

POWER OF ATTORNEY
OF
JOHN L. MITCHELL, JR.

*NOTICE****

THE PURPOSE OF THIS POWER OF ATTORNEY IS TO GIVE THE PERSON YOU DESIGNATE (YOUR "AGENT") BROAD POWERS TO HANDLE YOUR PROPERTY, WHICH MAY INCLUDE POWERS TO SELL OR OTHERWISE DISPOSE OF ANY REAL OR PERSONAL PROPERTY WITHOUT ADVANCE NOTICE TO YOU OR APPROVAL BY YOU.

THIS POWER OF ATTORNEY DOES NOT IMPOSE A DUTY ON YOUR AGENT TO EXERCISE GRANTED POWERS, BUT WHEN POWERS ARE EXERCISED, YOUR AGENT MUST EXERCISE DUE CARE TO ACT FOR YOUR BENEFIT AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS POWER OF ATTORNEY.

YOUR AGENT MAY EXERCISE THE POWERS GIVEN HERE THROUGHOUT YOUR LIFETIME, EVEN AFTER YOU BECOME INCAPACITATED, UNLESS YOU EXPRESSLY LIMIT THE DURATION OF THESE POWERS OR YOU REVOKE THESE POWERS OR A COURT ACTING ON YOUR BEHALF TERMINATES YOUR AGENT'S AUTHORITY.

YOUR AGENT MUST KEEP YOUR FUNDS SEPARATE FROM YOUR AGENT'S FUNDS.

A COURT CAN TAKE AWAY THE POWERS OF YOUR AGENT IF IT FINDS YOUR AGENT IS NOT ACTING PROPERLY.

THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF AN AGENT UNDER A POWER OF ATTORNEY ARE EXPLAINED MORE FULLY IN 20 Pa. C.S. CH. 56.

IF THERE IS ANYTHING ABOUT THIS FORM YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND, YOU SHOULD ASK A LAWYER OF YOUR OWN CHOOSING TO EXPLAIN IT TO YOU.

I HAVE READ OR HAD EXPLAINED TO ME THIS NOTICE AND I UNDERSTAND ITS CONTENTS.

JOHN L. MITCHELL, JR.

KNOW ALL PERSONS BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, JOHN L. MITCHELL, JR., of Shelby County, Alabama, do hereby name, constitute and appoint my wife, JOYCE CRAWFORD MITCHELL, also of Shelby County, Alabama, to be my true and lawful agent (hereinafter referred to as "attorney"), with full power and authority and in the absolute discretion of my said attorney for me and in my name, place and stead and on my behalf to execute, acknowledge and deliver any writing and to do, perform and transact each and every other act that I personally could lawfully do, perform or transact, it being my intention hereby to confer upon my said attorney the most comprehensive power possible for me to give in connection with the management and conduct of all of my estate and affairs, hereby ratifying and confirming whatsoever my said attorney may do by virtue hereof. By way of illustration but not of limitation, my said attorney shall have and may exercise the following powers:

1. To engage in real property transactions which shall mean the power to acquire or dispose of real property (including my residence) or any interest therein, including, but not limited to, the power to buy or sell at public or private sale for cash or credit or partly for each, to exchange, mortgage, encumber, lease for any period of time, to give or acquire options for sales, purchases, exchanges or leases, to buy at judicial sale any real property on which I hold a mortgage; to manage, repair, improve, maintain, restore, alter, build, protect or insure real property; to demolish structures or develop real estate or any interest in real estate; to collect rent, sale proceeds and earnings from real estate; to pay, contest, protest and compromise real estate taxes and assessments; to release in whole or in part, assign the whole or a part of, satisfy in whole or in part and enforce any mortgage, encumbrance, lien or other claim to real property; to grant easements, dedicate real estate; to partition and subdivide real estate; and to file plans, applications or other documents in connection therewith; and, in general, to exercise all powers with respect to real property that I could if present;

2. To engage in tangible personal property transactions which shall mean to buy, sell, lease, exchange, collect, possess and take title to tangible personal property; to move, store, ship, restore, maintain, repair, improve, manage, preserve and insure tangible personal property; and, in general, to exercise all powers with respect to tangible personal property that I could if present;

3. To engage in stock, bond and other securities transactions which shall mean to buy or sell (including short sales) at public or private sale for cash or credit or partly for cash all types of stocks, bonds and securities; to exchange, transfer, hypothecate, pledge or otherwise dispose of any stock, bond or other security; to collect dividends, interest and other distributions; to vote in person or by proxy, with or without power of substitution, either discretionary, general or otherwise, at any meeting; to join in any merger, reorganization, voting-trust plan or other concerted action of security holders, and make payments in connection therewith; to hold any evidence of the ownership of any stock, bond or other security belonging to me in the name of a nominee selected by my said attorney; to deposit or arrange for the deposit of securities in a clearing corporation; to receive, hold or transfer securities in book-entry form; and, in general, to exercise all powers with respect to stocks, bonds and securities that I could if present;

4. To engage in commodity and option transactions which shall mean to buy, sell, exchange, assign, convey, settle and exercise commodities future contracts and call and put options on stocks and stock indices traded on a regulated options exchange and collect and receipt for all proceeds of any such transactions; to establish or continue option accounts for me with any securities of a futures broker; and, in general, to exercise all powers with respect to commodity and option transactions that I could if present;

5. To engage in transactions involving bonds, obligations, or other instruments of the United States, any state or political subdivision which shall mean to purchase, receive, accept or otherwise acquire, to sell, exchange, convert, assign, convey, pledge or otherwise encumber or dispose of, or to contract or agree for the acquisition, disposition or encumbrance of, any bond, obligation or other instrument, right or interest, I now have or may hereafter hold, of the United States, any state or any political subdivision thereof, and to purchase any bonds issued by the United States which may be redeemed at par together with accrued interest thereon for the payment of federal estate taxes and any interest and penalties thereon, as my said attorney shall deem advisable;

6. To engage in borrowings which shall mean to borrow money from such persons, banks, trust companies or other institutions or parties whomsoever, in such amounts and upon such terms and conditions as my said attorney shall deem advisable; to execute and deliver and to renew and extend promissory notes or other obligations evidencing any borrowing; and to secure any borrowing by liens upon any property now owned or hereafter acquired by me;

7. To make and execute deeds and other documents which shall mean to make, endorse, accept, receive, sign, seal, execute, acknowledge and deliver deeds, assignments, bills of sale, leases, agreements, certificates, mortgages, hypothecations, checks, notes, bonds, vouchers, receipts, releases and other instruments;

8. To engage in banking and financial transactions which shall mean to sign checks, drafts, orders, notes, bills of exchange and other instruments or otherwise make withdrawals from checking, savings, transaction, deposit, loan or other accounts in my name and endorse items payable to me and receive the proceeds in cash or otherwise; to open and close such accounts in my name, purchase and redeem savings certificates, certificates of deposit or similar instruments in my name, and execute and deliver receipts for any funds withdrawn or certificates redeemed; to deposit any funds received for me in my accounts; to do all acts regarding checking, savings, transaction, deposit, loan or other accounts, savings certificates, certificates of deposit or similar instruments, the same as I could do if personally present; to sign any tax information or reporting form required by federal, state or local taxing authorities, including, but not limited to, any Form W-9 or similar form; and, in general, to transact any business with a banking or financial institution that I could if present;

9. To engage in retirement plan transactions which shall mean to contribute to, withdraw from and deposit funds in any type of retirement plan (including, but not limited to, any tax qualified or nonqualified pension, profit sharing, stock bonus, employee savings and retirement plan, deferred compensation plan or individual retirement account); to select and change payment options for me; to make roll over contributions from any retirement plan to other retirement plans; and, in general, to exercise all powers with respect to retirement plans that I could if present;

10. To make payments on my behalf which shall mean to pay all sums of money which at any time or from time to time may be owing by me upon any account, bill of exchange, check, draft, note or trade acceptance incurred, made, executed, endorsed, accepted or delivered by me or for me and on my behalf;

11. To create a trust for my benefit designating one or more persons or corporations, including my said attorney, as initial or successor trustee or trustees and to transfer to such trust at any time and from time to time any or all property owned by me; provided, however, that at any time and from time to time the whole or any part of the income and principal shall be distributed to or expended for my benefit or shall be distributed to the guardian or guardians of my estate and that upon my death the principal, accumulated income and income of such trust shall be distributed to my estate, or to make additions to an existing trust for my benefit, and to amend or revoke any such trust, in whole or in part, all as my said attorney shall deem advisable, provided that any such amendment by my said attorney shall not include any provision which could not be included in the original trust;

12. To represent me in any and all matters requiring my approval and consent in connection with or arising out of my interest in any trust of which I am the settlor or a beneficiary, and to exercise at any time and from time to time any power which I now or may hereafter have with respect to any such trust, including any power to make withdrawals therefrom and any power to alter, amend or revoke, in whole or in part, the same;

13. To demand, withdraw and receive the income or corpus of any trust over which I have the power to make withdrawals, to request and receive the income or corpus of any trust with respect to which the trustee thereof has the discretionary power to make distribution to me or on my behalf and, execute a receipt and release or similar document for the property received hereunder;

14. To claim an elective share of the estate of any deceased spouse of mine and to disclaim any interest in any property which I am required to disclaim as a result of such election, and in connection therewith to retain any property which I have the right to elect to retain, to file any petitions pertaining to such election, including but without limitation, petitions extending the time in which to make such election and petitions for orders, decrees and judgments relating to the determination and enforcement of such election and to take all other actions which my said attorney shall deem advisable to effectuate such election;

15. To handle interests in estates and trusts which shall mean to receive a bequest, devise, gift or other transfer of real or personal property to me in my own right or as a fiduciary for another, and give full receipt and acquittance therefor or a refunding bond therefor; to approve accounts of any estate, trust, partnership or other transaction in which I may have an interest; to enter into any compromise and release in regard thereto;

16. To disclaim or release any powers or interests which I may have in any property;

17. To renounce or resign any fiduciary position to which I have been appointed or in which I am serving, including but without limitation, any position as an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, attorney-in-fact or officer or director of a corporation, and in connection with such resignation to file an accounting with a court of competent jurisdiction or agree to settlement by way of receipt and release or such other informal method as my said attorney shall deem advisable;

18. To make unlimited gifts to such donee or donees (including individuals, associations, corporations, partnerships and trusts), in such amount or amounts or of such property or properties (now owned or hereafter acquired by me) and for such estates and interests and outright or upon such terms, trusts, conditions and limitations, all as my said attorney shall determine; provided, however, that my said attorney shall not make gifts in any calendar year to my said attorney or to any person dependent on my said attorney which exceed in the aggregate the amount specified in Section 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law;

19. To pursue claims and litigation which shall mean to institute, prosecute, defend, abandon, compromise, arbitrate, settle or otherwise dispose of and appear for me in all legal, equitable or administrative hearings, actions, suits, appeals, attachments, arrests, distresses or other proceedings of whatever character regarding any claim relating to me or to any of my property interests now owned or hereafter acquired by me or touching any matter in which I or such property may be in anywise concerned; to collect and receipt for any claim or settlement proceeds; to waive or release my rights; to employ and discharge attorneys and others on such terms (including contingent fee arrangements) as my said attorney shall deem appropriate; and, in general, to exercise all powers with respect to claims and litigation that I could if present;

20. To enter at any time and from time to time any safe deposit box which I have now rented, or which I or my said attorney may hereafter rent, in any bank, trust company or other depository; to add or remove any or all of the contents thereof; to open and close safe deposit boxes in my name, and to execute in my name any proxy or other document required by said bank, trust company or other depository; provided, however, that unless my said attorney is my spouse my said attorney may not deposit or keep in such safe deposit box any property in which or to which my said attorney may have a personal interest;

21. To employ, retain and dismiss accountants, agents, attorneys, employees, investment counselors and other representatives upon such terms and conditions as my said attorney shall deem advisable;

22. To pursue tax matters which shall mean to prepare, sign, verify, execute and file income, gift and other tax returns and other governmental reports, declarations, applications, requests and documents of whatever character, including, but not limited to, joint returns and declarations of estimated tax, to examine and copy all my tax returns and tax records; to make, execute, verify and deliver closing and other agreements, claims for refund, complaints, consents, petitions, protests, waivers and other documents of whatever character in respect of any tax or other governmental matter, to represent me before any office of the Internal Revenue Service or any other governmental agency or any court, Federal, State or local, with respect to any tax or other governmental matter for any year, period, act or transaction, sign an Internal Revenue Service power of attorney form; to claim, sue for and collect tax refunds, to waive rights and sign all documents required to settle, pay and determine tax liabilities, to sign waivers extending the period of time for the assessment of taxes or tax deficiencies; to receive and disclose confidential information in respect of any of the foregoing; and, in general, to exercise all powers with respect to tax matters that I could if present;

23. To receive government benefits which shall mean to prepare, sign and file any claim or application for Social Security, unemployment, military service or other government benefits; to collect and receipt for all government benefits or assistance; and, in general, to exercise all powers with respect to government benefits that I could if present;

24. To engage in insurance transactions which shall mean to purchase, continue, renew, convert or terminate any type of insurance (including, but not limited to, life, accident, health, disability, or liability insurance), and pay premiums and collect benefits and proceeds under insurance policies; to exercise nonforfeiture provisions under insurance policies; to surrender and receive the cash value or other benefits of any such policy without any obligation on the part of the insurer to see to the proper application thereof; and, in general, to exercise all powers with respect to insurance that I could if present;

25. To obtain and receive any mail or postal materials, including but not limited to, letters, papers and packages, which are transmitted to me or to my mailing address by the United States Postal Service or any other entity and to sign or execute any documents, instruments or forms in connection with the receipt of such mail or postal materials;

26. To request, review, receive, obtain, disclose and consent to the disclosure of any information, verbal or written, regarding my personal affairs or health care information regarding my physical or mental health, including without limitation, legal, medical and hospital records, to execute any releases or other documents that may be required in order to obtain such information, including documents, such as but not limited to consents, authorizations and requests for revisions to medical records relating to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) (Act Aug. 21, 1996, P.L. 104-191), as the same may be amended, and to release from liability health care, medical and other providers with respect to the disclosure of such health care, medical or other information;

27. To authorize my admission to a medical, nursing, residential or similar facility, to execute any consent, admission or other forms required by such facility and to enter into agreements for my care, including the retention of nurses on my behalf, during my lifetime or for such lesser period of time as my said attorney shall designate;

28. To arrange for and to consent to medical, therapeutical and surgical procedures on my behalf, including the administration of drugs, as my said attorney shall deem advisable;

29. To constitute and appoint any one or more persons as successor attorney or attorneys in the place and stead of any attorney hereunder and to specify that such appointment of a successor attorney or attorneys shall take effect immediately or at a future time or upon the occurrence of an event (such as the death of an attorney then serving hereunder);

30. To substitute for any temporary period any one or more persons in the place and stead of my attorney hereunder and to specify that such appointment of a substitute attorney or attorneys shall commence and terminate at a particular time or times or upon the occurrence of an event; and

31. To delegate one or more powers to such person or persons as my said attorney may designate, and on terms as my said attorney may specify.

All powers described shall be exercisable with respect to any matter in which I am in any way interested at the giving of this Power of Attorney or hereafter, and wherever arising.

In the event of the inability or unwillingness of my wife to serve or to continue to serve as my attorney and no successor attorney has been appointed in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 29 and 30 hereof, I appoint my sister, VIVIAN M. GAMBLE, as my successor attorney. In the further event of the inability or unwillingness of my said sister to serve or to continue to serve as my attorney and no successor attorney has been appointed in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 29 and 30 hereof, I appoint my nephew, STEPHEN L. MITCHELL, as my successor attorney. I further direct that all references to "my said attorney" shall mean each such successor attorney.

In the event that incompetency proceedings with respect to my estate are commenced, I hereby nominate my said attorney as guardian of my estate.

No person entering into any transaction of any kind whatever with my said attorney shall be under any obligation to inquire as to the authority of my said attorney to effect the same or the expediency thereof or to see to the proper application of the proceeds therefrom, whatever may be the nature of such proceeds.

This Power of Attorney and the powers conveyed hereby shall not be affected by my disability or incapacity or by any uncertainty as to whether I may be living at any particular time, and all powers exercised and acts done by my said attorney during any period of disability or incompetence or uncertainty as to whether I am living shall have the same effect, and shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon me and my heirs, legatees, devisees and personal representatives, as if I were alive, competent and not disabled during such period.

Any person, corporation, partnership, bank, trust company or depository of any kind may rely upon this Power of Attorney until such person, corporation, partnership, bank, trust company or depository receives (i) written notice of the revocation of this Power of Attorney or (ii) actual notice of my death.

I hereby ratify all that my said attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of this Power of Attorney.

I expressly authorize, direct and provide that for any and every purpose a photocopy of this Power of Attorney shall be deemed to be an original thereof and that any and every person shall be fully protected in acting upon such copy with like effect as if it were the original thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF and intending to be legally bound hereby I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 31 day of May, 2013.
