Dear Alan:

Just a quick note to solidify our agreement on the Applecross Road project. In short, any monies invested by either of us shall first be reimbursed from whatever proceeds we earn from the sale of the property. Subsequently, the net proceeds from the project shall be divided equally between us, 50/50. The term "invested" shall mean personal savings and/or loans, including any interest, that each of us has already contributed or may contribute in the future in order to complete the project.

This agreement shall inure to the benefit of our heirs and is not assignable without the express written permission from the non-assigning party.

Pursuant to the Bar Association; because I represent you, a potential conflict of interest could arise during the completion of our project. By signing below, you agree to waive any potential conflict of interest claims.

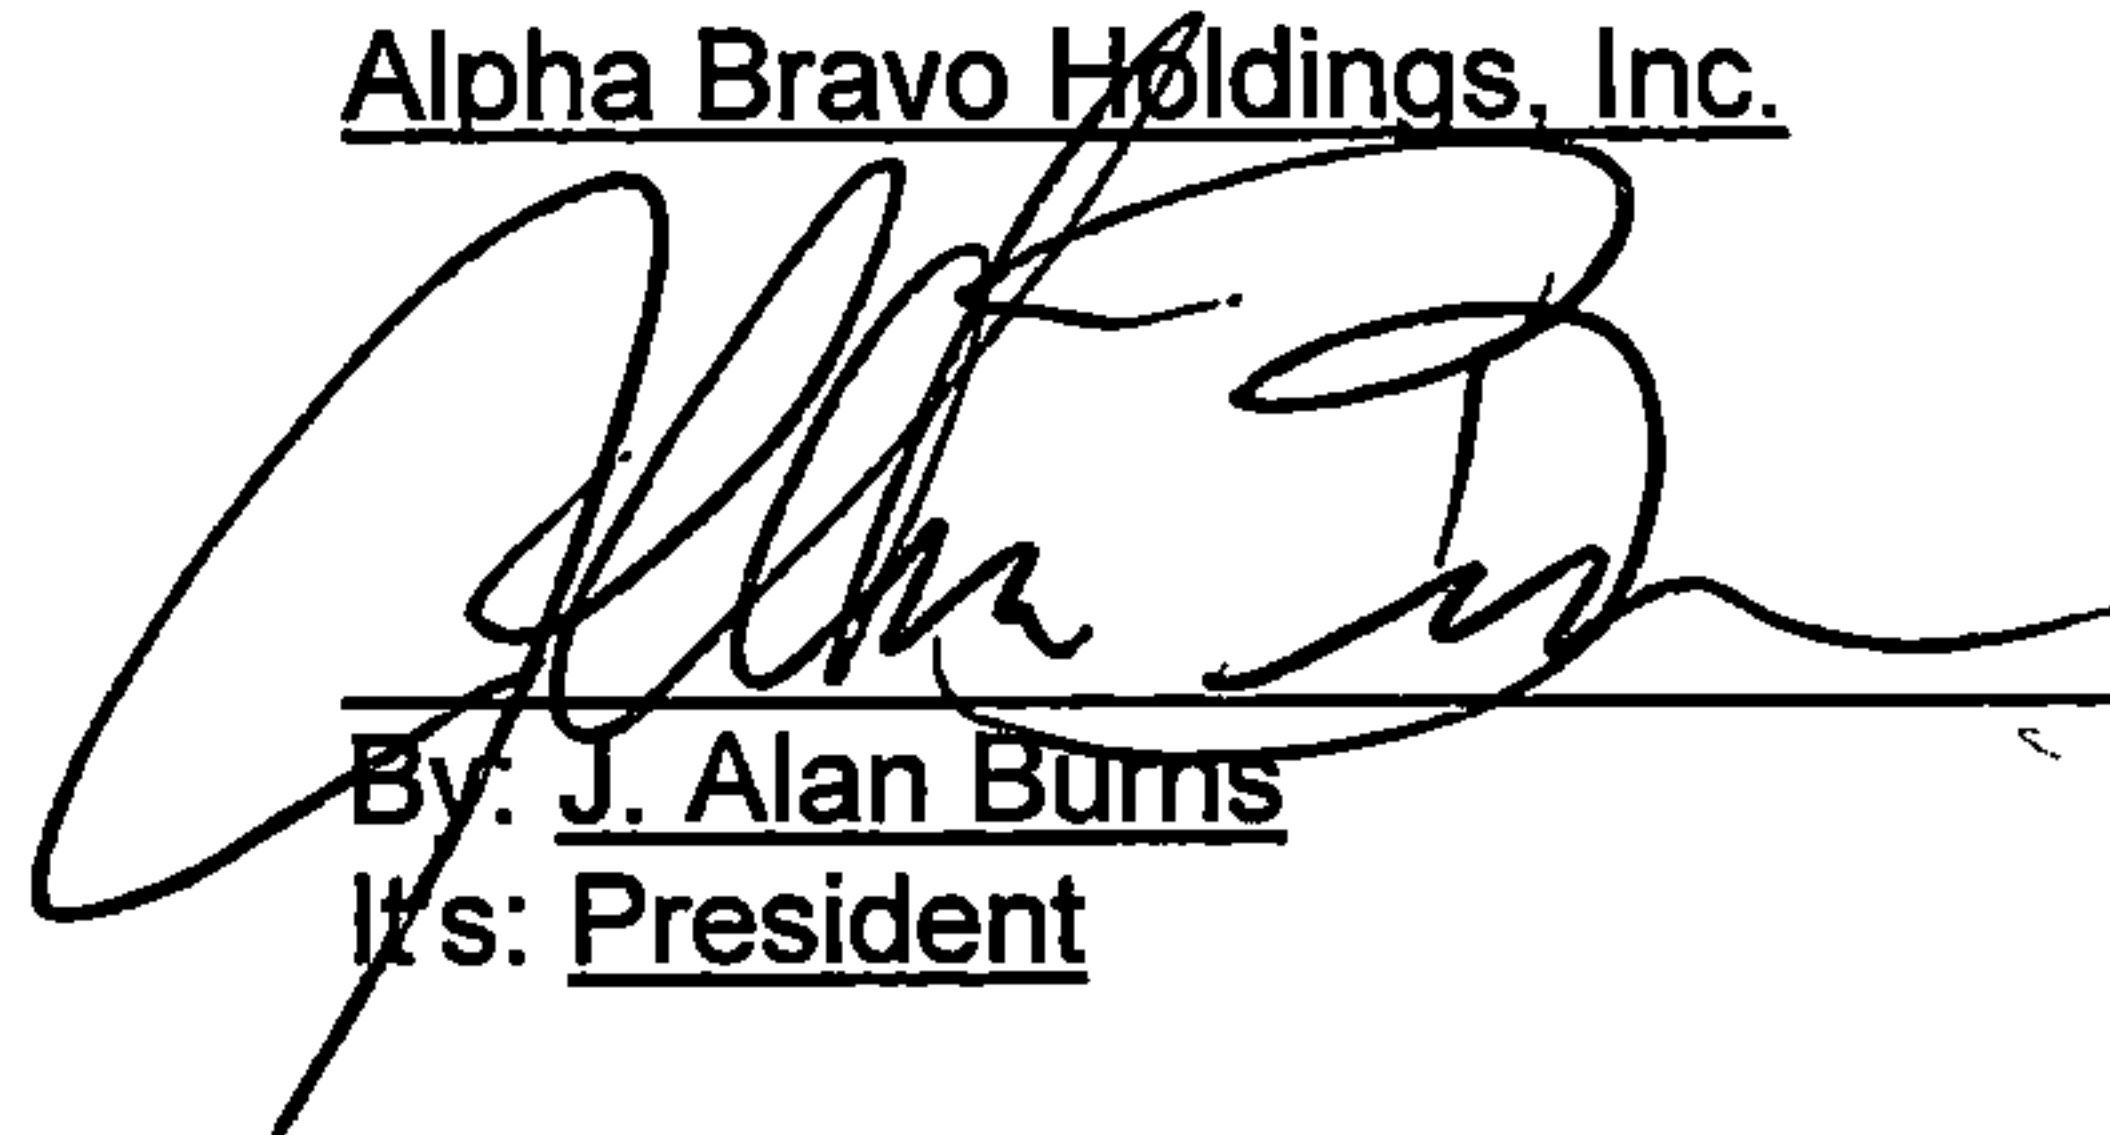

Many many thanks,

D. Wade Ramsey

DWR/hrk

I agree to the terms as set out hereinabove.
