Sellers reserves for itself a 60' easement as shown on the attached exhibit.

The following is added to the Legal Description and further explains the easement. This language replaces the previous easement recorded in 20181220000444950.

Grantor reserves a 60 foot wide non-exclusive access easement over and across the property conveyed herein which is more particularly described on Exhibit "A" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference for purposes of providing ingress and egress to and from other property owned by Grantor. Grantee shall have the right to relocate the easement herein from time to time with another 60 foot wide easement at a reasonable location provided said relocated easement shall be of similar quality as the one replaced and provides Grantor reasonable ingress and egress to and from other property owned by Grantor. The easement shall not be relocated until the relocated easement is in substantially the same condition as the original easement. Any expense or cost relating to relocating the easement shall be paid by Grantee.
