AFFIDAVIT

Before me, the undersigned Notary Public in and for Jefferson County, personally appeared Vonda Lee Cook, who is known to me or has provided proof of identification to me, and who says on oath as follows:

I hereby swear under oath that:

1. My name is Vonda Lee Cook, and I am an adult and a resident of the State of Alabama.
2. I am the Trustee of the Cook Family Trust, dated August 11, 2016. The Cook Family Trust is evidenced by that Certificate of Trust dated August 11, 2016.
3. I hereby attest that the Cook Family Trust and the Certificate of Trust evidencing same are and continue to be in full force and effect.
4. I hereby attest that I have authorized authority to sign any document, instrument, or conveyance on behalf of the Cook Family Trust, dated August 11, 2016.

The above is true to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal on this the 6th day of Spetember, 2023

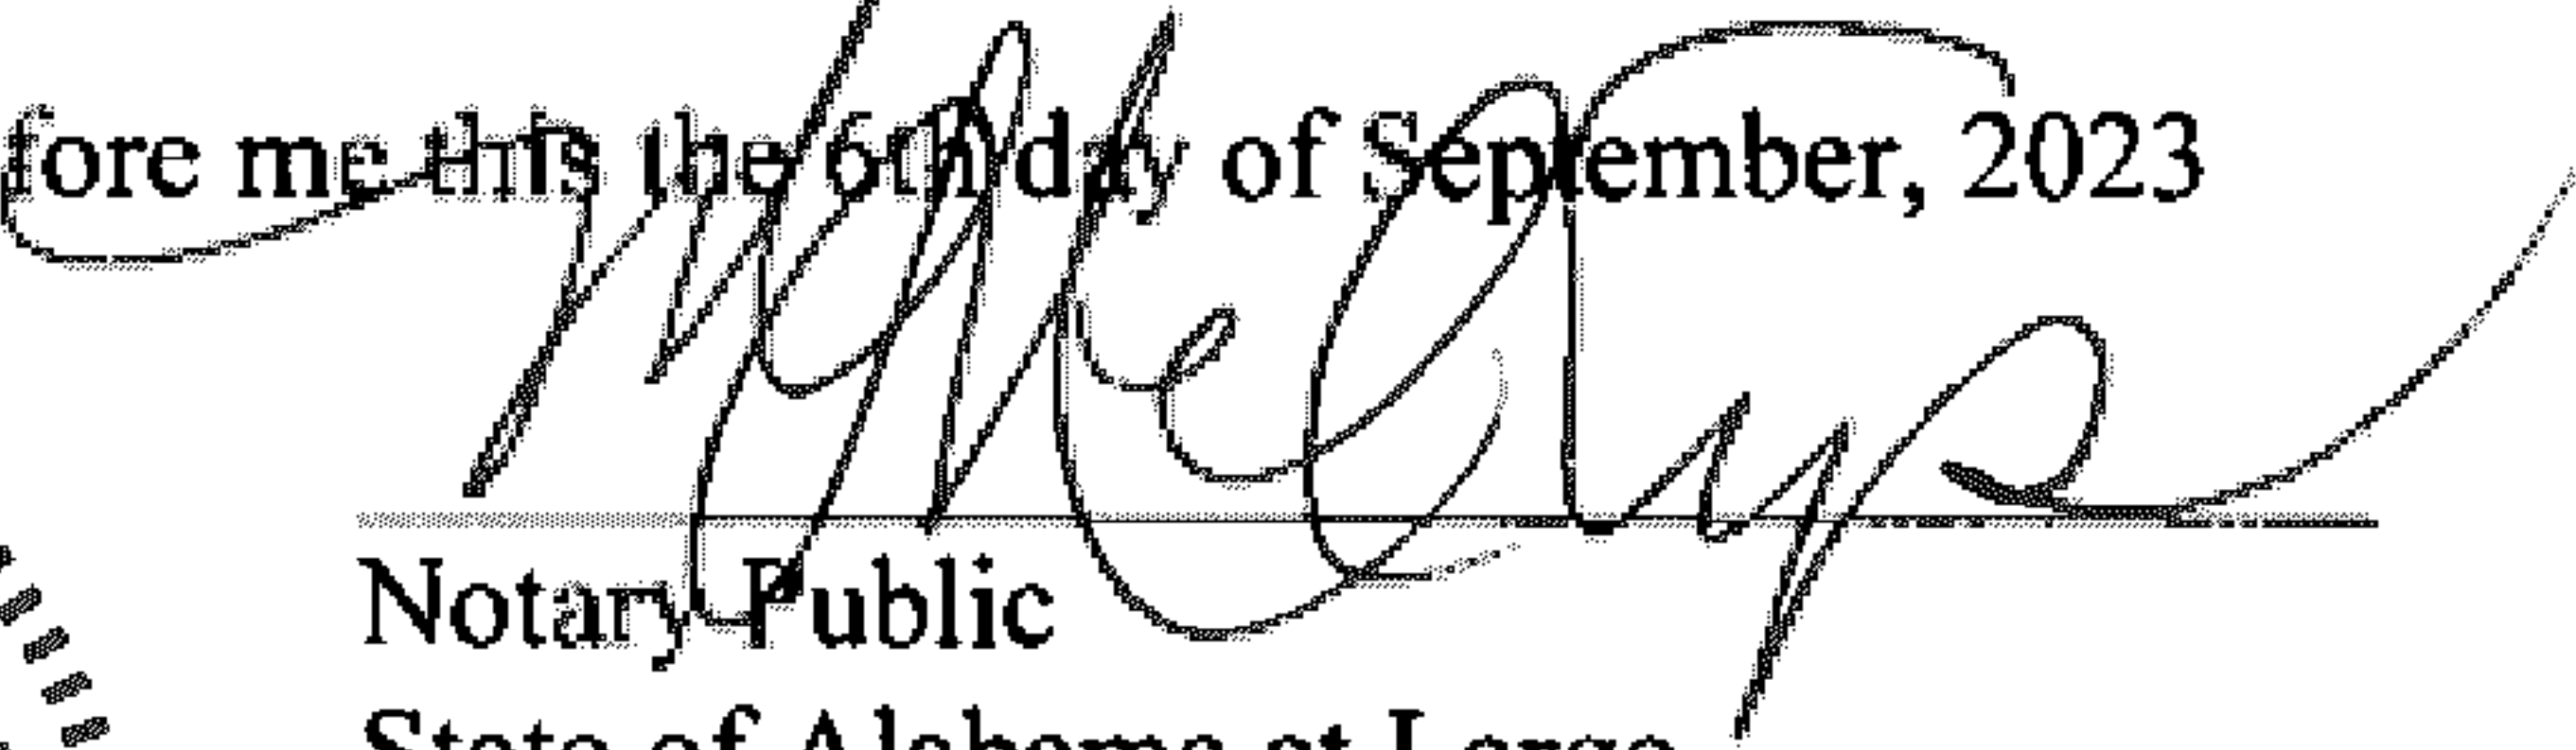

Vonda Lee Cook

Certification of Trust Cook Family Trust

This Certification of Trust is made pursuant to Code of Ala. (1975) § 19-3B-1013.

I, the undersigned Trustee, declare as follows:

1. The name of the trust is: Cook Family Trust.
2. The trust currently exists.
3. The trust was executed on August 11, 2016.
4. The Settlers of the trust are Henry Sylvester Cook and Vonda Lee Cook.
5. The trust is irrevocable.
6. The trust is amendable by the Trust Protector.
7. The trust has not been revoked, modified, or amended in any manner that would cause the representations contained in this Certification of Trust to be incorrect.
8. The currently acting Trustee of the trust is:

Vonda Lee Cook
4869 Crystal Circle, Hoover, AL 35226
Home: (205) 987-2055 Work: N/A
Mobile: (205) 999-8132

9. The Trustee may conduct business on behalf of the trust without the consent of any other person or entity.
10. The tax identification number of the trust may be either Henry Sylvester Cook's Social Security number or Vonda Lee Cook's Social Security number, at the discretion of the Trustee.
11. Assets held in the trust may be titled in any manner that identifies the Trustee and the name and date of the trust, for example:

Vonda Lee Cook, Trustee of the Cook Family Trust dated August 11, 2016.
12. The powers of the Trustee include the power to acquire, sell, assign, convey, pledge, encumber, lease, borrow, manage, and deal with real and personal property interests of all kinds, including accounts at financial institutions.
13. Excerpts from the trust agreement that establish the trust, designate the Trustee, and set forth the powers of the Trustee will be provided upon request.
14. The trust agreement provides that a third party may rely on this Certification of Trust in lieu of a copy of the trust agreement. It further exonerates third parties from any liability for acts or omissions in reliance on this Certification of Trust, and for the application that the Trustee makes of funds or other property delivered to the Trustee.

The statements made above are accurate and the trust has not been revoked or amended in any way that would cause the representations in this Certification of Trust to be incorrect. All of the currently acting Trustees of the trust are identified above and are signatories to this Certification of Trust.

Cook Family Trust

Article One Establishing Our Trust

The date of this Irrevocable Trust Agreement is August 11, 2016. The parties to the agreement are Henry Sylvester Cook and Vonda Lee Cook (the "Settlers") and Vonda Lee Cook (our "Trustee").

By this agreement we intend to create a valid trust under the laws of Alabama and under the laws of any state in which any trust created under this agreement is administered.

Section 1.01 Identifying Our Trust

Our trust is called the "Cook Family Trust." However, the following format should be used for taking title to assets: "Vonda Lee Cook, Trustee of the Cook Family Trust dated August 11, 2016."

For the purpose of transferring property to our trust, or identifying our trust in any beneficiary or pay-on-death designation, any description referring to our trust is effective if it reasonably identifies our trust.

Section 1.02 Third-Party Reliance on Affidavit or Certification of Trust

Our Trustee may provide an affidavit or certification of trust to third parties in lieu of providing a copy of this agreement. Third parties are exonerated from any liability for acts or omissions in reliance on the affidavit or certification of trust, and for the application that our Trustee makes of funds or other property delivered to our Trustee.

Section 1.03 An Irrevocable Trust

This trust is irrevocable, and neither of us may alter, amend, revoke, or terminate it in any way.

Section 1.04 Transfers to the Trust

We transfer to our Trustee the property listed in Schedule A, attached to this agreement, to be held on the terms and conditions set forth in this instrument. We retain no right, title or interest in the income or principal of this trust or any other incident of ownership in any trust property.

(a) Character of Property Transferred

The character of any property transferred to this trust shall be determined as follows:

Article Two

Trustee Succession and Trust Protector Provisions

Section 2.01 Resignation of a Trustee

A Trustee may resign by giving written notice to either of us. If we are both deceased, a resigning Trustee will give written notice to the income beneficiaries of the trust and to any other Trustee then serving.

Section 2.02 Trustee Succession

This Section governs the succession of our Trustees.

(a) Trustee Succession During Lifetime

We appoint the following, in the order named, to serve as Trustee of our trust while either of us is living:

- First: Vonda Lee Cook
- Second: Clarke Liddell Cook
- Third: Cecilia Cook
- Fourth: John Paul Cook

(b) Trustee Succession After Death

After the death of the survivor of us, the Trustee serving during lifetime will be replaced by the following, in the order named, to serve as Trustee of our trust during the course of administration and over any trust created under this agreement:

- First: Clarke Liddell Cook
- Second: Cecilia Cook
- Third: John Paul Cook

(c) Trustees of the Separate Trusts

Upon the creation of the separate trusts as provided in Article Five, the primary beneficiary of a separate trust, upon attaining 25, may appoint himself or herself as a Cotrustee of his or her separate trust to serve with the then acting successor Trustee. Upon attaining 30 years of age the primary beneficiary may serve as the sole Trustee of his or her separate trust.

At any time a beneficiary is serving as Cotrustee of his or her trust before attaining the age of 30, there must be at least one other Trustee serving with the beneficiary.

If the interest of a beneficiary will be merged into a life estate or an estate for years because the beneficiary is serving as sole Trustee, the beneficiary

Our Trustee's Powers

Section 10.01 Introduction to Trustee's Powers

Except as otherwise specifically provided in this agreement, our Trustee may exercise, without prior approval from any court, all the powers conferred by this agreement and any other powers conferred by law, including, without limitation, those powers set forth under the common law or statutory law of Alabama or any other jurisdiction whose law applies to this trust. The powers set forth in Code of Ala. (1975) § 19-3B-815 and § 19-3B-816 are specifically incorporated into this trust agreement. The powers conferred upon our Trustee by law, including those powers conferred by Code of Ala. (1975) § 19-3B-815 and § 19-3B-816, shall be subject to any express limitations or contrary directions contained in this agreement.

Our Trustee shall exercise these powers in the manner our Trustee determines to be in the best interests of the beneficiaries. Our Trustee shall not exercise any of its powers in a manner that is inconsistent with the right of the beneficiaries to the beneficial enjoyment of the trust property in accordance with the general principles of the law of trusts.

The Trustee of a trust may have duties and responsibilities in addition to those described in this agreement. We encourage our Trustee to obtain appropriate legal advice if our Trustee has any questions concerning its duties and responsibilities as Trustee.

Section 10.02 Power to Appoint in Further Trust (Trust Decanting)

An Independent Trustee (the "decanting trustee") may distribute assets of any trust created under this agreement (the "old trust") to another trust (the "new trust") that meets all of the following requirements:

- (i) the new trust must provide for one or more of the beneficiaries of the old trust;
- (ii) the new trust must not reduce any fixed income, annuity, or unitrust right of any beneficiary of the old trust, other than either of us;
- (iii) the new trust must not defeat a presently exercisable right of any beneficiary to withdraw property from the old trust, other than either of us;
- (iv) the new trust must not accelerate the interests of remainder beneficiaries of the old trust, but such restriction does not prevent the designation of a beneficiary of the remainder interest of the old trust as a beneficiary of the lifetime interest of the new trust;
- (v) the new trust must not create or expand either of our rights as a beneficiary over what was provided in the old trust, but may remove or contract any such rights;
- (vi) the new trust must not benefit the decanting trustee, the decanting trustee's creditors, the decanting trustee's estate, or the creditors of the decanting trustee's estate;

- (vii) the term of the new trust must not extend beyond the period of perpetuities provided under the governing law of the old trust; and
- (viii) the new trust must qualify for each of the following if the old trust so qualifies:
 - (a) the marital deduction;
 - (b) the charitable deduction;
 - (c) the gift tax or generation-skipping transfer tax annual exclusion for gifts to the trust; and
 - (d) as a qualified subchapter S corporation shareholder.

Section 10.03 Execution of Documents by Our Trustee

Our Trustee may execute and deliver any and all instruments in writing that our Trustee considers necessary to carry out any of the powers granted in this agreement.

Section 10.04 Investment Powers in General

Our Trustee may invest in any type of investment that our Trustee determines is consistent with the investment goals of our trust, whether inside or outside the geographic borders of the United States of America and its possessions or territories, taking into account our trust's overall investment portfolio. Without limiting our Trustee's investment authority in any way, we request that our Trustee exercise reasonable care and skill in selecting and retaining trust investments. We also request that our Trustee take into account the following factors in choosing investments for our trust:

The potential return from the investment, both in the form of income and appreciation;

The potential income tax consequences of the investment;

The investment's potential for volatility; and

The role the investment will play in the trust's portfolio.

We request that our Trustee, in arranging the investment portfolio of the trust, also consider the possible effects of inflation or deflation, changes in global and U.S. economic conditions, transaction expenses, and the trust's need for liquidity.

Our Trustee may access, establish, cancel, or continue online bank and investment accounts (through the Internet or other similar method) and conduct online banking transactions of any kind as authorized in this agreement.

Our Trustee may delegate its discretion to manage trust investments to any registered investment adviser or corporate fiduciary.

Section 10.05 Banking Powers

Our Trustee may establish bank accounts of any type in one or more banking institutions that our Trustee may choose. Our Trustee may open accounts in the name of our Trustee (with or without disclosing fiduciary capacity) or in the name of the trust. When an account is in the name of the trust, checks on that account and authorized signatures need not disclose the fiduciary nature of the account or refer to any trust or Trustee.

Cook Family Trust

An account from which our Trustee makes frequent disbursements need not be an interest bearing account. Our Trustee may authorize withdrawals from an account by check, draft or other instrument or in any other manner.

Section 10.06 Business Powers

Our Trustee is authorized to serve as an officer, director, manager, or in any other capacity of any proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation, or other enterprise in which the trust has an interest (whether or not such interest is total or controlling). Our Trustee may receive compensation for services.

Our Trustee may contract with and otherwise deal with any such enterprise in the same manner as it would with any enterprise in which the trust has no interest, and may use any voting power our Trustee may have to implement its authority (whether as Trustee or as an officer, director, or other official of the enterprise).

With respect to any units in a limited liability company, limited partnership, or stock in a closely-held corporation ("closely-held company") that are contributed to the trust, the powers granted to our Trustee in this Article shall not disqualify our Trustee from acting personally and independently, and not in a fiduciary capacity, with respect to any closely held company, from holding office in the closely-held company, from accepting remuneration from the closely-held company, from voting any units or stock in favor of our Trustee as a director or officer of the closely-held company, or from purchasing or selling units or stock of the closely-held company.

If any trust created under this agreement is funded with subchapter S stock, our Trustee may either elect to qualify the trust as a qualified subchapter S trust ("QSST") under Section 1361(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or as an electing small business trust under Section 1361(e)(1) to administer the trust in accordance with the requirements of the corresponding Section.

Section 10.07 Contract Powers

Our Trustee may sell at public or private sale, transfer, exchange for other property, and otherwise dispose of trust property for consideration and upon terms and conditions that our Trustee deems advisable. Our Trustee may grant options of any duration for any such sales, exchanges, or transfers of trust property.

Our Trustee may enter into contracts, and may deliver deeds or other instruments, that our Trustee deems appropriate.

Section 10.08 Common Investments

For purposes of convenience with regard to the administration and investment of the trust property, our Trustee may invest part or all of the trust property jointly with trust property of other trusts for which our Trustee is also serving as a Trustee. For this purpose, a corporate fiduciary acting as our Trustee may use common funds for investment.

Cook Family Trust

10-3

When trust property is managed and invested in this manner, our Trustee shall maintain records that sufficiently identify that portion of the jointly invested assets that constitute the trust property of this trust.

Section 10.09 Environmental Powers

Our Trustee shall have the right to inspect trust property to determine compliance with or to respond to any environmental law affecting the trust property. "Environmental law" shall mean any federal, state, or local law, rule, regulation, or ordinance relating to protection of the environment or of human health.

Our Trustee may refuse to accept property if our Trustee determines that the property is or may be contaminated by any hazardous substance or is or was used for any purpose involving hazardous substances that could create liability to the trust or to our Trustee.

Our Trustee may use and expend trust property to (i) conduct environmental assessments, audits or site monitoring; (ii) take remedial action to contain, clean up or remove any hazardous substance including a spill, discharge or contamination; (iii) institute, contest or settle legal proceedings brought by a private litigant or any local, state, or federal agency concerned with environmental compliance; (iv) comply with any order issued by any court or by any local, state, or federal agency directing an assessment, abatement or clean-up of any hazardous substance; and (v) employ agents, consultants and legal counsel to assist our Trustee in these actions.

Our Trustee shall not be liable for any loss or reduction in value sustained by our trust as a result of our Trustee's retention of property on which hazardous materials or substances requiring remedial action are discovered unless our Trustee contributed to the resulting loss or reduction in value through willful misconduct or gross negligence.

Our Trustee shall not be liable to any beneficiary or to any other party for any decrease in the value of trust property as a result of our Trustee's compliance with any environmental law, including any reporting requirement.

Our Trustee may release, relinquish or disclaim any power held by our Trustee that our Trustee determines may cause our Trustee to incur individual liability under any environmental law.

Section 10.10 Farm, Ranch and Other Agricultural Powers

Our Trustee may retain, acquire, and sell any farm or ranching operation, whether as a sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation.

Our Trustee may engage in the production, harvesting, and marketing of farm and ranch products either by operating directly or with management agencies, hired labor, tenants, or sharecroppers.

Our Trustee may engage and participate in any government farm program, whether state or federally sponsored.

Our Trustee may purchase or rent machinery, equipment, livestock, poultry, feed, and seed.

Cook Family Trust

10-4

Our Trustee may improve and repair all farm and ranch properties; construct buildings, fences, and drainage facilities, and acquire, retain, improve, and dispose of wells, water rights, ditch rights, and priorities of any nature.

Our Trustee may do all things customary or desirable to operate a farm or ranch operation for the benefit of the beneficiaries.

Section 10.11 Insurance Powers

Our Trustee may purchase, accept, hold, and deal with as owner, policies of insurance on either of our lives, the life of any beneficiary, or on the life of any person in whom any beneficiary has an insurable interest. It is our intent that life insurance policies be considered proper investments of trust principal.

Our Trustee may purchase disability, medical, liability, long-term health care and other insurance on behalf of and for the benefit of any beneficiary. Our Trustee may purchase annuities and similar investments for any beneficiary.

Our Trustee shall have the power to execute or cancel any automatic premium loan agreement with respect to any policy, and shall have the power to elect or cancel any automatic premium loan provision in a life insurance policy. Our Trustee may borrow money to pay premiums due on any policy, either by borrowing from the company issuing the policy or from another source. Our Trustee may assign the policy as security for the loan.

Our Trustee shall have the power to exercise any option contained in a policy with regard to any dividend or share of surplus apportioned to the policy, to reduce the amount of a policy or convert or exchange the policy, or to surrender a policy at any time for its cash value.

Our Trustee may elect any paid-up insurance or extended term insurance nonforfeiture option contained in a policy.

Our Trustee shall have the power to sell any policy at its fair market value to anyone having an insurable interest in the policies including the insured.

Our Trustee shall have the right to exercise any other right, option, or benefit contained in a policy or permitted by the insurance company issuing the policy.

Upon termination of the trust, our Trustee shall have the power to transfer and assign the policies held by the trust as a distribution of trust property.

The provisions of this Section shall supersede the principles of general trust law with respect to our Trustee's duties and obligations relating to any life insurance policies owned or acquired by our trust.

Section 10.12 Borrowing Powers

Our Trustee may borrow money at interest rates and on other terms that our Trustee deems advisable from any person, institution, or other source, including, in the case of a corporate fiduciary, its own banking or commercial lending department.

Cook Family Trust

Our Trustee may encumber trust property by mortgages, pledges, and other hypothecation, even though the term may extend beyond the termination of the trust or beyond the period that is required for an interest created under this agreement to vest in order to be valid under the rule against perpetuities.

Our Trustee may purchase, sell at public or private sale, trade, renew, modify, and extend mortgages. Our Trustee may accept deeds in lieu of foreclosure.

Section 10.13 Nominee Powers

Our Trustee may hold real estate, securities and any other trust property in the name of a nominee or in any other form without disclosing the existence of any trust or fiduciary capacity.

Section 10.14 Oil, Gas and Mineral Interests

Our Trustee may acquire, maintain, develop and exploit, either alone or jointly with others, any oil, gas, coal, minerals or other natural resource rights or interests.

Our Trustee may drill, test, explore, mine, develop, extract, remove, convert, manage, retain, store, sell and exchange any of such rights and interests on terms and for a price that our Trustee deems advisable.

Our Trustee may execute leases, pooling and unitization agreements and other types of agreements in connection with such oil, gas, coal, mineral and other natural resource rights and interests even though such arrangements may extend beyond the termination of the trust.

Our Trustee may execute division orders, transfer orders, releases, assignments, farm outs, and any other instruments that it deems proper.

Our Trustee may employ the services of consultants and outside specialists in connection with the evaluation, management, acquisition, disposition, and development of any mineral interest, and may pay the cost of the services from the principal and income of the trust property.

Section 10.15 Online Accounts, Digital Assets, and Digital Devices

Without limiting any other provision of this agreement, and subject to the limitations of any other provision of this agreement, our Trustee has the powers described in this Section.

Our Trustee has full authority to deal with Online Accounts, Digital Assets, and Digital Devices of all kinds, wherever located. This authority includes, but is not limited to, the power to acquire, create, establish, access, control, modify, cancel, delete, continue, transfer, and take possession of such accounts, assets, and devices.

Section 10.16 Payment of Taxes and Expenses

Except as otherwise provided in this agreement, our Trustee is authorized to pay all property taxes, assessments, fees, charges, and other expenses incurred in the administration or protection of the trust. All payments shall be a charge against the trust property and shall be paid by our Trustee out of the income, or to the extent that the income is insufficient, then out of the principal of the trust property. The determination of our Trustee with respect to the payment of expenses shall be conclusive upon the beneficiaries.

Section 10.17 Purchase of Assets from and Loans to Our Probate Estates

Upon the death of either of us, our Trustee is authorized to purchase and retain in the form received, as an addition to the trust, any property that is a part of the deceased spouse's probate or trust estate. In addition, our Trustee may make loans, with or without security, to the deceased spouse's probate or trust estate. Our Trustee shall not be liable for any loss suffered by the trust as a result of the exercise of the powers granted in this Section.

Notwithstanding anything in this agreement to the contrary, our Trustee shall not have the power to use any trust property for the benefit of either of our estates if doing so would cause such assets to be deemed available resources for Medicaid eligibility or Medicaid estate recovery purposes.

Further, notwithstanding anything in this agreement to the contrary, our Trustee shall not have the power to use any trust property for the benefit of either of our estates as defined in Section 20.2042-1(b) of the Treasury Regulations, unless such property is included in the deceased spouse's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes.

Section 10.18 Qualified Tuition Programs

Our Trustee may purchase tuition credits or certificates or make contributions to an account in one or more qualified tuition programs as defined under Section 529 of the Internal Revenue Code on behalf of a beneficiary for the purpose of meeting the qualified higher education expenses of the beneficiary. With respect to an interest in any qualified tuition program, our Trustee is authorized to act as contributor (or similar designation given to the person who maintains control of an interest in the qualified tuition program) and take any and all actions to administer the interest, including, without limitation, the following:

- To designate and change the designated beneficiary of the interest in the qualified tuition program;

- To request withdrawals, both qualified and nonqualified;

- To select among investment options and to reallocate funds in the interest in the qualified tuition program among different investment options;

- To make rollovers to another qualified tuition program; and

- To determine the allocation of any tax benefits or penalties to the beneficiaries of the trust.

Notwithstanding anything in this paragraph to the contrary, the designated beneficiary at all times must be a beneficiary of the trust from which the funds were distributed to establish the interest in the qualified tuition program. Our Trustee's investment in a qualified tuition program shall not be considered a delegation of investment responsibility under any applicable statute or other law.

Cook Family Trust

Section 10.19 Real Estate Powers

Our Trustee may sell at public or private sale, convey, purchase, exchange, lease for any period, mortgage, manage, alter, improve and in general deal in and with real property in such manner and on such terms and conditions as our Trustee deems appropriate.

Our Trustee may grant or release easements in or over, subdivide, partition, develop, raze improvements, and abandon, any real property.

Our Trustee may manage real estate in any manner that our Trustee deems best and shall have all other real estate powers necessary for this purpose.

Our Trustee may enter into contracts to sell real estate. Our Trustee may enter into leases and grant options to lease trust property even though the term of the agreement extends beyond the termination of any trusts established under this agreement and beyond the period that is required for an interest created under this agreement to vest in order to be valid under the rule against perpetuities. For such purposes, our Trustee may enter into any contracts, covenants and warranty agreements that our Trustee deems appropriate.

Section 10.20 Residences and Tangible Personal Property

Our Trustee may acquire, maintain and invest in any residence for the use and benefit of the beneficiaries, whether or not the residence is income producing and without regard to the proportion that the value of the residence may bear to the total value of the trust property and even if retaining the residence involves financial risks that trustees would not ordinarily incur. Our Trustee may pay or make arrangements for others to pay all carrying costs of the residence, including, but not limited to, taxes, assessments, insurance, expenses of maintaining the residence in suitable repair, and other expenses relating to the operation of the residence for the benefit of the beneficiaries.

Our Trustee may acquire, maintain and invest in articles of tangible personal property, whether or not the property is income producing, and may pay the expenses of the repair and maintenance of the property.

Our Trustee shall have no duty to convert the property referred to in this Section to productive property except as required by other provisions of this agreement.

Subject to Section 3.01(a), our Trustee may permit any beneficiary to occupy any real property or use any personal property owned by the trust on terms or arrangements that our Trustee may determine, including rent free or in consideration for some or all of the carrying costs (such as taxes, insurance, maintenance, repairs, or other costs).

Our Trustee shall have no liability for any depreciation or loss as a result of the retention of any property retained or acquired under the authority of this Section.

Section 10.21 Retention and Abandonment of Trust Property

Our Trustee may retain, without liability for depreciation or loss resulting from retention, any property constituting the trust at the time of its creation, at the time of the death of either of us or as the result of the exercise of a stock option. Our Trustee may retain property, notwithstanding the fact that the property may not be of the character prescribed by law for the investment of assets held by a fiduciary, and notwithstanding the fact that retention may result in inadequate diversification under any applicable Prudent Investor Act or other applicable law.

Our Trustee may hold property that is non-income producing or is otherwise nonproductive if holding the property is, in the sole and absolute discretion of our Trustee, in the best interests of the beneficiaries. On the other hand, our Trustee shall invest contributions of cash and cash equivalents as soon as reasonably practical after the assets have been acquired by the trust. Our Trustee is permitted to retain a reasonable amount in cash or money market accounts in order to pay anticipated expenses and other costs and to provide for anticipated distributions to or for the benefit of a beneficiary.

Our Trustee may abandon any trust property that our Trustee deems to be of insignificant value.

Section 10.22 Securities, Brokerage and Margin Powers

Our Trustee may buy, sell, trade and otherwise deal in stocks, bonds, investment companies, mutual funds, common trust funds, commodities, options and other securities of any kind and in any amount, including short sales. Our Trustee may write and purchase call or put options, and other derivative securities. Our Trustee may maintain margin accounts with brokerage firms and may pledge securities to secure loans and advances made to our Trustee or to or for the benefit of a beneficiary.

Our Trustee may place all or any part of the securities held by the trust in the custody of a bank or trust company. Our Trustee may have all securities registered in the name of the bank or trust company or in the name of its nominee. Our Trustee may appoint the bank or trust company as the agent or attorney in fact to collect, receive, receipt for and disburse any income and generally to perform the duties and services incident to a custodian of accounts.

Our Trustee may employ a broker-dealer as a custodian for securities held by the trust and may register the securities in the name of the broker-dealer or in the name of a nominee with or without the addition of words indicating that the securities are held in a fiduciary capacity. Our Trustee may hold securities in bearer or uncertificated form and may use a central depository, clearing agency or book-entry system, such as The Depository Trust Company, Euroclear or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

Our Trustee may participate in any reorganization, recapitalization, merger or similar transaction. Our Trustee may exercise or sell conversion or subscription rights for securities of all kinds and description.

Cook Family Trust

10-9

Our Trustee may give proxies or powers of attorney that may be discretionary and with or without powers of substitution. Our Trustee may vote or refrain from voting as to any matter.

Section 10.23 Settlement Powers

Our Trustee may settle, by compromise, adjustment, arbitration or otherwise any and all claims and demands in favor of or against the trust. Our Trustee may release or abandon any claim in favor of the trust.

Section 10.24 Limitation on Our Trustee's Powers

All powers granted to our Trustee under this agreement or by applicable law shall be limited as set forth in this Section, unless explicitly excepted by reference to this Section.

(a) An Interested Trustee Limited to Ascertainable Standards

An Interested Trustee may not exercise or participate in the exercise of discretion with respect to the distribution of income or principal, or the termination of the trust to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, to the extent that the exercise of such discretion is other than for the health, education, maintenance or support of a beneficiary as described under Sections 2041 and 2514 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) No Distributions in Discharge of Certain Legal Obligations

Our Trustee may not exercise or participate in the exercise of discretion with respect to the distribution of income or principal that would in any manner discharge a legal obligation of our Trustee, including the obligation of support.

If a beneficiary or any other person has the power to remove a Trustee, that Trustee may not exercise or participate in the exercise of discretion with respect to the distribution of income or principal that would in any manner discharge a legal obligation of the person having the power to remove our Trustee, including that person's obligation of support.

(c) Insurance Policy on the Life of Our Trustee

If the trust holds a policy that insures the life of our Trustee, our Trustee shall have no right to exercise any powers or rights with respect to the policy. A Cotrustee serving under this agreement shall exercise the powers and rights with respect to the policy.

If the insured Trustee is the only Trustee, then an Independent Special Trustee designated under Section 2.09 shall exercise the powers and rights with respect to the policy.

If any rule of law or court decision construes the ability of the insured Trustee to name an Independent Special Trustee as an incident of ownership of the policy, then a majority of the then current mandatory and discretionary income beneficiaries (excluding the insured Trustee if he or she is a beneficiary) shall select the Independent Special Trustee.

(d) Insurance Policy on a Beneficiary's Life

If the trust holds a policy that insures the life of a beneficiary, the beneficiary (acting individually or as Trustee) shall have no power over the policy, the cash value of the policy, or the proceeds of the policy. The intent of this denial of power is to prevent an insured beneficiary from having a power that would constitute an incident of ownership of the policy.

The limitations of this subsection shall not apply if the proceeds of the policy would, upon the death of the beneficiary, otherwise be included in the gross estate of the beneficiary for federal estate tax purposes.

Settlers and Trustee

We hereby execute this agreement on August 11, 2016.

We certify that we have read this agreement, that we understand it, and that it correctly states the provisions under which the trust property is to be administered and distributed by our Trustee.
