

DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY

BY THIS DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY I, WAYNE BLAIR BRICKNER, of Piqua, Miami County, Ohio, do hereby revoke any and all powers of attorney previously executed by me and do hereby appoint as my attorney-in-fact to manage my affairs, my daughter, Nancy Michell Pinkerton, of Indian Springs, Alabama.

This durable power of attorney shall not be affected by any physical or mental disability that I may suffer, except as provided by statute, and shall be exercisable from this date. All acts done by my attorney-in-fact pursuant to this power shall bind me, my heirs, devisees and personal representatives; provided, however, all such acts performed hereunder shall be for my benefit only and not for the benefit of my attorney-in-fact.
This power of attorney is nondelegable.

All of my property and interests in property are subject to this durable power of attorney. Subject to the preceding provisions, I authorize my attorney-in-fact to:

1. Conduct any and all banking, savings and loan, credit union and brokerage house business, including but not limited to the ability to draw, accept, endorse or otherwise deal with any commercial or mercantile instruments relating to all checking accounts, money market accounts, brokerage accounts, savings accounts, certificates of deposit, individual retirement accounts or any other financial accounts which I may own or hold individually or jointly with any other person.
2. Collect all sums of money and other property that may be payable or belonging to me, and to execute receipts, releases, cancellations or discharges.
3. Settle any accounts in which I may have an interest and pay or receive the balances of those accounts as the case may require.
4. Enter any safe deposit box or other place of safekeeping standing in my name alone or jointly with another and to remove the contents and to make additions, substitutions and replacements.
5. Borrow money on such terms and with such security as my attorney-in-fact may think fit and to execute all notes, mortgages and other instruments that my attorney-in-fact finds necessary or desirable.

6. Redeem bonds issued by the United States Government or any of its agencies, any other bonds and any certificates of deposit or other similar assets belonging to me.
7. Sell bonds, shares of stock, warrants, debentures, options or other assets belonging to me, and execute all assignments, stock powers and other instruments necessary or proper for transferring them to the purchaser or purchasers, and give good receipts and discharges for all money payable in respect to them.
8. Invest the proceeds of any redemptions or sales and any other of my money in bonds, shares of stock and any other securities as my attorney-in-fact shall think fit.
9. Vote at all meetings of stockholders of any company in which I own stock and otherwise act as my attorney-in-fact or proxy in respect of my shares of stock or other securities or investments that now or hereafter belong to me, and appoint substitutes or proxies with respect to any of those shares of stock.
10. Make gifts or contributions from my assets to any donee, all as may be in my best interest with respect to my income tax, estate tax or long-term care planning. My attorney-in-fact may make gifts to any person, including herself, all as is consistent with my testamentary plan.
11. Execute on my behalf any tax return and act for me in any examination, audit, hearing, conference, or litigation relating to taxes, including authority to file and prosecute refund claims, and enter into any settlements.
12. Sell, convey, transfer, acquire, rent, lease for any term, or exchange any real estate, including my homestead real property, or interests therein, for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as my attorney-in-fact may see fit, and execute, acknowledge and deliver all instruments conveying or encumbering title to property owned by me alone as well as any owned by me and any other person jointly.
13. Prosecute, defend and settle all actions or other legal proceedings touching my estate or any part of it or touching any matter in which I may be concerned in any way.
14. Create, amend, modify, or revoke any revocable or irrevocable trust agreement or document and transfer assets in which I have any interest, including but not limited to real property constituting my homestead or a homestead in which I have any interest, to an existing or newly created trust for estate, tax, long-term care or Medicaid planning purposes.

15. Authorize, consent, withdraw, withhold or arrange for any health, mental health, medical, surgical, therapeutic or life-prolonging procedures, including the administration of drugs; provided that, if, at the time a decision on my behalf is required, it is determined that I have executed a valid Designation of Health Care Surrogate, then such designee shall have priority over my attorney-in-fact for purposes of making any such decision authorized or contemplated by this paragraph and by statute. In addition to the other powers granted by this document, my attorney-in-fact shall have the power and authority to serve as my personal representative for all purposes of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, (Pub. L. 104-191), 45 CFR Section 160 through 164.
16. Collect, settle and change the owner and beneficiary of any and all insurance policies and purchase any type of annuity.
17. Execute any and all forms required by the United State Postal Service to authorize the forwarding of my mail to any address my attorney-in-fact may designate.
18. Disclaim any interest which I may have in property passing to me by operation of law, will, trust, intestate succession, or under powers of appointment.
19. Waive any constitutional or statutory homestead or elective share rights which I may have for estate, tax, long-term care or Medicaid planning purposes, whether I possess such rights now or hereafter, under the applicable current law or as such laws may hereafter be amended.
20. Do anything regarding my estate, property and affairs that I could do myself.

The powers conferred upon my attorney-in-fact extend to all of my right, title and interest in property in which I may have an interest jointly with any other person, whether in an estate by the entirety, joint tenancy or tenancy in common.

The instrument is executed by me in the State of Ohio, but it is my intention that this power of attorney shall be exercisable in any other state or jurisdiction where I may have property or interests in property.

I hereby confirm all acts of my attorney-in-fact subject to any limitations set forth hereinabove pursuant to this power.

WAYNE BLAIR BRICKNER

Any act that is done under this power between the written revocation of this instrument and notice of that revocation to my attorney-in-fact shall be valid unless the person claiming the benefit of the act had notice of that revocation. This durable power of attorney shall be in full force and effect as to any bank, credit union, savings and loan association, brokerage house or other financial institution until my death or written notice of revocation from me.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have executed this Durable Power of Attorney on this 27 day of May, 2009.
