cash or credit at public or private sale or to grant options, to lease property regardless of the fact that the term of any such lease may extend beyond the term of any trust created hereunder, to distribute such property in cash or in kind or both and to value such property to the extent permitted by law, to invest in any property regardless of whether authorized by law for investment of trust funds, to borrow money for any lawful purpose from any lender (including the Co-Trustees) and to pledge, encumber and mortgage trust assets to secure any debt, or to settle claims, and to do all acts although not specifically listed herein deemed necessary and advisable for the proper management, investment and distribution of such property. The Co-Trustees are specifically given the power to open a margin account at any brokerage house.

The Co-Trustees are authorized to borrow money, with or without security, and mortgage or pledge trust property for a period within or extending beyond the duration of the trust and advance money for the protection of the trust (Florida Statute §736.0816(6)).

The Co-Trustees are authorized to employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, advisors, financial consultants, managers, agents, and assistants (including any individual or entity who provides investment advisory or management services, or who furnishes professional assistance in making investments for the Trust) without liability for any act of those persons, if they are selected and retained with reasonable care. Fees may be paid from the Trust Estate.

Whenever the words "Trustee" or "Trustees" are used in this trust agreement, such word or words shall mean the singular or the plural wherever the context so requires or permits.

In the event this Trust provides for more than one Trustee, the exercise of any and all powers, authorities, discretions and rights granted to said Trustees shall not be construed to require the Trustees to act in unison in order to exercise any trust power, but each Trustee may individually exercise any of the trust powers.
