation thereunder; (iii) institute legal proceedings concerning environmental hazards or contest or settle legal proceedings brought by any local, state or federal agency concerned with environmental compliance, or by a private litigant; (iv) comply with any local, state or federal agency order or court order directing an assessment, abatement or cleanup of any environmental hazards; and (v) employ agents, consultants and legal counsel to assist or perform the above undertakings or actions.

(i) Incapacity. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, an individual shall be deemed to be incapacitated if the individual is unable to manage property and business affairs effectively for such reasons as illness, mental deficiency, disability, infirmities accompanying advanced age, or other cause, such incapacity to be determined by two physicians who have examined or treated the individual and to be expressed in a written statement to that effect signed by such physicians. The foregoing shall not be the sole method of or standard for determining incapacity, it being my intent that incapacity may also be determined in any manner provided by law. Upon the commencement of an inquiry into the possible incapacity of an individual, the individual or the individual's guardian or conservator shall upon request provide within thirty (30) days his or her written authorization of the use and disclosure of the individual's individually identifiable health information and other medical records, including the expression of the physicians' opinions regarding the individual's capacity or incapacity as herein described, in the manner required by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1986.
