Each Trustor reserves the right of the possession, use and occupancy during each Trustor's life, for Homestead Tax Exemption purposes, of any real property used by each Trustor as a principal residence, whether or not title to such realty has been transferred to this Trust. Each Trustor and any member of a Trustor's family to whom a Trustor has granted the use of the residence for personal occupancy after a Trustor's death, shall have the power in all events to instruct the Trustee to sell the residence then currently held and reinvest the proceeds, increased by available Trust assets, in a replacement residence to be used by a Trustor or a Trustor's designated family member or members. The current residence and any replacement shall remain a part of our Trust Estate.

Furthermore, the Trustors reserve the right to reside upon any real property placed in this trust as the Trustors' permanent residence during the Trustors' life, it being the intent of this provision to retain for the Trustors the requisite beneficial interest and possessory right in and to such real property to comply with the common law and all applicable statutes such that said beneficiary interest and possessory right constitute in all respects, "equitable title to real estate". Notwithstanding anything contained in this Trust inconsistent with this provision, the Trustor's interest in any real property in which the Trustors reside pursuant to the provisions of this trust shall be deemed to be an interest in real property and not personally (or personalty) and shall be homestead of the Trustors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said Grantors have hereunto set their hands and seals this date, and such deed was executed in the presence of two witnesses identified below and the Grantors and the witnesses executed this deed in the presence of one another and in the presence of the undersigned Notary Public.
