STATE OF ALABAMA

COUNTY OF SHELBY

This Certification of Trust is signed by all the currently acting Successor Co Trustees of the Joseph Allen Lowman, Jr. Revocable Living Trust, dated October 2, 2007, and restate on October 29, 2015, who declare as follows:

4. Power of Trustees: Section 12.06; My Trustee may sell at public or private sale, transfer, exchange for other property, and otherwise dispose of trust property for consideration and upon terms and conditions that my Trustee deems advisable. My Trustee may grant options of any duration for any sales, exchanges or transfers of Trust property. My Trustee may enter into contracts, and may deliver deeds or other instruments, that my Trustee considers appropriate.
5. Said Trust is irrevocable upon the death of Dr. Joseph A. Lowman.
6. N/A
7. Power of Co Trustees:

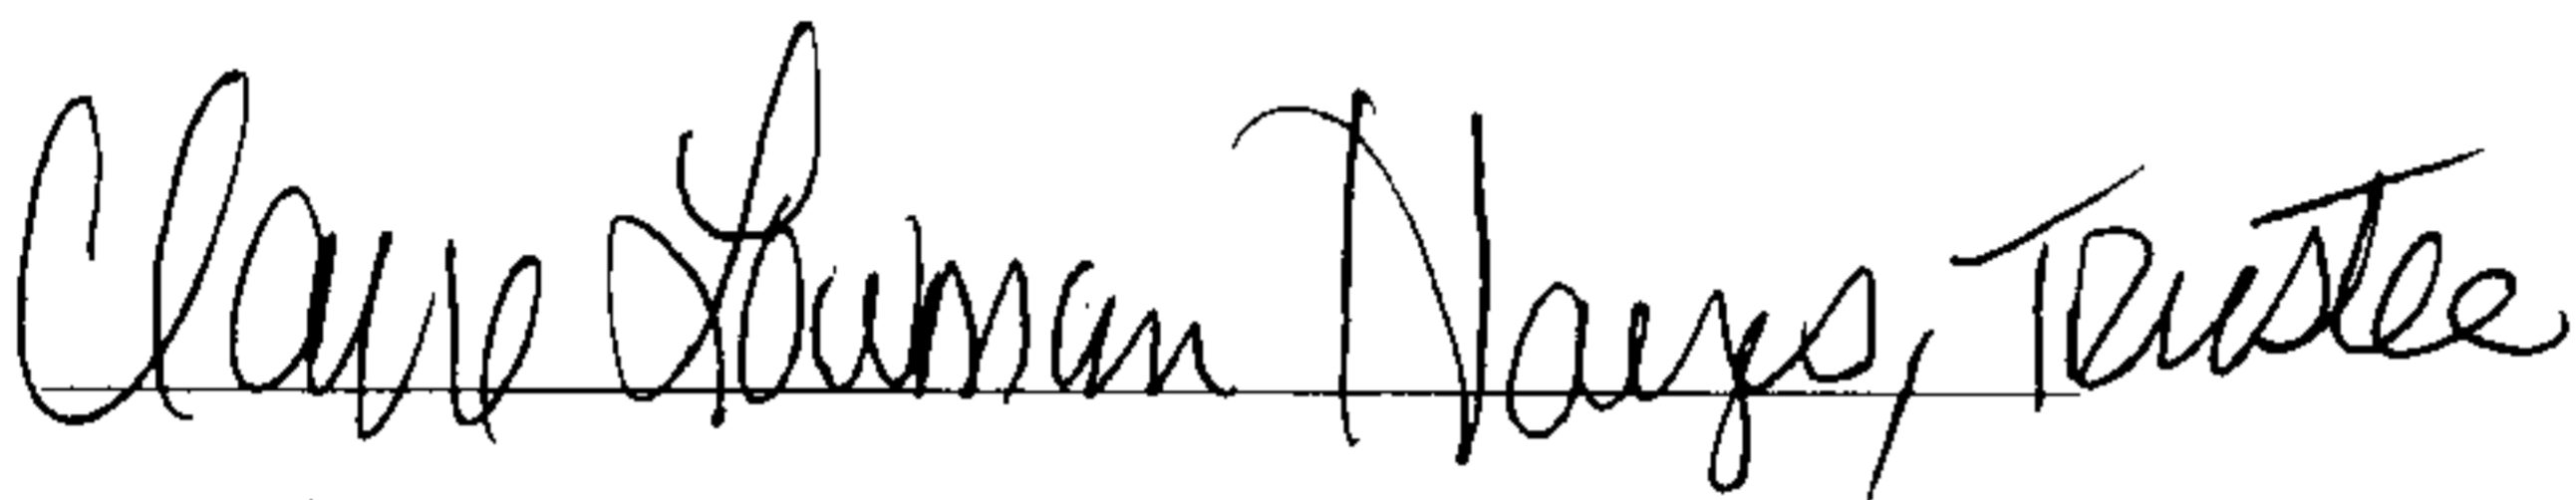

Section 11:15; When I am not serving as Trustee, if two Trustees are eligible to act with respect to a given matter, they must agree unanimously for action to be taken unless the express terms of the Trustees' appointment provide otherwise. If more than two Trustees are eligible to act with respect to a given matter, the Trustees must agree by majority for action to be taken. A nonconcurring Trustee may dissent or abstain from a decision of the majority. A Trustee will be absolved from personal liability by registering the dissent or abstention in the Trust records. After doing so, the dissenting Trustee must then act with my other Trustees in any way necessary or appropriate to effect the majority decision. Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 12.26, any Trustee may, by written instrument, delegate to any other Trustee the right to exercise any power, including a discretionary power, granted to my Trustee in this Trust. During the time a delegation under this Section is in effect, the Trustee to whom the delegation is made may exercise the power to the same extent as if the delegating Trustee has personally joined in the exercise of power. The delegating Trustee may revoke the delegation at any time by giving written notice to the Trustee to whom the power was delegated.

A handwritten signature, possibly "C. H. S. C.", is written in the bottom right corner of the page.

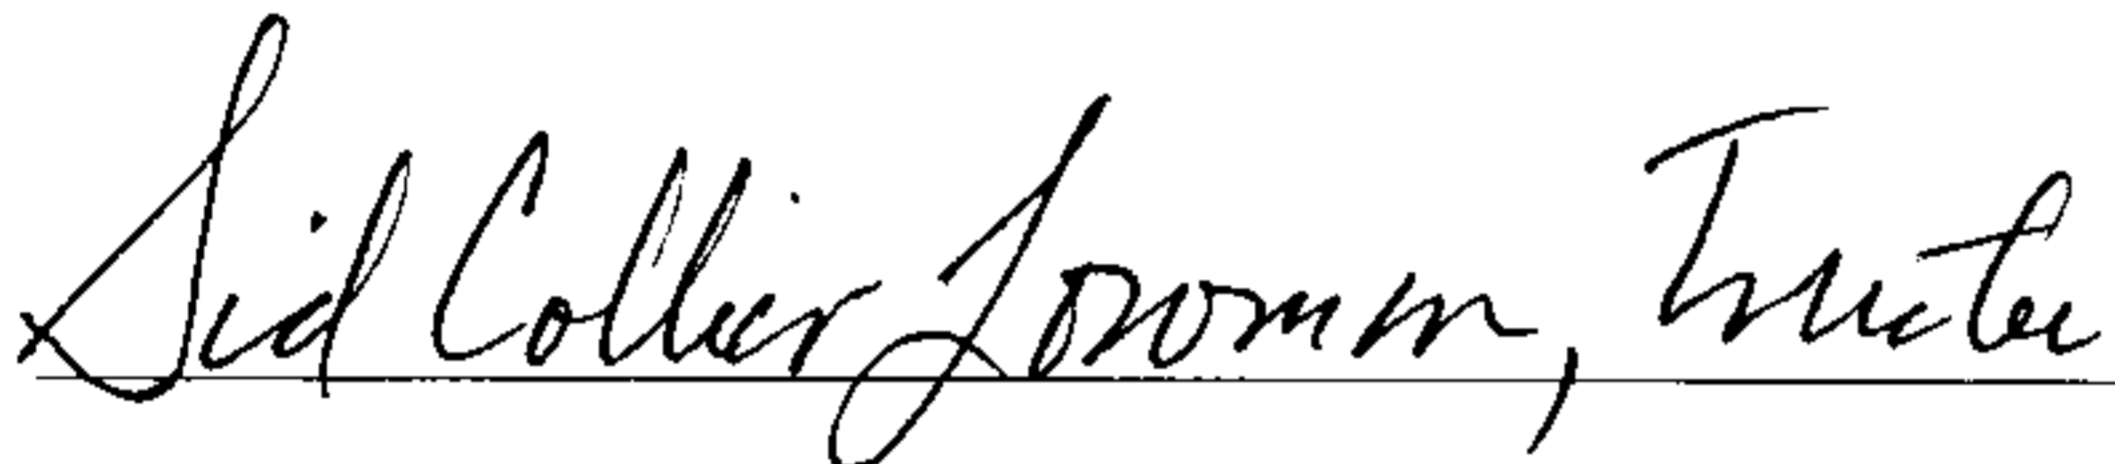

8. The ability of the trust to hold title to real property and the name in which title may be taken:

Section 12:19; My Trustee may sell at public or private sale, convey, purchase, exchange, lease for any period, mortgage, manage, alter, improve and in general deal in and with the real property in the manner and on the terms and conditions as my Trustee deems appropriate. My Trustee may grant or release easements in or over, subdivide partition, develop, raze improvements to and abandon any real property. My Trustee may manage real estate in any manner considered best, and may exercise all other real estate powers necessary to effect this purpose. My Trustee may enter into contracts to sell real estate. My Trustee may enter into leases and grant options to lease trust property, even though the term of the agreement extends beyond the termination of any trusts established under this trust and beyond the period that is required for an interest created under this trust to vest in order to be valid under the rule against perpetuities. My Trustee may enter into any contracts, covenants, and warranty agreements that my Trustee deems appropriate.

The said Trust has not been revoked, modified, or amended in any manner which would cause the representations in this certificate to be incorrect.
