DECLARATION OF POLITICAL STATUS

I, Sharon: of the lawful house of Waltz/Wright release and discharge the United States of America from this emergency war powers jurisdictional duties created by Section 17 of the "Trading with Enemy Act" and clearly inform the court that I, an American Citizen who has harmed no one, do not consent to statutory military jurisdiction now nor at any foreseeable time in the future.

I do, however, accept the oath of the President of the United States and his trust obligation to uphold and defend the constitution of the United States. Under the law of the land affirmed so help me God and I do accept the "perpetual friendship" and "amity" of all the Bar Association owed to Americans by the Treaty of Westminster 1794 and their honest conduct owed The Bar Treaty of 1947.

I repeat that I am a non-combatant and not an "enemy", and I do not consent to any statutory military jurisdiction being exercised against me by the court since my unlawful detainment, I do not consent to any statutory military jurisdiction being exercised with respect to me in the presence, and I do not consent to any future statutory military jurisdiction being offered against me.

I revoke all and any consent actual or implied to act as or be considered a voluntary surety, trustee, volunteer, a corporate franchise operator, warrant officer, license, beneficiary of the public charitable trust, or any other individual or employee subject to the British King in any capacity whatsoever.

I clearly attest and declare that I am an American on the land of Alabama state and am one of the free, sovereign, and independent people of the United States as defined by The Definitive Treaty of Peace, Paris 1783. I have never considered any other political status actual or implied to be a benefit.
