CERTIFICATION OF TRUST

(Pursuant to Section 19-3B-1013 of the Alabama Code)

The undersigned, William J. Comensky, Jr., and Amy Marie C. Hains, as co-trustees of the William J. Comensky, Jr. Revocable Trust do certify as follows:

1. The William J. Comensky, Jr. Revocable Trust (hereinafter the "Trust") is a valid, existing trust. The Trust was created by trust agreement dated April 29, 1994. The Trust agreement was amended and restated by the Restatement of the William J. Comensky, Jr. Revocable Trust agreement dated February 11, 2019.

2. The settlor of the Trust is William J. Comensky and he is the only person who contributed money, funds, real property, or personal property to this trust.

3. William J. Comensky, Jr. and Amy Marie C. Hains are co-trustees of the Trust.

4. The trustee has the power "To invest and reinvest the trust or any portion thereof in such loans, bonds, common or preferred stocks, notes, mortgages, participations in mortgages, common trust funds, securities, shares of regulated investment companies or trusts, currencies, partnerships (whether general, limited, or special), interests as members in limited liability companies, or other property, real or personal (including undivided interests therein and partial interests such as life estate, term or remainder interests), domestic or foreign, or to purchase and sell options (including listed options), or to exercise options, rights, or warrants, and to purchase securities or other property as the trustee may deem suitable, whether so-called "legal" investments of trust funds or not.

5. The settlor may amend or revoke the trust during his lifetime. The Trust is irrevocable upon the settlor's death.

6. The Trust provides that the action or decision of a majority in number of the trustees shall control. While two or more trustees are acting, the following provisions shall apply to the Trust where the context admits: (1) With respect to any matter as to which two or more trustees have joint authority, a trustee, by written notice, may temporarily delegate any or all of that trustee's rights, powers, duties, and discretion as trustee to any other trustee sharing that authority, with the consent of the latter; (2) The trustees may establish bank and brokerage accounts and may authorize that checks or drafts may be drawn on, or withdrawal made from, any such account on the individual signature of any trustee; (3) Any trustee alone may perform on behalf of the trustees all acts necessary for the acquisition, sale and transfer of personal and real property, including the giving of directions and the signing and endorsing of checks and other negotiable instruments, stock and bond certificates and powers, deeds of real estate and related transfer documents, applications, tax forms and other forms or documents; and no person dealing with the trustees need inquire into the propriety of any such act if such trustee certifies in writing to that person that the trustees have approved that act; (4) A trustee shall be presumed to have approved a proposed act or decision to refrain from acting if that trustee fails to indicate approval or disapproval thereof within fifteen days after a written request for approval, and a trustee shall not be required to continue to make a proposal which has been disapproved on at least two occasions if that trustee has informed each disapproving co-trustee that continued disapproval will be assumed until notice to the contrary has been received; and (5) The trustees may execute documents by jointly signing one document or separately signing concurrent counterpart documents.

7. The employer identification number of the Trust is the settlor's social security number.

8. The name in which title to trust property may be taken is "William J. Comensky, Jr. and Amy Marie C. Hains, as co-trustees of the William J. Comensky Revocable Trust u/t/a dated April 29, 1994, as restated on February 11, 2019."

9. The Trust has not been revoked, modified, or amended in any manner that would cause the representations and statements contained herein to be false or incorrect.

This 21st day of February, 2019.
