A. In addition to all powers granted by law, the trustee shall have the following powers with respect to each trust held under this instrument, exercisable in the discretion of the trustee:

1. To collect the income on trust property.
2. To compromise, abandon, adjust and settle in the trustee's discretion any claim in favor of or against the trust.
3. To hold and retain without liability for loss or depreciation any property or securities transferred to the trustee or to which the trustee becomes entitled, including any partnership interest (whether general, limited or special), shares of regulated investment companies or trusts (whether open-end or closed-end), interests as members in limited liability companies, stock or interest in any family corporation, partnership or enterprise, without regard to any statutory or constitutional limitations applicable to the investment of funds and though the retention might violate principles of investment diversification, so long as the trustee shall consider the retention for the best interests of the trust.
4. To sell at public or private sale, wholly or partly for cash or on credit, contract to sell, auction, convey, exchange, transfer, lease or rent for a period beyond the term of the trust (or for a lesser period) for improvement or otherwise, or to grant options, or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of the trust in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the trustee may approve.
5. To invest and reinvest the trust or any portion thereof in such loans, bonds, common or preferred stocks, notes, mortgages, participations in mortgages, common trust funds, securities, shares of regulated investment companies or trusts, currencies, partnerships (whether general, limited, or special), interests as members in limited liability companies, or other property, real or personal (including undivided interests therein and partial interests such as life estate, term or remainder interests), domestic or foreign, or to purchase and sell options (including listed options), or to exercise options, rights, or warrants, and to purchase securities or other property as the trustee may deem suitable, whether so-called "legal" investments of trust funds or not, provided, however, that the corporate trustee, acting alone, is authorized to make temporary investments in interest bearing securities and notes, and to purchase and sell fractional shares and subscription rights to which the trust may become entitled.
6. To vote any stock or other security held hereunder in person, or by special, limited or general proxy, with or without power of substitution, or to refrain from voting the same, and to waive notice of any meeting and to give consent for or with respect thereto; and to enter into or oppose, alone or with others, voting trusts, mergers, consolidations, foreclosures, liquidations, reorganizations, or other changes in the financial structure of any corporation.
7. To subdivide or otherwise develop, and to change the use or purpose of, any real estate constituting a part of the trust into residential, recreational, commercial, cemetery, or
