

Amendment To
Declaration of Trust
Douglas Howard Bryant Revocable Trust

Section Six, Powers Of Trustee is hereby amended as follows:

SECTION SIX.
POWERS OF TRUSTEE

Trustee under this declaration shall have the following rights, duties, powers, privileges, immunities, and exemptions in addition to those powers granted Trustee by applicable law:

- A. The power to sell and convey all or part or parts of the trust estate free and clear of all trusts and limitations, without liability on the part of the purchaser or purchasers to see the application of the trust money or trust property, at public or private sale, on terms or for cash, and without advertisement or order or authority from any court or person.
- B. The power to enter into any plan or agreement for the sale, merger, consolidation, liquidation, or other disposition of any of the trust property or of any corporation issuing certificates held as part of the trust estate and to accept in such transaction any cash, securities, or property that Trustee deems proper, and to do any and all things in connection with such transaction as could be done by Trustee if he owned the trust property in its own right and for his own benefit.
- C. The power to retain, sell, invest, and reinvest in any stocks, bonds, securities, or other property, real or personal, which Trustee shall deem proper, necessary, or expedient, without order of court and without being confined to what are known as legal investments for trust estates. Trustee is specifically authorized to retain and stock which Grantor may deliver to him and Trustee shall be under no obligation to diversify the investments of the Trust.
- D. The power to borrow money for any purpose that to Trustee may seem proper, and to secure the payment of the same if Trustee deems it proper, by the whole or any part of the trust estate, and a lender of money shall not be under any obligation whatsoever to see to the purpose for which the money is borrowed, or the use of the proceeds of any such loan.
- E. The power to do all that is necessary or proper and preserve the trust estate or any part of it.

- F. Trustee shall be liable for only the use of ordinary care in the execution of the Trust and is relieved from giving bon or making any inventory, return, or report to any court or person whomsoever.
- G. Mortgage, pledge, or otherwise encumber any real, personal or mixed property owned by the Trust or in which the Trust has any interest, as security for the repayment of any Loan or Guaranty or the performance of any other obligation. Trustee may perform any acts that may be required to perfect any such liens and security interests, and may sign, foreclose or release any such liens or security interests.

This Declaration shall be governed by the laws of the State of Alabama.
