

DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I, MURRY BARTOW, a resident of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Tammy Bartow, as my true and lawful attorney-in-fact for me and in my name, place and stead, to act for me and on my behalf in all matters affecting my personal affairs, business or property, with the same force and effect to all intents and purposes as though I was personally present and acting for myself, including but not limited to, the following rights, powers and privileges among others:

1. To do business with financial institutions; to open accounts in my name or in her name as my attorney-in-fact; to sign my name on all accounts standing in my name at any institution whatsoever; to endorse, cash, negotiate, and/or deposit in my checking and/or savings accounts, checks, bond coupons, drafts and other instruments of exchange; to withdraw funds from my accounts; to purchase and redeem certificates of deposit; to borrow money, to pledge, mortgage and hypothecate any and all of my property, real or personal, as security for such borrowings; to sign and endorse promissory notes securing such borrowings; to give notice of protest on promissory note(s) owned by me; and to have unrestricted access to my safe deposit box(es) and to take possession of any contents thereof.

2. To sell, assign, pledge, deliver and endorse for transfer any certificates of stock, bonds, notes and other securities which I may own; to take all steps necessary to redeem United States Savings Bonds owned by me; and to receive and receipt for payments on any such securities.

3. With respect to my brokerage accounts, to open and close, to effect purchases and sales (including short sales), to subscribe for and to trade in stocks, bonds, options, rights, and warrants or other securities, domestic or foreign, whether dollar or non-dollar denominated, or limited partnership interests or investments and trust units, whether or not in negotiable form, issued or unissued, foreign exchange, commodities, and contracts relating to same (including commodity futures) on margin or otherwise for my account and risk; to deliver to my broker securities for my account and to instruct my broker to deliver securities from my accounts to my attorney-in-fact or to others, and in such name and form, including his own, as he or she may direct; to instruct my broker to make payment of moneys from my accounts with my broker, and to receive and direct payment therefrom payable to him or her or others; to sell, assign, endorse and transfer any stocks, bonds, options, rights and warrants or other securities of any nature, at any time standing in my name and to execute any documents necessary to effectuate the foregoing; to receive statements of transactions made for my account(s); to approve and confirm the same, to receive any and all notices, calls for margin, or other demands with reference to my accounts; and to make any and all agreements with my broker with reference thereto for me and in my behalf. My attorney-in-fact shall have the authority to hire, fire, and delegate powers to investment managers and/or financial advisors.

4. To collect dividends payable on my shares of stock; to take all steps necessary to replace lost securities including signing on my behalf and delivering affidavits and indemnification bonds.

5. To execute proxies or exercise voting rights with respect to my shares of stock.

6. To sell or exchange (for cash or upon terms) all or part of any interest which I may own in real or personal property wherever located and to purchase for me any interest in any real or personal property and in connection with any such sale, exchange or purchase, to negotiate, sign, acknowledge, deliver or receive any contracts, agreements, deeds or other documents necessary to transfer or receive title to any such real or personal property; to sign, acknowledge, accept and/or deliver promissory notes, mortgages, assumptions of indebtedness, security interests, financing statements or title retention documents given to secure deferred payments to be made or received in connection with any such sale, exchange or purchase; to satisfy and discharge any mortgage, lien, title retention instrument or other encumbrance on any of my real or personal property; and to discharge, release and receipt for payment on any note or other obligation held by me or on my behalf.

7. To renounce or disclaim any right of inheritance or succession which I might have in any property wherever located.

8. To negotiate, sign, acknowledge and deliver leases of any of my real and/or personal property and to effect any assignment, surrender and/or cancellation of any such lease.

9. To foreclose mortgages and other security interests of which I am the beneficiary.

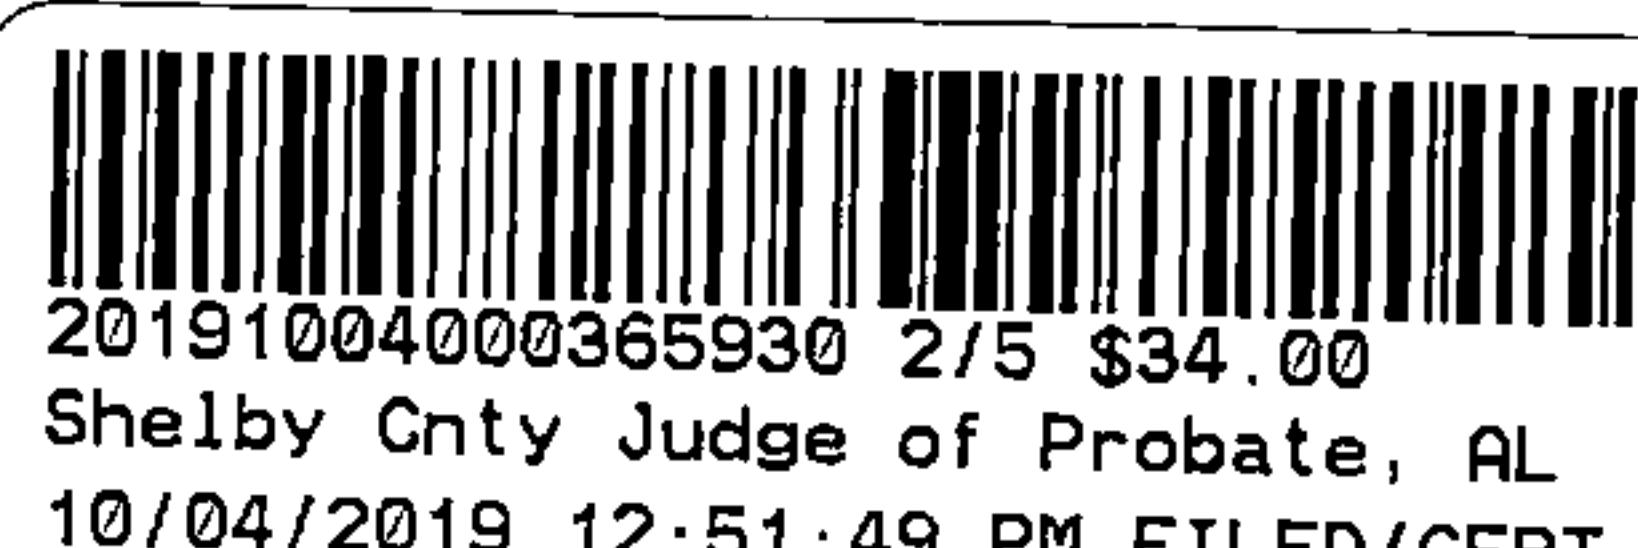

10. To contract for casualty insurance coverage on my real and/or tangible personal property; to sign application(s) therefor; to make representation(s) as to the property's condition and value; to pay premiums thereon currently or on deferred payment plan; to surrender, rescind and cause to be canceled any such policy so obtained, or by me heretofore obtained; to collect any dividend, return premiums or deposits payable to me; to assign and transfer any policy insuring any of my property; to file, amend and compromise claims on any such policy, to collect benefits thereunder, and to give receipts and releases with respect to such benefits; and to do all or anything that I might do under the provisions of any such policy.

11. To institute on my behalf, maintain and prosecute any and all legal proceedings, administrative claims or suits which I might bring; to discontinue and dismiss the same; to obtain orders and/or judgments thereof; to take all steps necessary to legally enforce any such order or judgment; to defend any such action, legal proceedings, claim or suit; to compromise and settle any such action, legal proceedings, claim or suit; to sign and verify in my name all complaints, petitions, answers, motions, affidavits and other pleadings of every description.

12. To prepare, sign on my behalf and file personal property tax returns and State, Federal and/or municipal income tax returns; to take any action with respect to prior, current or future returns, including the filing and prosecution of claims for refunds and collection thereof, the defense and litigation of deficiency assessments, and the negotiation and conclusion of settlements; to take all proceedings necessary to adjust and/or reduce the valuation for real estate tax purposes of any real property owned by me and to obtain any correction, refund or abatement of taxes and/or assessments imposed on such property; to execute extensions, waivers and consents in my name; to represent me in all income tax matters before all officers of the Internal Revenue Service and tax courts and any other courts or agencies.

13. To pay premiums on, to arrange for waiver of premiums on and to file claims for and, as applicable, to collect benefits under any accident, health, life or other similar insurance policy owned by me; to prepare and file on my behalf any claim under Medicare, Blue Cross-Blue Shield or similar hospital, medical or surgical care plans; to endorse and cash benefit checks or other payment issued pursuant to the provisions of any of said policies or plans; to surrender any such policy for its cash value; to exercise any conversion privilege; and to change any such policy to a paid-up policy.

14. In the event of an accident or illness: to take all steps necessary to admit me in any hospital, clinic, nursing facility or similar institution recommended by my medical adviser, including, without limiting the generality thereof, advising the administrative and/or medical personnel of any such facility as to my physical condition, medical history, financial resources and personal data; signing admission papers and arranging for payment of charges; to execute surgical or other medical treatment consent forms.

15. To assign and convey any and all of my property, real or personal, to any trust established by me or by others over which I have an unrestricted right of revocation or withdrawal, at such time as such attorney-in-fact deems appropriate, and to execute and deliver to the trustee appropriate assignments, deeds and other instruments of conveyance or transfer thereof even if such attorney-in-fact is trustee of such trust.

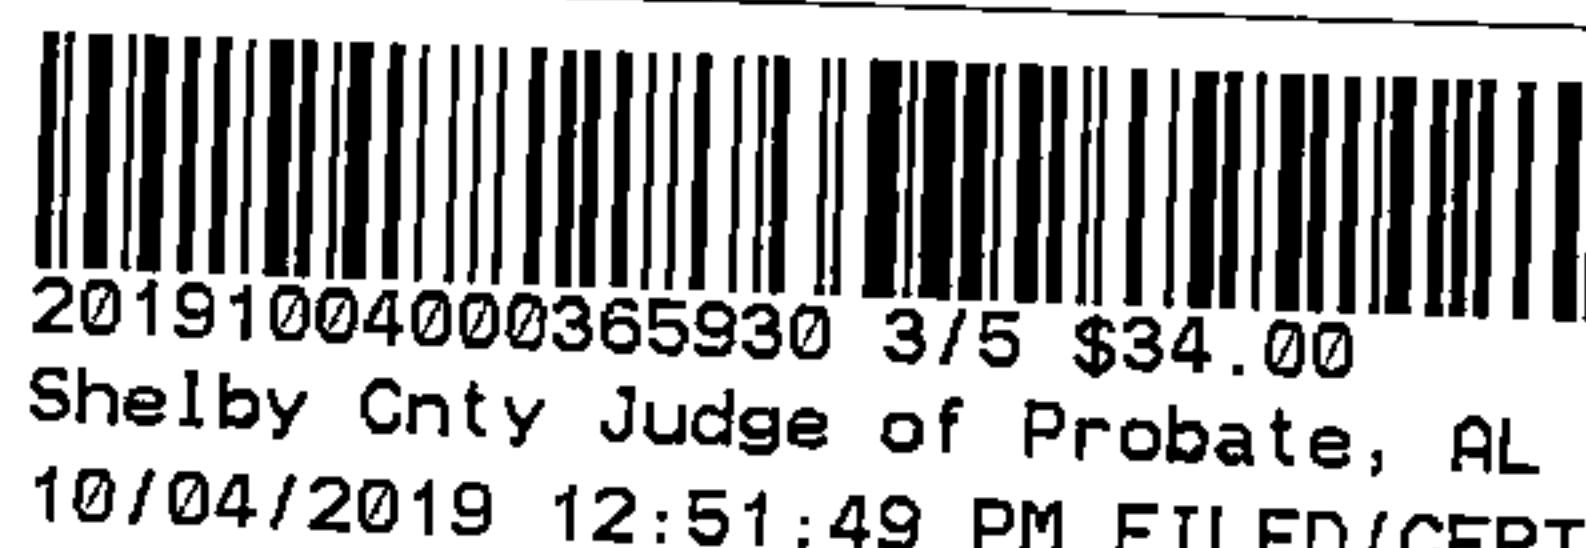

16. To employ and pay reasonable compensation to agents, accountants, attorney and investment counsel to assist in the exercise of any of the powers set forth herein.

17. To execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all papers and documents which may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this Durable Power of Attorney.

18. An executed duplicate of this Power of Attorney, or a photostatic copy thereof, delivered by me or by said attorney-in-fact to any third party will be conclusive against me and said attorney-in-fact as to such third party that this Power of Attorney has not been terminated. This Power of Attorney shall be governed by Tennessee law.

19. To purchase in any amount U. S. Treasury Bonds which can be used at par in payment of any death taxes and to borrow funds with which to do so (including the pledging or hypothecation of any securities necessary to secure said loan).

20. To deal with pension plans, IRAs including traditional IRAs and any and all other retirement accounts of all types; to make and change beneficiary designations and payment options, and to surrender any retirement accounts for cash.

21. To seek a declaratory judgment interpreting this Power of Attorney, or a mandatory injunction requiring compliance with the instructions of the principal's attorney-in-fact, or actual and punitive damages against any person failing or refusing to follow the instructions of the principal's attorney-in-fact.

I hereby give and grant unto my said attorney-in-fact full power and authority to do and perform all and every act and things whatsoever, as fully to all intents and purposes as I might or could do if personally present, with full power of substitution and revocation, hereby ratifying and confirming all that my said attorney-in-fact may do pursuant to this power. My attorney-in-fact may act in my capacity to do every act that I may legally do through an attorney-in-fact and I incorporate by reference the statutory powers stated in Tennessee Code Annotated § 34-6-109.

If Tammy Bartow declines in writing to act as my attorney-in-fact, is absent, becomes disabled or dies, I appoint Connor Bartow as my attorney-in-fact to act then with all the powers given my original attorney-in-fact. Any person may rely upon any act done by such substitute attorney-in-fact and shall not be required to inquire into whether the original attorney-in-fact is in fact dead, disabled or absent from the State of Tennessee, as the case may be.

My attorney-in-fact is authorized to appoint successor substitute attorney(s)-in-fact by writing executed with the formalities of this document, which shall be attached hereto. Such person shall have all the powers herein contained unless otherwise limited by the appointing document. The successor attorney(s)-in-fact shall be empowered to act upon the resignation of the prior named attorney(s)-in-fact endorsed on the bottom of this instrument, or attached to it.

This Power of Attorney shall remain in full force and effect until the same shall have been revoked by written notice duly recorded, or until expiration by operation of law, its being intended that this Power of Attorney shall not be affected by the subsequent disability or incapacity of the undersigned principal.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 16th day of August, 2019.
