DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY

ARTICLE I
STATEMENT OF INTENT TO CREATE
DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That I, GENEVA S. AYCOCK, have made, constituted and appointed, and by these presents do make, constitute and appoint my children, NANCY A. NORRIS and JOY A. CARTER, as my true and lawful attorneys in fact (hereinafter sometimes referred to as my "attorney"), for me from time to time and in my name, place and stead to do any and all acts which I could do if personally present, hereby intending to give to my said attorney the fullest and broadest powers to act for me.

This appointment is made jointly so as to require agreement between my attorneys in fact in all actions taken hereunder for as long as they serve concurrently under this instrument. In the event one should cease to serve in such capacity, the remaining appointee shall serve singularly as my attorney in fact as if she alone had been appointed under this instrument. My successor attorney in fact shall have the same rights, powers, duties, responsibilities and exceptions as are herein conferred upon my original attorney in fact.

(25) To use and apply so much of the income and principal of the assets comprising my estate as may be necessary or desirable, in the sole discretion of said attorney, for the maintenance and support of any person dependent upon me, taking into consideration other income, resources, or financial assistance available to any of them from all other sources. (26) To exercise any general or special power of appointment exercisable by me;

For purposes of this section, nontaxable gifts shall mean any gifts or transfers which are not "taxable gifts" as defined in Section 2503 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any power or authority granted to my attorney herein shall be limited so as to prevent this power of attorney from causing my attorney to be taxed on my income or from causing my assets to be subject to a "general power of appointment" by my attorney as defined in Sections 2041 and 2514 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

(28) To retain and operate any businesses owned by me (regardless of whether operated in the form of a corporation, general or limited partnership, limited liability company, sole proprietorship, or otherwise), hereinafter referred to as "Businesses," regardless of lack of diversification, for such period as my attorney in fact, in his/her absolute discretion, shall determine appropriate. I consider interests owned by me in the Businesses as proper investments, and my attorney in fact is authorized to invest in or retain indefinitely all of any part of the Businesses even though such interests lack liquidity, may be considered, and in fact may be, more volatile or risky than alternative investments, may never yield a dividend or other income, and may constitute a very large percentage or all of my property. My attorney in fact shall not be accountable for any loss or depreciation in value sustained by reason of compliance with my wishes as expressed in this instrument.

ARTICLE III
AUTHORIZATION TO RELEASE
INFORMATION TO ATTORNEY

Any banks, bankers, trust companies, national banks, savings banks, safe deposit companies, stockbrokers, fiduciaries, depositories or other institutions, persons, firms or corporations are authorized to release information to my attorney in reliance hereon and shall be fully protected even though the said attorney, substitute or associate may be dealing with himself or herself, as it is contemplated that such may be the case.

I hereby authorize the use or disclosure of any of my "Protected Health Information", as defined in the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), including any and all confidential or private records, summaries and/or opinions related to my mental or physical capacity to make decisions regarding my health care and business affairs, to a physician, health care professional, hospital, clinic, medical facility, or other health care provider that has provided treatment or services to me or on my behalf and to my attorney.

I understand that the information used or disclosed may be subject to re-disclosure by the person or class of persons receiving it, and would then no longer be protected by federal privacy regulations.

ARTICLE IV
NOMINATION OF ATTORNEY AS
GUARDIAN AND CONSERVATOR

In the event court proceedings for a guardian, conservator, curator or other fiduciary for my person and/or property are commenced hereafter, I hereby nominate my attorney appointed hereunder (including any successor) to serve as guardian, conservator, curator and/or other fiduciary for my person and/or property. This nomination should be viewed as my expression of nomination for such fiduciary and not as a mandate for such proceedings or as a limitation of any powers granted to my attorney hereunder.

ARTICLE V
REVOCATION AND REMOVAL

I hereby expressly revoke any power of attorney heretofore given covering the authority and powers herein granted, without prejudice, however, to anything lawfully done or caused to be done under any power of attorney heretofore given, and I hereby ratify and confirm all previous acts of my attorney with the same force as if such acts had been done after the execution and delivery of this power of attorney.

By execution of this Power of Attorney I do not intend to revoke any power I may have granted by execution of an appointment of Health Care Proxy pursuant to Ala. Code 1975 § 22-8A-4.

I may at any time revoke this power of attorney, but it shall be deemed to be in full force and effect as to all persons, institutions and organizations which shall act in reliance thereon prior to the receipt of written revocation thereof signed by me and prior to receipt of actual notice of my death.

ARTICLE VI
GOVERNING LAW

This power of attorney shall be governed by the laws of the State of Alabama.

ARTICLE VII
COUNTERPART ORIGINALS

Reproductions of this executed original (with reproduced signatures and the certificate of acknowledgment) shall be deemed to be original counterparts of this power of attorney.

ARTICLE VIII
DURABILITY PROVISION

This power of attorney expressly shall not be revoked by my disability, incompetency or incapacity.
